R. E. LEE CAMP.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held last night, Commander W. A. Smoot presiding.

Circulars relating to the dedication of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga national military park, September 18, 19 and 20, 1895, from the chairman of the park commission, were read.

Comrade May made a very interesting report of the proceedings of the recent meeting of the Grand Camp.

A very entertaining paper on the battles of second Manassas and Sharpsburg, a contribution from Comrade Alexander Hunter, was read to the camp, from which the following extracts are given, being taken from the "Official Records, War of the Rebellion," recently issued:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY NORTHERN VA., Oct. 23, 1862. (Rec'd Nov. 13, 1862.) To Hon. George W. Randolph, Secretary of War:

Sir:—I have the honor to transmit, with the accompanying letter of Brig. Gen. J. L. Kemper, two stands of colors captured from the United States forces by the nineteenth Virginia regiment at the battle of Manassas and Sharpsburg. This regiment and its gallant colonel (M. D. Corse) who in the words of General Long "met" have been distinguished in at least ten of the severest battles of the war; and the respect and admiration of their countrymen.

The United States national flag was taken by Private Samuel S. Coleman, of the Mount Vernon Guards, from the color sergeant of the Eleventh regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, in the battle of Manassas, August 30.

The regimental flag of the One hundred and third regiment, New York Volunteers, was captured by Lieut. Wm. W. Athey at the battle of Sharpsburg, September 17th, 1862. The name of the captors are appended to the colors respectively and I hope will be preserved with them.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant, R. E. LEE, General Commanding.

HEADQUARTERS, KEMPER'S BRIGADE, Oct. 21, 1862. Major G. Moxley Sorrell, Ass't. Adj't. Gen'l., Longstreet's Corps.

Major:—I have the honor to forward herewith two stands of colors captured from the enemy by members of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment of my command, one a United States national flag taken by Private Samuel S. Coleman at the battle of Manassas, August 30, from the color sergeant of the Eleventh regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, the other a regimental flag presented to the One hundred and third regiment, New York Volunteers, by the City Council of New York city, by Lieut. Wm. W. Athey at the battle of Sharpsburg, Sept. 17th, 1862. I respectfully ask that with the flags may be preserved some honorable mention of the brave men and the veteran regiment, commanded by Col. M. D. Corse, by whose splendid gallantry these trophies were captured from the enemy.

I am Major, your obedient servant, JAMES L. KEMPER, Brig. Gen'l. Comd'g.

HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 23, 1862. Respectfully forwarded. Col. Corse is one of the most gallant and worthy officers in this army. He and his regiment have been distinguished in at least ten battles of the war.

JAMES LONGSTREET, Maj. Gen'l. Comd'g.

U. S. COURT.—Judge R. W. Hughes presiding.—The grand jury returned indictments against Walter Turner, Robert Duncan and F. N. Ashford for hunting and ranging on the Arlington reservation; Needham Miller and Henry Hall for selling liquor in King George county without licenses.

The grand jury was then adjourned. United States vs. Alonzo Gray and F. H. Beach, soldiers at Fort Myer, indicted for shooting and ranging on the Arlington reservation; argument of demurrer heard and continued.

United States vs. Mrs. Marian Douglas, indicted for violating the postal laws in Orange county; plea of guilty entered; jury returned verdict of guilty as charged in all seven indictments; judgment suspended and accused released on her own recognizance to appear at the January term. Mrs. Douglas appeared in court with an infant a few months old in her arms, which appealed to the sympathies of all in court. The Judge, in summing up the case, remarked to the jury that there was ground for the supposition that the accused was not in a condition at the time the offenses were committed to realize their seriousness; that she had made no attempt to controvert or disprove the allegations against her, and that she would deal leniently with the case.

Ignored till to-morrow, to Court at 10 o'clock. A petit jury was also adjourned.

WILL PROBATED.—The will of the late Lewis McKenzie has been admitted to probate in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court. Wm. E. Judson has qualified as executor of the estate. The will is dated July 27, 1891. The testator directs that he be buried in a plain and inexpensive manner. He bequeaths to Lewis McKenzie Bell his gold-headed cane, presented to him during the late war by the Eighth Illinois cavalry, who were quartered here, with the hope that it will always remain in the possession of some one loyal to the United States government; $200 to be paid into the city treasury for the annual interest on which is to be used in employing a drummer and fifer to go through the city early on the morning of every Fourth of July in order that the observance of that day which marked the testator's boyhood may be perpetuated. The residue of his estate of all descriptions goes to the children of his niece, Esther L. Jenkins. A codicil in his own writing bequeaths his gold watch to his nephew, Lewis McKenzie, his picture of the Senate to his niece, Mary McKenzie, and a picture of the ship Generals Washington to the same; the sum of $500 is given to the Alexandria Dispensary, evidently meaning Infirmary.

CLOSE BIDDING.—Bids were opened at the Capitol Saturday for furnishing the House of Representatives with 1,000

DRUM CORPS.—The Third Regiment Drum Corps has changed the time for practice from Thursday to Tuesday evening of each week and are evident on their mettle with a just pride of being an Alexandria institution, composed as it is entirely of local talent and all its members being enlisted men. They assert that they shall not be surpassed or even equaled by any other combination. So now the citizens may expect to hear a lively tramp, tramp to the shrill blast of the bugle and the enlivening roll of the drum in competitive zeal for the title of the crack drum corps of Alexandria.

A colored man named Ben Lucas caused some excitement in the north-west part of the city last night by whipping his wife. A ridiculous rumor was in circulation on the streets to-day that a train had been held up and robbed near this city this morning. During the rain Saturday evening lightning struck a tree in Union cemetery. Parts of the limbs were scattered twenty feet. A small boy went into a Chinese laundry on Royal street last night and caused a row. He was severely choked by the laundryman. It was reported in the city to-day that a colored man had cut the throat of his wife near Ballston, in the county, yesterday evening.

An officer from the hospital at Staunton came here to-day and took back with him Jennie Genzberger, who has been in ill-health for some time. A colored boy who lives with his guardian in the north-western part of the city caused some excitement to-day by assaulting every one in the house. Two horses fell at St. Asaph yesterday and one of them had to be shot, owing to the unsafe condition of the track. The starting was bad in nearly every race.

The handsome steamer Colonial, which is to run between Washington and Colonial Beach, arrived to-day from New London, Conn., and went on to Washington.
