MEDICAL.

Time is inevitable—inflexible—ever-moving. Wasted days never come back—wasted opportunities are lost forever. Women hardly seem to realize this. With the seeds of death sown and thriving within them, they go on wasting day after day, paying no heed to flight of time or growth of disease till it is too late.

Carelessness causes much of woman's peculiar sickness. Neglect of minor troubles causes serious complications. The slight irregularity—the burning, dragging ache—the debilitating drains that mark the progress of feminine diseases are passed lightly over or are borne in ignorance of their cause. Their continuance means death or insanity. Most of insanity among women comes from this one cause. It is all unnecessary. So called "female weakness" can be cured. Cured positively, permanently, quickly, easily, right in the privacy of your own home, without any of the humiliating local treatment so uniformly insisted upon by physicians. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do it. It has a record of cures as widely as the world. It is known and used successfully in every civilized country on the globe. There is nothing that takes its place. There is nothing "just as good." There is nothing to compare with it. Druggists sell more of it than of all other similar medicines combined.

Copies of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser are to be given away for a limited time only to those who write enough to ask for them. The book is for family use. It is all in plain English. Its language is plain and modest. The illustrations—over 300—have passed the test of the eye of one of the most thorough physicians in the world. This book tells about the most common ailments that visit every family. It tells how to treat these symptoms, how to ward off serious consequences. This most useful book, once secured in strong paper covers by anyone who will send a one-cent stamp to pay cost of mailing and a few cents for postage, will be sent to you with enclosed covers for ten cents extra (in cents in all). Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A BEAUTIFUL EASTER CUSTOM.

"No more divinely appropriate expression of the Moravians' love of music and their appreciation of its inspiring power is to be found than in their sublime annunciation of the resurrection day. Through the quiet street of Bethlehem, Pa.) in the early morn, the trombonists walked from place to place pouring forth their grand, inspiring anthem that arouses the slumbering town to the welcome knowledge of the advent of this glorious day. Now here, now there, now everywhere the lights appear within the windows of the dwellings, and the streets are thronged with people, young and old, wending their way from all directions toward the church, and greeting one another with loving salutations of the day. The Easter service is begun within the church, and is continued there until the brightening sky announces the advent of the dawn. Then in slow procession, subdued and reverent, the people pass without the door, and, headed by the trombonists, solemnly ascend the winding hill to the loved and quaint old burying ground.

"Within the enclosure of this consecrated spot the congregation assembles and stands in a large semi-circle facing the eastern hill in fond anticipation of the emblem of its cherished faith. A little apart stand the ministers and the trombone choir. Thus assembled, the service of song and responsive readings, begun in the church, is continued. A sense of deep religious awe pervades the gathered throng, as on this cold, gray morning of the early spring, they await, in spiritual communion with their departed loved ones, the resurrection hour. Above the hill the dawning light appears. Then from the voices of the assembled host there bursts a melody of rapturous song, a heartfelt hymn of praise and adoration, a spontaneous symphony of joy, that starts in glad expression of triumphant hearts and mingling with the full, resounding strains of sweet-toned trumpets and resonant trombones, arises with the warbling song of joyous birds in glad homage to the spendent sky. For so, a radiant light o'erspreads the earth. A wondrous glory hails the new-born day, the sun appears in full glory sublime—God's symbol of the resurrected life, and earth and heaven in exultant joy peal forth in glad, hallelujah accord: "The Lord is risen! Hallelujah, praise the Lord!"—[Ladies' Home Journal.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but to get the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place. No other remedy can have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. J., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Where ever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King street.

CANDIDATES.

I RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for position of EDITOR OF THIS CITY, subject to the democratic primary, and solicit the votes of my fellow citizens.

A. H. THOMPSON.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.

I present myself a candidate for re-election to the position of Mayor, promising to do nothing more than the custom of according a second term to nearly all who have heretofore held the office. For many years this has been a recognized courtesy, and while it, of course, affords no claim, I cannot complain of those who desire to make me an exception to the rule. In announcing myself a candidate for re-election I wish merely to say that I have in mind to give satisfaction, as a public servant, and I am conscious of having treated all with the courtesy and consideration due them, and have endeavored to manifest a conservative, and in the last few months of my term have been fraught with issues not common in Mayor's office affairs, but I have met each fairly and avoided no responsibility. Should you deem me worthy of your support I will appreciate the confidence bestowed. Respectfully,

LUTHER H. THOMPSON.

OF MARYLAND.

The bonds of this company are accepted by Judges of State Courts, and of the Circuit and District Courts of the United States, and in all courts in Virginia.

It relieves business men and persons possessing property from the necessity of saying "No" to friends and relatives who may ask them to qualify on bonds of various kinds, which, if they did, would create a contingent liability, impair their financial credit, and involve a possible loss.

It enables heirs and next of kin to become trustees, executors and administrators of the estates of their deceased relatives, and to keep the management thereof in the hands of those most interested in a speedy, cheap and proper settlement.

It relieves those required to give bonds from incurring obligations by asking friends to become surety for them, and which they would feel bound to reciprocate when the opportunity offered.

It removes all liability or excuse for undue influence being exercised over Bank Officers, Railroad Employees, Contractors and Public Officials, by those becoming surety for such officials.
