

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 13, 1894.

Sun rises to-morrow at 7:24, and sets at 4:36. High water 8:44 a. m. and 9:12 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; cooler; northwesterly winds, becoming northerly.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—As stated yesterday, James B. Bocock, chief of the draughting division in the Patent office, was accidentally shot in the back by John B. Peyton, shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at Wright's wharf, opposite Glymont, about thirteen miles below this city, and received injuries which caused his death at 5:30 o'clock. Mr. Peyton and Mr. Daniel W. Edelin, a clerk in Mr. Bocock's division, had gone to Gunston creek Sunday for a few days' duck hunting. Mr. Bocock joined them Tuesday morning. Yesterday afternoon the three hunters took positions at Hollow Point, on the edge of the river, and after putting out decoys, waited for game. Mr. Bocock was between and a little in advance of his friends. Edelin was about twenty-five feet to Bocock's right, and Peyton was about fifteen feet to the left. The title was coming in, and Peyton and Edelin were obliged to change their positions. Mr. Peyton picked up a rubber suit in one hand and his shotgun in the other. The trigger was caught by a twig, and one barrel was discharged. Mr. Bocock was crouching behind some bushes at the time, and received the full charge in the left side of the back, just below the shoulder. Mr. Bocock fell back unconscious, but in about twenty minutes he became conscious. The nearest doctor was four miles away, and one of the party went for him. Just before three o'clock the steamer Harry Randall stopped at the wharf, and Mr. Bocock was placed aboard. His life was slowly ebbing when the steamer arrived at this port, and everything that could be done was resorted to in order to ease his last moments. Mr. Bocock's thoughts ran most on his family and he said: "My poor wife begged me not to go on this trip, but I did so want the recreation." Upon the arrival of the steamer at Washington the wounded man was taken to the Emergency Hospital and laid upon an operating table, but before the surgeons had time to examine his injuries he died. The load of No. 6 shot entered almost as a solid mass in the back, about two and a half inches to the left of the spine, and a vertical one. The load passed through the inner side of the left lung severing the aorta, and lodging in the spine. The severing of the great blood vessel caused profuse internal hemorrhage, and the left pleural cavity was filled with coagulated blood. Mrs. Bocock was unaware of the fact that her husband was dead when she was summoned to the hospital, supposing he had received a superficial injury, and when she was conducted to the litter on which he remains rested and realized the terrible truth the shock was terrible. The bereaved wife sank upon the body of her husband, kissing and begging him to arouse and answer her. Mr. Bocock was a native of Lynchburg for a number of years had been a resident of Texas, whence he was appointed chief of the draughting division in the Patent Office.

THE COLEMAN-MOSBY WEDDING.—A letter from Fairfax Co. H. says: Miss Virginia Stuart Mosby, second daughter of Col. John S. Mosby, the celebrated raider of the civil war, was quietly married yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock to Mr. Watson E. Coleman, private secretary to the Hon. Life Peacer, member of Congress from Colorado. For reasons satisfactory to the contracting parties the wedding was entirely a private affair, and was witnessed by only the immediate family of the bride and a few intimate friends, members of the household of Mrs. Thomas R. Love, at whose pretty summer home, "Dunleith," the marriage took place. The ceremony was performed by Father Tierney, of the Catholic church. The bride, who is a tall, stately blonde, was becomingly attired in a traveling dress of dark green broadcloth, tailor-made, with hat and gloves to match, and carried La France roses. Miss Mosby is a worthy daughter of a distinguished sire and bears a strong personal resemblance to her father. She is a superb horsewoman, an adept with the revolver, and has a great taste for out-of-door sports. She is well-known and popular in Virginia society, and has an enviable position in the literary world, being a strong and forcible writer, with an abundant stock of information. As a newspaper correspondent she is widely and favorably known to the press, and for the past few years has been on the staff of some of the leading dailies in the country. Mr. Coleman is a graduate in law of the Columbian University, and will practice his profession in Washington, where he will reside, with his bride, who will, in a great measure, continue her literary work.

THE PROPOSED MEMORIAL BRIDGE.—The following is the bill which the commerce committee of the U. S. House of Representatives now have before them, and which Mr. Wise, chairman of that committee, will do his best to have passed: "A BILL for the construction of a memorial bridge from the Naval Observatory grounds to the Arlington National Cemetery. "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War is authorized and directed to have constructed a memorial bridge from the most convenient point of the Naval Observatory grounds across the Potomac river to the most convenient point of the Arlington estate property. "Sec. 2. That said bridge shall be of such dimensions and capacity, and constructed of such material, as in the judgment of the Secretary of War is most suitable; and if not practical to give said bridge sufficient height to permit the passage of vessels the Secretary of War is authorized to have such suitable mechanical means or draw provided to allow the unobstructed passage of vessels in the channel part of the river; and the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of securing designs and to commence the construction of said bridge."

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Alice Swain Hunter gave a very enjoyable musicale at her studio in Washington last Friday evening. Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Smith, widow of Noble Smith, is critically ill. Mr. George B. Kennedy and Miss Lorena Seelman, daughter of Mrs. Thomas H. Seelman, were married last night at the bride's residence on Wolfe str.-et. A reception will be held next Tuesday night. Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee is visiting her cousin, Mrs. V. M. Dorsey, in Washington. Miss Carrie Barr, a pretty and charming young lady, has returned from a visit to Alexandria.—Winchester Times. The standing committee of the Episcopal diocese have recommended as candidates for holy orders Robert B. Nelson, William Henry Osmond and Walter B. Stehl. Mr. Richard F. Lanagan, an Alexandrian who went to Detroit, Mich., some years ago and is on the staff of the Detroit Tribune, is enjoying a visit to his old home in this city. Ex-Mayor Downham has returned from Cedarville, N. J., where he went to attend the funeral of his mother, who died there on Saturday night. Mr. R. M. Fryer and others interested in the steamer Howard Cassard were in the city yesterday making arrangements for the completion of that steamer. Mrs. H. M. Lewis, of Charlottesville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cochran, in this city. The friends from Washington of Mrs. Geo. W. Meeks gave her a surprise party last night at her home on south Royal str.-et. There was singing and instrumental music and the evening was very pleasantly spent. Information was received here last night stating that Miss Virginia Burwell, daughter of Mr. Chas. W. Burwell, of Salem, was critically ill and could not recover. Mrs. Hathaway, of Fairfax county, sister-in-law of Capt. Beattie, and Mr. C. C. Peck, prominent lawyer of Madison county, will be married in the Baptist Church in this city on the 27th inst. Miss Sophie Owens, of King George county is visiting Mrs. E. N. Crook.

THE LEXOW COMMITTEE.—Councilman Caton will shortly organize the investigating committee recently appointed by the City Council to examine into certain reports which are being circulated detrimental to some of the members of the police force. Evidence, however, will not be taken until after the holidays. It is said by some that the entire movement will miscarry and will not result in the substantiation of the charges which have been urged, while others say a case will be made out of some of the allegations. Capt. Webster, of the police force, says he will demand that the charges be thoroughly sifted, inasmuch as the attention of the community has been called to the matter and the integrity of members of the force questioned. It is understood that there will be much mud throwing.

COUNTY LAND SALES.—Among the sales of real estate recently made in the county were the following: J. C. Bowen to R. L. Maddox a lot in Rosslyn for $477. B. T. Welch, jr., to P. and R. A. Aitchison four lots in Park Addition to Alexandria. J. E. Clements, W. W. Douglas and C. E. Nicol, commissioners, a lot near Winder's Cross Roads and a lot adjoining to A. R. Shepperd. D. B. Gottwalds and T. F. Barrett to Mrs. M. A. Wood and G. R. Hill and J. C. Smoot ten lots in Park Addition to Alexandria. J. G. Herndon to J. C. Bowen a lot in Rosslyn for $675. J. G. Herndon to J. H. Brinkers and G. P. Herndon a tract at Rosslyn for $10,300.

THE INFIRMARY.—The matron of the Alexandria Infirmary regrets that the following names were omitted from the list recently published of donors to the infirmary on Thanksgiving last: Mrs. J. D. Corso, groceries; Miss E. W. Smith, groceries; Mr. Weil, groceries and meats; Mr. Wm. B. Smoot, barrel of flour. If they should still be other names she would be very glad to have them. As the crowd was so great that day she fears all the names may not have been received.

ORGAN REMOVED.—Prof. Gambrell yesterday removed the organ in St. Mary's Church from the position in which it was placed about forty years ago. The bell has also been removed from the steeple and placed temporarily on the roof of the church, where it will remain until the new front shall have been put into the church, when both it and the organ will be placed in proper positions in that part of the edifice.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning. An original widow's pension has been granted to Hester Carroll of this city. A number of small boys are now seen nightly stealing newspapers from the front doors of subscribers. A switch is being put in by the electric railway company at the intersection of King and Columbus streets. In the Corporation Court to-day Mr. D. R. Stansbury qualified as guardian of his infant son, Herbert E. Stansbury. A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to George Valentine, of Loudoun county, and Lucinda Cole. The work of repairing Union street, which was interrupted by the rains of the past few days, was resumed this morning. The U. S. Court, Judge Hughes, without transacting any business of importance, to-day adjourned till the regular January term. The ladies of St. Paul's Church will hold a festival in the chapel of the church to-morrow evening for the benefit of the Sunday school building fund. The funeral of the late Pere Jerome Colliflower, who died on Monday night, took place this morning from the residence of Mrs. Rosie Brown on Fairfax street. The old Muir residence just south of the corner of Columbus and Queen streets, which was recently damaged by fire, is being torn down and it is thought Mr. Thomas Leadbeater will build a residence there. The attention of purchasers of Christmas goods is called to the advertising columns of the GAZETTE. They should read every page carefully, each one of which is replete with valuable information, especially at this season of the year. The Musical Guild, under the direction of Christ Church Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will meet at the lecture room of Christ Church to-night. All young men who are interested in the matter are invited to be present. The alarm of fire at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon was caused by the burning of some hay in the rear of Messrs. Grillbortzer & Bro.'s store, corner King and Columbus streets. It was soon placed under control, and the damage was slight. The rear wall of one of the three brick houses on upper King street, occupied by Mr. Wm. Rodgers and owned by Mr. Thos. Collin, was undermined by the heavy rain of yesterday and becoming dangerous Mr. Collin deemed it advisable to remove to another house. The weather having cleared many people were on the streets to-day doing their Christmas shopping. Everything one wants can be found in the stores of large stocks of suitable holiday goods. There can be found in the stores here all kinds of dry goods, notions, gentlemen's dress goods, fine shoes, ladies' dress goods, millinery, toys in endless variety, jewelry and fancy articles, all kinds of confectionery, fruits, both foreign and domestic, groceries, both staple and fancy, fine wines and liquors, and, in short, everything for Christmas.

We have received from Mr. James Elverson, President of the Philadelphia Inquirer Company, an invitation to attend the formal opening of the Inquirer's new building in that city on Saturday next. The new building of the Inquirer, at 1109 Market street, is six stories high, has basement and sub-basement and a depth of 187 feet. It is believed to be the largest newspaper building in the world devoted solely to a single publication. Mr. Woolhiser, of Occoquan, aged 80 years, and Mrs. Worth, of Shadyville, Md., aged 45, were married in Washington yesterday. Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Milford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. Stabler & Co.

All Free. Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised Druggist and get a Trial Bottle, Free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing. For sale at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store. "A Word to the Wise is Sufficient." I suffered terribly from roaring in my head during an attack of catarrh, and became very deaf, used Ely's Cream Balm and in three weeks could hear as well as ever.—A. E. Newman, Graling, Mich. One of my children had a very bad discharge from the nose. Physicians prescribed without benefit. After using Ely's Cream Balm a short time the disease was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y. Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment Is a certain cure for Chronic Eye Piles, Granulated Eye Lids, Sore Nipples, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum and Scald Head, 25 cents per box. For sale by druggists. TO HORSE OWNERS. For putting a horse in a fine healthy condition try Dr. Cad's Condition Powders. They come up the system, aid digestion, cure loss of appetite, relieve constipation, correct kidney disorders and destroy worms, giving new life to an old or over-worked horse. 25 cents per package. For sale by L. STABLER & Co., Druggists.

This vase is a work of art; stands 4 feet high; invoiced and valued at fifty dollars. Beginning Monday morning, December 10, and continuing to December 31 inclusive, every purchaser at either one of our stores buying one dollar's worth of goods will receive a coupon which will entitle him or her to an equal chance in the vase. Each coupon is numbered and duplicated. The duplicate we deposit in a sealed box prepared for the purpose. On January 1, 1895, this box will be opened by a disinterested person from which a ticket will be withdrawn. The person holding the coupon with the corresponding number will receive the vase. The lucky number will be made known through this column promptly after the drawing. This is a legitimate and bona fide scheme, purely and simply AN ATTRACTION. The vase is now on exhibition in the window of our new store, s. e. corner King and Royal streets.
