DEATH OF A WATCHMAN.—Edward Parker, the old colored watchman who for an even half century had kept watch at the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon died last night at the home of his daughter in Washington. Parker's entire life was spent at the former home of Washington. Born a slave, he lived to see the freedom of his race, but he preferred to spend his days as they had begun, within the beautiful and historic inclosure of Mount Vernon.

Parker was born in Charleston, W. Va., and when an infant of six months was left no herless and about that time was bought by John A. Washington and taken to Mount Vernon. Here for thirty-three years he lived, and at the breaking out of the civil war he was taken over to Fort Washington, where he served as a cook for the Union soldiers. After the war he was employed to watch the tomb of Washington and to prevent depredations on trees and shrubbery. On the 30th of June Parker was compelled to give up his watch. Disease drove him to bed, and the starlight figure soon wasted away to a mere shadow before the ravages of cancer of the stomach, from which he died.

THE NEW YEAR.—The new year falling on Sunday, Monday next will be a legal holiday, although it will be observed hereabouts in a only a half-way manner. The schools, government buildings, &c., will be closed, but business will be little interfered with, as the first of January, following so closely in the wake of Christmas, is but partially regarded in the South. New Year's receptions have grown fewer every year, and apart from some few affairs which necessarily call attention to the fact that we have entered upon another year, things go on about as usual on the 1st of January. The ceremony of ringing the old year out will be observed to-night, while watch meetings will be held in the Trinity and Baptist Churches, commencing at 10 o'clock. In the latter church the Young People's Union will hold a celebration.

CHARGED WITH GAMBLING.—A warrant was issued yesterday evening at the instance of C. E. White, a young man from Washington, who claimed that he had been swindled out of $20 by James Mitchell, W. H. Carpenter and Joseph Doherty at the grocery and liquor store of George Finch, on north Royal street. White claimed that the three defendants were engaged with him in a game of poker and Mr. Finch was charged with permitting gambling on his premises. The warrant was served by Policeman Ferguson and the accused were released on collateral for their appearance. The case was called when the court convened this morning, and the accused were dismissed, the plaintiff having failed to appear.

CELEBRATION.—The Christmas celebration at the M. E. Church South last night was better than usual. The programme was well rendered by all who had parts to recite or sing and was heartily appreciated and enjoyed by the audience which filled the house to overflowing, the only regret being that the entertainment was so short the entire exercises not consuming more than an hour. The decorations consisted of a Jacob's ladder, surmounted by a crown, with a white dove of peace suspended from the apex. The whole entertainment reflected great credit upon the committee having it in charge. The organ and piano led the music in the concert. The organ was presided over by Miss Lulu Cockey and the piano by Miss Mary Williams.

OPERA HOUSE.—"A Husband on Salary" is the title of a bright comedy manager Harper has secured for his New Year attraction on January 23. The company comes highly recommended with New York and Boston press notices, and Manager Harper is assured that first class in every particular, and so guaranteed his patrons. He also states that money will be refunded to any one witnessing the entire performance if they are dissatisfied.

PERSONAL.—After a visit to friends in the city, Rev. Dr. J. H. Boyd left yesterday for his home in Alexandria. (Staunton Spectator. Mrs. E. Milburn is on a visit to friends in Loudoun. Miss Mary V. Harlow, who has been spending a part of the holidays with Miss Lovoy Randall, of Washington, has returned home. Mr. J. F. Steiner last night entertained a number of his friends at his home on north Washington street.

Mrs. J. C. Nevitt is seriously ill at her home on Columbus street. Mr. Benj. Baggett has been confined to his home on upper King street during the week by illness. THE SMALLPOX.—By direction of the health officer the case of smallpox on south West street has been removed to the house in Braddock alley where the first case reported is being treated. Sergeant Smith under orders from the Mayor, has made a thorough canvass of the outskirts of the city for a suitable house for these cases, and to-day it is understood that a place in every way suitable—isolation, convenience, &c.,—has been procured and the cases are prepared, the patients will be removed. No new cases are reported, though one, presumed to be chicken pox, is being investigated by the health officer in the First ward.

FINED $500 FOR CONTEMPT.—Justice Cox, in Washington yesterday issued an order fining Mrs. Frances P. Smoot $500 for failing to obey a former mandate of the court in the case of the Central National Bank against the Marshall Hall Steamboat Company, asking for the appointment of a receiver. The order against her was issued on October 15, 1897, enjoining her from interfering in any manner with the receivers in the management and direction of the defendant company. In the same court Messrs. Harry Kirk, Jr., and Adrian Posey were directed to show cause within five days why they should not be fined for contempt in the same case.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor G. L. Simpson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning: Silas Lee, colored, arrested by Officers Roberts and Hall charged with detaching property, was dismissed. A man, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with permitting gambling on his premises, was dismissed. Three men, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with unlawful gambling, was dismissed. Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and mild. One prisoner and ten lodgers were at the station house.

CHURCH MUSIC.—The programmes of music rendered in the different church choirs last Sunday will be repeated to-morrow. The programme arranged for Christ Church choir was postponed last Sunday owing to the sickness of several members, but it will be rendered to-morrow. CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—Administration upon the estate of Nancy Lucas was committed to Dulcey Lucas. Edgar C. Graham was appointed a trustee for the M. E. Church South in place of J. G. Hudson, resigned.

C., James E. Roberts; Preceptor, J. A. Travers; M. of W., Geo. F. Simpson; M. of E., W. H. May; M. of F., H. C. Crump; E. of B., & S., Dr. A. F. Cox; M. at A., John Arbesino; J. G., Vollette; O. Mr. Bryan in his speech insisted that a colonial policy was wrong in principle and unwise, and he predicted that it would prove unprofitable in practice. A number of other speeches were made.

HANGED.—John Hancock, the young negro convicted at the September term of the Corporation Court of Lynchburg for criminal assault on Ross Cohn a little white girl, was hanged in the jail-yard there yesterday morning.
