

Alexandria Gazette

VOL. XCIV.--NO. 211. ALEXANDRIA, VA., TUESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1893. PRICE 2 CTS.

MEDICINAL.
Alexandria Gazette.
 PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY AT
 Gazette Building, 810 & 812 Prince st.
 Daily one year, $6; six months $3; one month 50 cents.
 Tri-Weekly one year $4; six months $2; three months $1.
 All transient advertisements must be paid for in advance.
 Changes of address will not be allowed to exceed their space unless the excess is paid for at transient rates, and under no circumstances will they be allowed to advertise other than their legitimate business in the space contracted for.
 Marriage and death notices must be paid for in advance.
 The Gazette office is connected with the Telephone Exchange. Advertisements, orders for the paper, news or any information or business can be sent by telephone.
 Entered at the Postoffice Alexandria, Virginia, as second-class matter.

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

GERMAN'S THREAT TO FRANCE.
 A dispatch from Berlin says: A warning to war hungry France, severe and unmistakable, lies illy cloaked behind the elaborate maneuvers of German's hosts in and about Metz this week. The very selection of this place for the great military demonstration is itself a threat. A city of Lorraine, one of the provinces wrested from France as the fruit of the 1870 conflict, Metz is particularly an eye-sore to the proud republic, when thus made the camping ground of her ancient enemy.
 In other ways Emperor William has not spared the feelings of the French. His greater grandfather strove to offend them as little as possible, while not giving up a shred of the real results of his victories. He kept within narrow bounds the celebration of Sedan day. The present Emperor, however, magnifies them throughout Germany, and especially in the States of the southwest.
 The Germany victory at Sedan was celebrated Saturday more intensely than ever before. Taking their cue from headquarters, the Dresden officials gave a dinner. Veteran societies all over Saxony held meetings, Leipzig gathered two bands to play in the open square, and Stuttgart, Munich and Frankfurt had civic banquets and processions. Potsdam, Posen, Breslau, Dantzig and other centres did not fail to mark the occasion with public dinners.
 The cause of this revival of anti-French feeling is not far to seek, Berlin people think. The Emperor realizes that the insolence of France is growing with her growing strength. He knows that the French government tried pressure upon Rome to prevent the Italian Crown Prince from keeping his promise to attend the German maneuvers.
 She was successful to the point of asking Prime Minister Giolitti to act as Chancellor Von Caprivi's assent to the engagement. This interference was enough to arouse Emperor William's determination to make the Metz maneuvers memorable in military history. So the celebrations go on everywhere without respect to French sentiment. Government newspaper organs say that recent events justify unusual show of feeling on Sedan Day.
 The Cologne Gazette says:
 "All Germany's efforts to win friendlier relations with France have failed utterly. The recent successes of the French in the East have given rise to the popular belief that the French army has reached the perfection of its strength. This belief, combined with their reliance on the military co-operation of Russia, has stimulated their hopes of reconquering the annexed provinces and humbling Germany."
 "The people are eagerly expectant regarding the Emperor's speech at the Metz or Strasburg banquets. The presence of Chancellor von Caprivi will guarantee that the Emperor's words will be well weighed and cautious."
 "Prince Rupprecht, her presumptive to the Bavarian throne, left Munich Thursday to join his regiment in Metz before the Emperor's arrival. He did not reach Metz when expected. A search for him was made and he was found with a young woman in Wurtemberg."

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

MEDICINAL.
ESCAPED!
 "There was a numb feeling in my arms and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their deadness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without success. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 30 pounds."—James Kane, La Bine, O. Nervine sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle for 50c. Free booklet, "Nervine," by mail. For sale by E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS, Alexandria, Va.

EDUCATIONAL.
OPENING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.
 The Clerk of the City School Board will be at his office in Peabody Building for the purpose of issuing permits for entering the Public Schools which open on September 14th, as follows:
 For white children—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 4th, 5th and 6th, from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.
 For colored children—Thursday and Friday, September 7th and 8th, from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m.
 In order that the schools may be properly organized, no permits will be issued after the 8th until the 13th.
 The principals and teachers will be at their respective school buildings on the days above named to receive and enroll the pupils.
 Those wishing to secure seats for their children will bring their city capitulation tax receipt for the year 1893. August 29 1/2

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

EDUCATIONAL.
MT. VERNON INSTITUTE.
 224 south Washington street, will re-open MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH. For terms and particulars apply to Miss M. A. ROACH, Principal. August 15 2w

WINE AND LIQUORS.
GOLDEN AGE CHAMPAGNE.
 Produced by the natural method of fermentation in the bottle, thereby retaining the carbonic acid gas as nature generates it; with other eminent health-giving properties. Being free from excess of alcohol, sugar and acid, it is regarded in a high degree beneficial to health. It is recommended by physicians as an aid to digestion and invigorant of the system. Old Thompson, Baker, Monticello, Gilchrist and Hammsville Whiskies; Bass and American Stout; Rose of Virginia Claret bottled in 1855, Monticello and California Claret, imported Sauterne, Mumma's Extra Dry and Piper Champagne, Tokay Wine.
ROBERTSON & BRO. EXCLUSIVE AGENTS FOR ALEXANDRIA, VA.
 NO. 700 KING STREET, CORNER WASHINGTON.

FOR SALE AND RENT.
FOR SALE.
 A good YOUNG HORSE, suitable for quick wagon or carriage work; excellent saddle animal; very fast walk. August 22 1/2
 GEORGE R. HILL & CO.

FOR RENT.
FOR RENT—TWO-STORY BRICK DWELLING with side yard on Columbus street, near Queen, now occupied by Mrs. Wm. H. Blair. Possession given September 15th. Apply to THOS. LEADBEATER, Alexandria Water Co.'s office, Prince street. August 15 1/2

FOR RENT.
TWO NEW ENGLISH BASEMENT HOUSES on Prince street; beautiful houses with all modern improvements. Inquire of GLEN BROWN, Architect, F. street, Washington, D. C., or of the undersigned. R. F. KNOX, Alexandria, Va. July 17 1/2

FOR RENT.
FOR RENT—TWO nice new 6-room and bath FRAME HOUSES on St. Asaph street. Possession given Sept. 1. ROBT. ELLIOTT, 510 Duke street. August 15 1/2

FOR RENT.
A FARM FOR SALE TO SETTLE AN ESTATE.
 THIS FARM situated on the Telegraph road one and a half miles southwest of Alexandria, Va., and belonging to the estate of the late David A. Windsor, is now offered for sale, sixty acres with dwelling and all outbuildings. There is a peach orchard of three hundred trees, two years old in full bearing; grapevines and other fruits. There are six acres of woodland.
 The whole tract contains one hundred acres, the remaining forty acres more or less, subject to the option of the purchaser. It is well fenced and all buildings are in good repair.
 Land very fertile. Parties desiring to purchase will do well to inspect the premises, as no fancy prices will be asked, the same being sold to settle an estate.
 R. F. KNOX, Alexandria, Va. July 10 1/2

FOR RENT.
BUILDING MATERIAL.
 [ESTABLISHED OVER 70 YEARS.]