

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 11, 1894.

Rises to-morrow at 4:36; and sets 7:21. High water 2:48 a. m. and 4:45 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this morning till Wednesday; continued high temperature west to southwest winds.

DEATH OF MRS. SHACKLETT.—Mrs. Catherine M. Shacklett, formerly of this city, who while under the influence of a drug was forced to wed J. Ross Landers of Chicago, nearly thirty years her junior, is dead. Since the wedding at Philadelphia, Pa., on April 26, and the subsequent arrest of Landers on April 28, his aged wife has been kept from him by her friends. On Saturday Landers, through his attorneys, secured a writ of habeas corpus, issued to secure Mrs. Shacklett's appearance in court. Armed with this writ, Landers went to the Presbyterian Hospital, where his bride had been a patient for several weeks, but found her dead. Mrs. Shacklett's half sister had secured possession of the dead body and the remains were interred in the New Catholic cemetery, near Philadelphia. The details of Mrs. Shacklett's marriage to Landers and what has followed are familiar to readers of the GAZETTE, having been published at the time. A body law suit will follow, it being claimed by Landers's attorney that his client has decidedly the best of the whole matter. The application for a divorce, he said, is, of course, now a nullity. Landers is now her widow beyond a doubt, and under the law is entitled to all her personal property, absolutely, and a life interest in her real property. The estate is said by some to be valued at $20,000, but others claim it will aggregate $40,000. Mrs. Shacklett's home was in Fauquier county, Va., though she spent much time in this city and Washington, where she also had residences and she was considered a very good business woman. Though she was a niece of Secretary of War Stanton, she, it is said, made a good deal of money during the war "running the blockade." She had a horse and wagon and was allowed to freely pass the lines with her goods, which she sold to the Confederates. While supposedly a Union woman, she was really at heart a southern sympathizer and is said to have given valuable information to Confederate officers regarding the Federal troops. Mrs. Shacklett had a comfortable income and was an extensive traveler. She owned three houses in this city and had some property in Philadelphia. Her husband was a prominent Virginian and a nephew of Wade Hampton. Her acquaintance with Landers, it is said, was formed in New Orleans about two years ago. They were together at the world's fair. While there she was reputed to have been lost, and columns were published about her in the newspapers. While there Landers was charged with stealing $300 from her and she had him arrested, but he escaped punishment.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATIONS.—The children of the M. E. Church South held their annual Children's Day celebration last night, during which music, selections and recitations were rendered by the children of the school, among whom may be mentioned the Misses Pollard, Graham, Demaine, Mays, Lynch, Pickin and others. The organists were Misses Thomas and Cooney, and they were assisted by Mr. Phil Briscoe, the cornet player, the music being conducted by Mr. Henry Field. The "Floral Alphabet" was rendered by the children of the infant class, but part of it had to be omitted on account of the absence of some of the members. At the morning service, held especially for the children, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Carson, spoke on the text, "A church is of God." The church on both occasions was crowded.

YESTERDAY was a seasonable June Sunday, though many people complained of the heat. The services at the various churches were fairly well attended. At Christ Church in the morning Rev. Dr. Walker, preached and at night Rev. Mr. McClung preached at the Second Presbyterian Church. In other churches services were conducted by the resident clergy. The usual number of Sunday visitors came here from Washington, and the excursion boats and the Mount Vernon Electric Railway carried many passengers.

ACCIDENT TO BALL PLAYERS.—About seven o'clock Saturday evening while a number of young men were engaged in a game of baseball on a lot at the eastern end of Gibbon street two of the players, Messrs. Ed. Dean and Peter Hoy, collided violently while running after the ball. They were both knocked down by the concussion and painfully injured. One of Mr. Hoy's eyes was badly cut and his face bruised, while the injuries Mr. Dean received were equally as severe. They both received surgical attention.

DEATH OF MRS. STRIDER.—Mrs. Phoebe Strider, wife of Capt. J. L. Strider, died at her residence on Queen street, yesterday afternoon. The deceased had been an invalid for a long time. Like the majority of those who attain to her age, she had had her tribulations, her son and her son-in-law having been victims of fatal accidents, and a daughter dying almost at the threshold of womanhood. These severe shocks to her system had their effect, and for years she had required attention. Her husband, of our best known and most popular citizens, together with all others near and dear to her have the sincere sympathy of the community in their hour of sorrow.

THE MOUNT VERNON RAILWAY.—Superintendent Holden, of the Mount Vernon Railway, has put on the 6 and 7 o'clock evening cars for the convenience of those who desire to take a pleasant ride down the road in the cool of the evening. The special Mount Vernon cars were well patronized yesterday, and all who took the trip were much pleased. As has been stated, these cars are run for the convenience of those who merely desire to enjoy a drive over the road and who do not want to stop at the resorts. They make no stops between this city and Mount Vernon.

PERSONAL.—General Payne, Mrs. Payne, and their daughter, Miss Virginia, have returned to their home in Warrenton, from Washington. Bishop Randolph's family have returned to their old homestead, "Eastern View," Fauquier county, for the summer. Mrs. Herwig, of this city, with her children, is at Mrs. Green's, in Warrenton. Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Arthur J. Grymes, formerly of King George, but now of New York, and Miss Laura Forman, of Baltimore, which is to take place in that city on the 25th inst. Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. James R. Thompson and Miss Virginia Price, daughter of the late James Price, of this city. The ceremony will take place in Washington on the 19th.

MISS HORTENSE LETERMAN, of Charlottesville, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strauss. The report of the marriage of Mrs. Linden Kent to Associate Justice Edward D. White, of the United States Supreme Court, at Berkeley Springs, on Friday last, is without foundation. Justice White had a narrow escape on Saturday from death while riding through the street. His horse threw him and broke away, running some distance before it was caught. He escaped with slight bruises. The Justice has gone to Louisiana. Mr. Edgar Warfield left here to-day on a pleasure trip to New York. Invitations are out for the marriage of Mr. John E. Anderson, of Baltimore, and Miss Sadie E. Nichols, of this city, which is to take place on the 19th inst. in this city. Miss Adele Van Name, who has been teaching music during the winter at Arlington Institute, has gone to New Jersey to spend the holidays. Col. Barley, of Gov. O'Ferrall's staff, to-day received a telegram from the Governor, stating that he and Mrs. O'Ferrall would visit Mt. Vernon to-morrow on which day the State Board of Visitors will meet there. Dr. Gulick will leave here to-morrow for Fauquier to be absent a few days on business.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning: Nettie Rosser, Lizzie Faulkner, Emma Reed, Annie Brantman and Jessie Pop, charged with selling liquor without a license, plead guilty and were fined $5 each. A woman, charged with the same offense, had her case postponed.

A party charged with selling liquor on Sunday had the case postponed. A white man charged with an assault was fined $5.

Two young men charged with disorderly conduct and with abusing a saloon keeper were fined $5 each. Three colored boys charged with disorderly conduct were fined $2 each.

George Brown, colored, arrested for escaping from the chain gang, had ten days additional added to his sentence.

Belle Dudley, colored, arrested for assaulting her husband, was fined $5. Henry Johnson, colored, charged with assaulting Henry Williams, also colored, had his case postponed.

Dave Middleton, colored, of Washington, charged with assaulting a woman, fast driving, breaking a buggy and drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $19.

Henry Campbell, colored, arrested for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5. Robert Deal, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed with a reprimand.

NIGHT REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild. Five prisoners were at the station house. THE COLUMBIA FIRE COMPANY.—The "Confederate Spy" was well rendered at the Opera House on Saturday night by the Baker company before a large and appreciative audience. The play was rendered under the auspices of the Columbia fire company and about $130 was realized, which amount will be expended in assisting to defray the expenses of that company to Hagers-town, Md., where they will go to-morrow to take part in the firemen's parade which is to come off there on Wednesday and Thursday. The company will take their engine with them and during its absence the W. A. Snoot will be in service here in its stead. The engine, which has been entered in the water throwing and steam making contest, will be shipped to-morrow morning and the members of the company will leave in the evening. The fire warden required the company to insure the engine before it left the city.

A HANDSOME HOUSE.—Mr. George E. Markell has erected a beautiful and commodious dwelling on the site of his former residence, on Wolfe street, between Lee and Fairfax. It is fitted with many of the modern appliances and adds considerably to the beauty of the square.

THE SYMBOLIC STUDIES will continue to-night and to-morrow night at the First Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock. Let all come out promptly at the ringing of the bell. Subject to-night, "The Antichrist." "Let every man be swift to hear," said the apostle.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Take advantage of the great sale of Robt. Grimes's tailor-made suits. So far 300 dog licenses have been issued. At this time last year over 500 licenses had been issued. These horses won at Alexander Island on Saturday: Cossack, Larchmont, Sweet Alice, Keime and Hollywood. The railroad gates recently erected on Henry street are being removed, as there was no order for their erection. A large excursion party from Lynchburg for Washington passed through this city early yesterday morning on the Midland railway. The Mt. Vernon regents to-day transacted no business of special interest. Yesterday the regents attended services at old Pohick Church. The June term of the Corporation Court opened to-day, but no business of interest was transacted. Capt. W. H. Smith qualified as City Sergeant. The Alexandria Real Estate Company has sold to Daniel Birtwell several lots on the north side of Madison street, between Columbus and Alfred. Nothing definite has been heard of the tug Harlow, which was disabled at the mouth of the river on Friday. It is reported however that the tug was seen in Cone river yesterday. The removal of the wreck of the old steamer W. W. Coit, in the channel of the river near Washington, has not yet been completed though the time named in the contract for the completion of the work by a Philadelphia firm expired a month ago.

The Colored American of Washington of Saturday last contained a cut and biography of Congressman Meredith and also cuts of the Shiloh (colored) Baptist Church, of this city, and of its pastor, Rev. H. H. Waring, with sketches of both. If the Bible students or skeptics of Alexandria have not always had the best advantages of studying Bible symbols as harmoniously grouped and arranged with the experience of one versed in the history and data of the era mapped out in prophecy, they will not complain of Mr. Brown's earnest effort on that line at the First Presbyterian Church. He announces "The Antichrist" as the subject of the study to-night. In a game of ball played at Annandale on Saturday and the Annandales the
