

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, MAR. 26, 1895.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun rises to-morrow at 5:52; and sets at 6:08. High water 8:28 a. m. and 8:32 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; cooler Wednesday morning; northerly winds, becoming variable.

SUICIDE OF A YOUNG MAN.—Brooke Corbett, the twenty-one-year-old son of Mr. Frank E. Corbett, of this city, shot himself last night at the home of his mother in Washington and died a few moments afterwards.

THE ROYAL ARCANUM.—The thirteenth session of the Grand Council Royal Arcanum of Virginia will be held in Staunton, commencing to-night at 8 o'clock.

THE RAILROAD READING ROOMS.—The Alexandria correspondent of the Washington Star says: At the Railroad Reading rooms on Sunday afternoon Mr. W. D. Buckner of the Theological Seminary delivered an interesting discourse.

THE RACES.—At St. Asaph yesterday three favorites and a well-backed second were the winners.

W. C. Dally's colt The Sage of Hartford furnished the surprise of the day, beating his field in a fashion that stamps him the best youngster which has been seen this season.

The last two races resulted as follows: Fifth, half mile.—The Sage of Hartford won, Cadiz second, and Tarentum third.

Sixth, six furlongs.—Dutch Lady won, Silent Friend second, and Foundling third.

The entries for to-morrow are as follows:

First race, 1 mile.—Pay or Play, 102; Knuckbarren, 99; Life Boat, 108; Laetitia, 99; Solitaire, 105; Gold Dollar, 102; Geo. Hakes, 105.

Second race, 1/2 mile.—Capt. Brown, 120; Weraberg, 120; Buckrene, 116; Copyright, 113; Charade, 110; Restraint, 108; Wheeler, 105; Clarus, 95.

Third race, 1/2 mile.—Religion, 107; Lady Lawrence, 100; Leonidas, 95; Cadiz, 99; E. Ball, 95; Jackie, 95.

Fourth race, 1/2 mile.—Tartuffe, 95; St. Vincent, 98; Ceremonny, 102; Sunup, 95; Tuscan, 104; Belden, 98.

Fifth race, 1 mile.—Lady Adams, 98; Canvas, 95; Bound Brook, 95; Plenty, 95; Kilkenny, 95.

Sixth race, 1/2 mile.—Campagne, 106; Pointville, 108; Lotus, 115; M. Aaron, 104; Lilly B., 104; Cuckoo, 98; Foundling, 97; Trojan, 95.

REVIVAL SERVICES.—Interest in things spiritual has by no means lessened since the close of the Schoolfield meetings, and the protracted services now being held in this city are proving to be very successful.

NO ACTION TAKEN.—The committee on public property met again last night to consider the bids for repairing certain city property.

OBSTRUCTIONS.—An effort is being made by the Washington steambot to have the hull of the old steamer Lady of the Lake removed from her wharf, where she was sunk when burned about a month ago.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—About four o'clock yesterday morning an attempt was made to rob the freight house of the Washington Southern Railroad in this city.

SAREPTA HALL.—The advance of woman attracts universal attention. Her duties, her responsibilities demand vital mesmeric power.

CHARGED WITH STEALING A WATCH.—Officer Griffin yesterday evening arrested a white man named Odus Jefferson on complaint of Captain Wm. Laycock who suspected him of stealing a gold watch from the cabin of his vessel.

A FINE BRAND OF TOBACCO.—The Nosegay Sun-cured Tobacco advertised in the GAZETTE is rapidly coming into favor hereabouts.

RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for Measurer of Wood and Bark subject to the democratic primary.

TO introduce my MORNING GLORY BRAND PATENT ROLLER FLOUR, I will for a few days give to each purchaser of a 30 cent sack, a half-pound of mixed cakes or one pound of best preserves.

Mrs. James S. Hays, of Georgetown, who has been the guest of Mrs. Goodhand, has returned home.

Rev. W. H. McAllister has gone to New York on business.

Passed Assistant Engineer Bieg, of the navy, with his wife and son, is at the Normandie, in Washington.

Mr. Robert Portner and his son Edward, who have been on an excursion to the Orient, sailed from Genoa to-day.

TRY OUR 50c TEA. Best in town. H. C. WALLACE.

A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN INDICTED. The spring term of the grand jury of the Hustings Court for the city of Staunton has created quite a flurry. Twenty-five years ago C. A. Gladke went to Staunton from this city, and set up business under the peculiar name of "Cheap Charlie."

THE RAILROAD READING ROOMS.—The Alexandria correspondent of the Washington Star says: At the Railroad Reading rooms on Sunday afternoon Mr. W. D. Buckner of the Theological Seminary delivered an interesting discourse.

THE RACES.—At St. Asaph yesterday three favorites and a well-backed second were the winners.

W. C. Dally's colt The Sage of Hartford furnished the surprise of the day, beating his field in a fashion that stamps him the best youngster which has been seen this season.

The last two races resulted as follows: Fifth, half mile.—The Sage of Hartford won, Cadiz second, and Tarentum third.

Sixth, six furlongs.—Dutch Lady won, Silent Friend second, and Foundling third.

The entries for to-morrow are as follows:

First race, 1 mile.—Pay or Play, 102; Knuckbarren, 99; Life Boat, 108; Laetitia, 99; Solitaire, 105; Gold Dollar, 102; Geo. Hakes, 105.

Second race, 1/2 mile.—Capt. Brown, 120; Weraberg, 120; Buckrene, 116; Copyright, 113; Charade, 110; Restraint, 108; Wheeler, 105; Clarus, 95.

Third race, 1/2 mile.—Religion, 107; Lady Lawrence, 100; Leonidas, 95; Cadiz, 99; E. Ball, 95; Jackie, 95.

Fourth race, 1/2 mile.—Tartuffe, 95; St. Vincent, 98; Ceremonny, 102; Sunup, 95; Tuscan, 104; Belden, 98.

Fifth race, 1 mile.—Lady Adams, 98; Canvas, 95; Bound Brook, 95; Plenty, 95; Kilkenny, 95.

Sixth race, 1/2 mile.—Campagne, 106; Pointville, 108; Lotus, 115; M. Aaron, 104; Lilly B., 104; Cuckoo, 98; Foundling, 97; Trojan, 95.

REVIVAL SERVICES.—Interest in things spiritual has by no means lessened since the close of the Schoolfield meetings, and the protracted services now being held in this city are proving to be very successful.

NO ACTION TAKEN.—The committee on public property met again last night to consider the bids for repairing certain city property.

OBSTRUCTIONS.—An effort is being made by the Washington steambot to have the hull of the old steamer Lady of the Lake removed from her wharf, where she was sunk when burned about a month ago.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—About four o'clock yesterday morning an attempt was made to rob the freight house of the Washington Southern Railroad in this city.

SAREPTA HALL.—The advance of woman attracts universal attention. Her duties, her responsibilities demand vital mesmeric power.

CHARGED WITH STEALING A WATCH.—Officer Griffin yesterday evening arrested a white man named Odus Jefferson on complaint of Captain Wm. Laycock who suspected him of stealing a gold watch from the cabin of his vessel.

A FINE BRAND OF TOBACCO.—The Nosegay Sun-cured Tobacco advertised in the GAZETTE is rapidly coming into favor hereabouts.

RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for Measurer of Wood and Bark subject to the democratic primary.

TO introduce my MORNING GLORY BRAND PATENT ROLLER FLOUR, I will for a few days give to each purchaser of a 30 cent sack, a half-pound of mixed cakes or one pound of best preserves.

Mrs. James S. Hays, of Georgetown, who has been the guest of Mrs. Goodhand, has returned home.

Rev. W. H. McAllister has gone to New York on business.

Passed Assistant Engineer Bieg, of the navy, with his wife and son, is at the Normandie, in Washington.

Mr. Robert Portner and his son Edward, who have been on an excursion to the Orient, sailed from Genoa to-day.

TRY OUR 50c TEA. Best in town. H. C. WALLACE.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP. 10th, 11th and F Sts., N. W.

SPRING OPENING

French Pattern Hats and Bonnets and Millinery Novelties.

A Year of the Century, $1.80.

A Year of St. Nicholas, $1.50.

Women's Underwear.

Shirt Waists.

Japanese Department.

Kitchen Goods, Glassware, and Other Daily Necessities at Specially Low Prices.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP. 10th, 11th & F Sts., n. w., WASHINGTON, D. C.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

To-day has been blustery but not cold.

The weekly meeting of Talisman Lodge of Good Templars was held last night.

Officers Bettis and McCuen escorted eleven tramps beyond the city limits this morning.

No quorum appeared last night at the rooms of the Board of Trade, so no meeting was held.

The funeral of the late Richard McKenney took place this evening from his home on south Fairfax street.

No business of importance was transacted at the meeting of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum last night.

Lightning was seen in the southeastern skies last night, and yesterday evening several peals of thunder were heard.

The City Council meets to-night, when the building inspector ordinance and that of the telegraph companies will be considered.

It is reported that the police knock the man who injured the Hydraulion horse last week by striking it on the leg with a hammer.

It is reported on the streets to-day that only Messrs. J. G. Beckham and L. H. Thompson will be the democratic candidates for Mayor at the primary.

The weekly drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry was held last night with Lieut. Bryan in command.

The Washington steamer, while making a landing at Portsmouth and Sunday, ran into the brig Darpor, which was unloading ice, and carried away her jibboom.

The Junior Musical Association gave an excellent concert at the Opera House last night, assisted by the Leonard Quartette.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Elvin J. Marshall and Sarah C. Beach, both of this city, and to John Burgess, of Washington, and Helen Dillon, of Richmond, Va.

The managers of the St. Asaph track are being importuned for stable room, and some horses have been unable to secure accommodations.

A fire at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the rear of Miss Kate Maupin's millinery store on K Street, caused by burning rubbish, was extinguished by Messrs. Brill and Taylor of the fire department, without turning in an alarm.

At Grace Church to-morrow night Rev. W. G. Daveport, of Anacostia, will address the chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of this city and vicinity.

A meeting of the superintendents of junior societies in the Christian Endeavor Union for the District of Columbia, held last evening at Luther Place Memorial church, Washington, decided in favor of establishing a summer home at Vienna, Fairfax county.

Messrs. A. B. Travis & Son, who are practical machinists, have opened an establishment at 614 King street, where they will repair all sorts of machinery, including bicycles, sewing machines,

WOODWARD & LOTHROP. 10th, 11th and F Sts., N. W.

SPRING OPENING

French Pattern Hats and Bonnets and Millinery Novelties.

A Year of the Century, $1.80.

A Year of St. Nicholas, $1.50.

Women's Underwear.

Shirt Waists.

Japanese Department.

Kitchen Goods, Glassware, and Other Daily Necessities at Specially Low Prices.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP. 10th, 11th & F Sts., n. w., WASHINGTON, D. C.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

To-day has been blustery but not cold.

The weekly meeting of Talisman Lodge of Good Templars was held last night.

Officers Bettis and McCuen escorted eleven tramps beyond the city limits this morning.

No quorum appeared last night at the rooms of the Board of Trade, so no meeting was held.

The funeral of the late Richard McKenney took place this evening from his home on south Fairfax street.

No business of importance was transacted at the meeting of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum last night.

Lightning was seen in the southeastern skies last night, and yesterday evening several peals of thunder were heard.

The City Council meets to-night, when the building inspector ordinance and that of the telegraph companies will be considered.

It is reported that the police knock the man who injured the Hydraulion horse last week by striking it on the leg with a hammer.

It is reported on the streets to-day that only Messrs. J. G. Beckham and L. H. Thompson will be the democratic candidates for Mayor at the primary.

The weekly drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry was held last night with Lieut. Bryan in command.

The Washington steamer, while making a landing at Portsmouth and Sunday, ran into the brig Darpor, which was unloading ice, and carried away her jibboom.

The Junior Musical Association gave an excellent concert at the Opera House last night, assisted by the Leonard Quartette.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Elvin J. Marshall and Sarah C. Beach, both of this city, and to John Burgess, of Washington, and Helen Dillon, of Richmond, Va.

The managers of the St. Asaph track are being importuned for stable room, and some horses have been unable to secure accommodations.

A fire at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the rear of Miss Kate Maupin's millinery store on K Street, caused by burning rubbish, was extinguished by Messrs. Brill and Taylor of the fire department, without turning in an alarm.

At Grace Church to-morrow night Rev. W. G. Daveport, of Anacostia, will address the chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of this city and vicinity.

A meeting of the superintendents of junior societies in the Christian Endeavor Union for the District of Columbia, held last evening at Luther Place Memorial church, Washington, decided in favor of establishing a summer home at Vienna, Fairfax county.

Messrs. A. B. Travis & Son, who are practical machinists, have opened an establishment at 614 King street, where they will repair all sorts of machinery, including bicycles, sewing machines,

D. Bendheim & Sons. NO. 316 KING STREET.

Having paid particular attention to our Dress Lining Department the last few seasons, our success has led us to lay in a large well-assorted stock.

GREAT WRAPPER SALE.

Over Twenty Dozen Merrimac Print Wrappers, deep yoke, back and front. Watteau back, and deep ruffles around yoke.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR. NIGHT GOWNS.

$1 Gowns at 69c. $1.25 Gowns at 89c. $1.50 Gowns at $1.19.

CORSET COVERS. 30c Corset Covers at 1.19c. 39c Corset Covers at 23c.

SKIRTS. 75c Skirts at 49c. $1 Skirts at 69c. $1.25 Skirts at 79c.

A Household Treasure. D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use.

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient." I suffered terribly from roaring in my head during an attack of catarrh, and became very deaf, used Ely's Cream Balm and in three weeks could hear as well as ever.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Is a certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Granulated Eye, Lidia Sore Nipples, Piles, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum and Scald Head.

TO HORSE OWNERS. For putting a horse in a fine healthy condition try Dr. Cady's Condition Powder.

WANTED.—To rent a MODERN HOUSE, six or seven rooms, in a good location, must have possession by May 1st.

OLD BOOKS. CASH paid for all kinds of OLD BOOKS, PAMPHLETS, &c.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW. LENTEN SERVICES, EVERY WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT 7:30

GRACE CHURCH. Patriotic street, between Prince and Duke streets.

FREE TO LADIES. Dr. F. L. DREW, of Boston, eminent as a Lady Physician and Lecturer, will give a FREE LECTURE at Sarepta Hall, FRIDAY, March 29, at 3 o'clock p. m.

STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM. From Fresh Fruit, for the balance of the season.

RATONES AND ONIONS. For sale by B. H. JENKINS.

TACKETT & MARSHALL. NO. 316 KING STREET.

Our stock of foreign and domestic suitings and trouserings is now in store, and owing to the change in the tariff and low prices of woollens we are enabled to give better goods for the same prices than furnished before.

MERCHANT TAILORING DEPARTMENT.

Our cutter has established himself as one of the most successful in this section, and we have selected our trimmings from one of the best houses in the trade.

Any repairs or repressing to suits or trousers made by us will be done without charge at any time within six months from date of purchase.

We will make up at moderate prices casimeres purchased elsewhere and also cut any goods to be made up outside.

ONE PRICE.

GROCERIES. FOR THE Lenten Season.

Fine Mackerel, Potomac Herring, Shad and Shad Roe, Genuine Cromarty

Codfish? Then buy Beacon Blocks; they are very good, pure cod, no hake nor other substitute; or, if you want codfish balls in a hurry at any time

Beardsley's Shredded Cod in half-pound packages is just the thing. Then those fancy extra shore No. 1 Mackerel, real

No. 1 Mackerel, fat and juicy, not long No. 3s branded No. 1, and nice medium No. 2s also, Chicken Mackerel, not large, but tender like a spring chicken and cheap—only 5c.

Grimsby Bloaters are the very best of their kind, and Potomac Family Roe Herring—well, you know I have never sold any but the best of the packing.

Wheatlet, Larrabee's Saratoga Chips and Forget-Me-Nots. Always Fresh Eggs.

G. Wm. Ramsay ROBERTSON & BRO. COR. KING AND ST. ASAPH STS.