

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 4:52; sun sets 7:08. High water 5:45 a. m. and 6:15 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and probably slightly warmer; southerly, shifting to westerly winds.

WOODLAWN FARMERS' CLUB.—The Woodlawn Farmers' Club met at the residence of E. E. Mason on the 22nd of July, President Harrison in the chair.

C. Lukens, on behalf of the committee on the Mount Vernon road, made a full report of the matter. He said he had a very satisfactory interview with President Abbot, of the Electric Railway, and the company had the new road opened the past week by grubbing out the trees along the line thereof.

Resolved, that the thanks of this club and the community at large are due and are hereby tendered, for the prompt and efficient manner in which the electric railway company has done the work of opening the road to the station at Mount Vernon.

There being some additional work necessary to put the road in complete order for travel, the committee was continued for that purpose, with the addition of the name of J. Norman Gibbs.

Some extracts were then read from a farmers' bulletin from the Agricultural Department on the growing of rape in this country for the feeding of sheep and cattle.

C. Lukens called attention to the approaching State fair at Richmond, and suggested that as the State Board had held three institutes in this district within two years, the club ought to assist in making up an exhibit at the fair, which was favorably received.

The next meeting being the anniversary, the club adjourned after a recess for supper to meet upon the steamer from Washington to Marshall Hall on the morning of August 26.

FIGHT THE OFFICERS.—Last night a colored woman named Elia Washington appeared at the station house and swore out a warrant against her husband, John Washington, making the chronic complaint that he had assaulted and beaten her. Officers Brenner and Ferguson started to execute the warrant and upon reaching Washington's house and making the nature of their errand known they were informed by the accused that he didn't intend going a step with them and placed himself on the defensive. The officers had been commanded to produce his body in court, and not purposing to enter into any parley with him, seized him, but Washington fought for all he was worth, assaulting both of the officers and giving them no little trouble before he could be subdued. It was found necessary to use the sticks upon his head, but his cranium seemed as impervious to injury from the locusts as a ten-pin ball. This morning he was arraigned on two charges—wife beating and assaulting the officers. He was fined $5 for the first offense and $10 for the latter. During the investigation a colored woman named Malley Beal volunteered her services as a witness for the defense, but it was proven she was no where around the scene of the disorder. Her evidence was ruled out, but before she left the room she grew disorderly toward a witness and was brought before the court and fined $2.50. Washington was fined $20 during the early spring for cruelly assaulting his wife and breaking up all the furniture in the house.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild. Eleven prisoners and one lodger were at the station house. Justice Thompson this morning disposed of the following cases: Robert Henderson and Nettie Williams, both colored were arrested for fighting by Officer Crump. The woman was fined $5 and the boy dismissed. Virginia Snow, colored, for interfering with a member of the chain gang, arrested by Officer Young, was fined $1. John D. Beach and Adeline Wilson, arrested by Officers Jones and Ticer for disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

A young man arrested by Officers Ferguson and Brenner for being drunk in the street, was fined $1. Jos. Holland, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Brenner for being drunk and disorderly in the street, was fined $2.50. John Washington, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Brenner for beating his wife, was fined $5. He was also charged with resisting and assaulting the officers for which he was fined $10.

Two young men—one arrested by Officers Bettis and Henry and the other by Officer McCuen—charged with fighting, forfeited their collateral.

Two incorrigible boys, arrested by Officers Ticer and Jones for stealing fruit and for cruelty to animals, were sent to the work house, their fathers protesting they could do nothing with them.

Malley Beach, colored for disorderly conduct in the court and for interfering with a witness, was fined $2.50.

INGOMAR IN LEESBURG.—On Friday evening next, the people of Leesburg are to have a unique dramatic treat in the production of the beautiful play of "Ingomar" in its entirety, with Mr. Charles B. Hanford in the title role and Miss Martha Ford, of Baltimore, as the Greek maiden, Parthenia. The fact that the initial role will thus be in the hands of one who is "native and to the manner born," as Mr. Hanford hails from Virginia and Miss Ford is the daughter of a Virginia matron, will give local interest to a dramatic entertainment that otherwise will possess rare attractiveness. During the stay in Loudoun Miss Ford will be the guest of Mrs. C. Shirley Carter, at the Swann Manor.

BOY FOUND.—The body of Frank Neumeyer, who was drowned in Broad Creek Sunday, was found floating in the river opposite Mr. John Swift's residence at half-past four o'clock this morning by Capt. A. J. Fair, with one hour and three quarters later delivered it in Washington, where the deceased resided.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—Desmond vs. Desmond, report of Commissioner Carlin filed and final decree.

The little dog which had been a pet about the station house was poisoned last night.

PERSONAL.—Judge James Sangster, of Fairfax, who has been visiting his son, Mr. G. E. Sangster, in Richmond, has returned to his home in Fairfax. Mr. Joseph Hullett, of this city, left this morning for the White Sulphur Springs and Blue Ridge mountains. Miss Annie O'Neal, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Maggie O'Neal, on Prince street. Miss Hattie Pitts left here to-day for Wadesville, Clarke county, Va., where she will spend the remainder of the summer with her sister, Mrs. Greenough.

Prof. Hamilton, who during the past year was one of the assistant teachers at St. John's Academy, has gone to western New York, where he will reside for the present.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Grillbortzer left here to-day for Brazil, where Mr. G. goes as a Presbyterian missionary.

Mr. Wm. H. Steuenergel, with his mother and cousin, Miss Katie Mayers, are summering at St. George's Island. Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Hinks, of Upperville, were in this city to-day on their way to Cobb's Island.

EXCURSIONS.—The excursion given last night by the Sunday schools of the Baptist and M. E. Church, South, was, as anticipated, a very pleasant affair. The moonlight ride as far down the river as Indian Head was most enjoyable and the cool breezes most refreshing. An elaborate musical programme, which was highly appreciated, was presented by the choirs connected with the two churches and by the following named gentlemen who kindly volunteered their services: Messrs. Douglas, Aitchison, Lucas, Grimes, Harris, W. R. Owens, Scrivener, King, Briscoe, Nalls, Keppeler and W. Grosskurth.

The Hydraulian Fire Company gave an excursion to-day to Colonial Beach. The company was accompanied by the Alexandria Drum Corps and a large crowd attended.

THE BRADDOCK HOUSE.—It is understood that Mr. Wm. Hancock has sold the Braddock House in this city to Mr. J. H. Broadus, of Kansas, for $27,000. Mr. Broadus, it is said, has purchased the hotel for a syndicate of capitalists, who will greatly improve the property. It is generally conceded that if the Braddock House were put in good order and be properly conducted, it would pay a handsome dividend on the investment.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—Telegrams received at Richmond last night give the complexion of delegates to the gubernatorial convention in counties holding conventions yesterday as follows: Nelson—O'Ferrall, 3; Buford, 6; Tyler, 5; Cumberland—O'Ferrall, 2; Bedford—O'Ferrall, 2; Tyler, 7; Buford, 2; Fauquier—Though unrepresented, the delegation is believed to be about evenly divided between O'Ferrall and Tyler, with one or two for Buford. Page—O'Ferrall, 14. Westmoreland—Delegation divided between O'Ferrall and Tyler. Fluvanna—O'Ferrall, 9. Brunswick—No instructions, but the delegates are 10 for O'Ferrall and 2 for Tyler.
