

Alexandria Gazette.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 2, 1898.

COMMUNICATED. HON. JOHN F. RIXEY.

The papers are announcing different candidates for Congress from the 8th District, and while it is gratifying to know that there are so many competent and available men in the district, we are not to say right here that we have in our present representative a man without a peer. We have had many good and true men to represent this district in the years gone by but none truer, abler or purer than John F. Rixey. I have known him from his boyhood, and in every sphere of life he has borne himself without blame. Full of energy and push, truly a working man, and, in every sense, the working man's friend. But it is of his pure life I would like to speak. In this age when the cry comes ringing from the national capital "wickedness in high places," with pride we can point to our representative and say Behold the true, tried, temperate Christian gentleman. I have been much in the counties of Culpeper, Loudoun and Fauquier and it was a pleasure to hear only kind things about Mr. Rixey, and the earnest desire that he represent us again. True our foolish pride has been just a little cut, because of some trashy trouble he has made no speeches in the House, for some of us feel that he is no superior as a speaker. He is vast and colossal in his imagery, majestic in his diction, copious in his fancy, logical and forceful in the presentation of any subject. Though making but few speeches, he has shown a deep interest in things pertaining to the welfare of his district. Yes, we are proud of him; we believe in him; we know him and we are not willing to wait until he is dead and then put flowers upon his grave, but while he lives and faithfully toils, we would throw this little flower across his pathway that its perfume may sweeten the hours of labor. The degree forth from the people that John F. Rixey must be our next representative.

I desire to attest to the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as one of the most valuable and efficient preparations on the market. It broke an exceedingly dangerous cough for me in 24 hours, and in gratitude therefore, I desire to inform you that I will never be without it and you should feel proud of the esteem in which your Remedies are held by people in general. It is the one remedy among ten thousand, success to it.—O. R. DOWNY, Editor Democrat, Albion, Ind. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King street.
