WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section, fair, warmer tonight. Wednesday, fair, colder in afternoon; fresh southerly wind, becoming northerly Wednesday.

TAKEN ILL IN THE PULPIT.—Rev. Berryman Green, of Alexandria, who officiated at St. Paul's Episcopal church last Sunday, fainted at the evening service. Mr. Green has lately recovered from a severe attack of grip, and his indisposition is believed to be due to the effects of his illness. Mr. Green made no complaint in the vestry, and to all appearances was quite equal to the task of conducting the service. During his sermon, however, he stopped suddenly, and after a pause of a few moments, he said: "I am unable to continue my sermon," and turned and left the pulpit. Mr. Jacob Reinhardt, the organist, began to play the offertory as the organist usually does, and while there was some slight confusion in the church, there was no consternation, or very evident alarm, and the congregation remained seated. When Mr. Green had reached the chancel rails, he asked that the collection should be taken up, and while this was being done he commenced saying backwards and forwards. Several of the vestrymen ran towards him, and Dr. Carlis Tomkins also went to his assistance. Mr. Green was then carried out of the church to the vestry, and the congregation was dismissed by Major Robert Stiles, the senior warden. Resolutions were administered to Mr. Green, and he insisted upon walking to the residence of Dr. Hunter McGuire, where he was entertained during his visit. He was so much better yesterday morning that he was able to leave for his home in Alexandria. [Richmond Dispatch.]

Rev. Mr. Green returned to his home in this city yesterday evening and is now confined to his house. He recently recovered from an attack of grip and was really not strong enough to have gone to Richmond. He expects to be about again, however, in a few days.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. E. V. Harris who has been sick with grip is improving slowly. Miss Wheat, of Louisville, is visiting Miss Dixon, on north Washington street. Miss Bessie Lee, is visiting Miss Rosa Melby, in Ghent, Norfolk. Mr. William H. Henderson continues seriously ill of pneumonia at his residence on the corner of Prince and Henry streets.

Mr. Elmer King is quite sick with pneumonia at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary A. King. Rev. Father Coleman, of Fredericksburg, will conduct services at St. Mary's church tonight. Mr. Henry H. Entwistle, who went to Fredericksburg on a short vacation hoping to improve his health but who was taken quite sick while there and had to return to his home in this city, continues quite ill.

Mr. W. E. Hancock, formerly of Alexandria but now of Richmond, was in the city today.

Capt. A. J. Fair, who has been seriously ill, is now able to be about again.

Councilman Bader has almost recovered from an attack of grip.

Mr. W. C. Shock continues seriously ill at his home on Fairfax street.

The condition of Mr. George Darley, it is feared, does not improve.

Mrs. H. B. Burke, who spent the winter with her father in New Orleans, has returned to her home in this city.

THE TURNPIKE CASE.—As stated in the Gazette of that date, the controversy between the County Supervisors and the Washington and Alexandria Turnpike Company concerning the keeping in repair of that road, which was to have come up at the Supervisors' meeting yesterday, was continued on account of the indisposition of Commonwealth's Attorney Johnson. It is understood that the Pennsylvania Turnpike Company, which owns the turnpike, has submitted a proposition to the Supervisors. The proposition states that the company is willing to give the county the sum of $3,750 and fifty feet of the western side of the road, with the exception of 500 feet at the south end of the Long Bridge. They also agree to furnish gravel for repairing it, and will haul the same as far as Waterloo. The turnpike extends from the south end of the Long Bridge to this city. The matter concerning the legality of the ownership began to assume form last September. The condition of the road has, of late, been a source of much complaint, and the Supervisors decided to secure control of the turnpike or to compel the company to comply with the terms of their charter by keeping it in repair. At the recent session of the legislature a bill was passed to enable the turnpike company to dispose of its property.

CONSUMERS' BREWERY CASE.—The argument in the Alexandria county case of J. B. Nierendorf vs. the Consumers' Brewing Company of Rosslyn was concluded before Judge Nicol sitting in chambers at Manassas, yesterday. The case came up on a rule granted by the defendant company, who claimed why an injunction should not be granted and a receiver appointed. The company alleged in its answer that the action was the result of the effort on the part of the Washington brewers to crush it out of existence. All Saturday was consumed in reading evidence. The complaint was represented by Messrs. Leon Tobriner and Alexander H. Bell, of Washington, and Mr. R. Walton Moore, of Virginia, and the defendant company by Mr. A. A. Lipscomb and Mr. L. C. Barley. Judge Nicol had not reached a decision last night.

DEATH OF AN OLD MAN.—Mr. W. W. Anderson, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of the Lanesville community, was buried there last Wednesday. He was born in Scotland in 1815 and had been a resident of that section for many years. He is survived by nine children, thirty-six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was a brother of the late John Anderson, of this city.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.—Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. A Druggist gives the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves's signature on each box.

W. H. Smith, Butler, Mich., says, "Do you know the Little Early Bites are the best pills ever used for constipation, liver and bowels troubles?"

DEATH OF MR. C. F. WILKINS.—Mr. C. F. Wilkins, a well-known feed dealer of Jackson City, died quite suddenly at his home in Mr. Pleasant near Washington, at an early hour this morning, aged 66 years. Mr. Wilkins was a native of New Jersey, but came to this city about forty years ago and, with Mr. Hendricks, conducted a store on upper King street, continuing in business for some time after the war broke out. Later he purchased a farm in lower Fairfax county and resided there during the summer. He was a man of many sterling qualities and was respected and esteemed by all who knew him. He was one of the charter members of the Fairfax Mutual Insurance Company, and a member of the executive committee of that company.

ACCIDENTS.—Last night while some cars were being shifted in the yard of the Vulcanizing Works a car loaded with lumber was run off the track and about thirty feet on the wharf. The structure was considerably damaged, the wheels of the car being completely buried in the broken planks and splinters.

An engine got off the rails on north Union street yesterday evening and for a time blocked the street. Mr. R. W. Giles, a brakeman on the Southern Railway, was knocked from a car at the end of the Wilkes street tunnel last night. His head was severely cut and he was otherwise injured. He was attended by Dr. O'Brien.

OPERA HOUSE.—"The American Girl," with George F. Hall, the king of comedians, and Frankie St. John, the queen of soubrettes, will be the attraction at the Opera House Thursday. The plot of the play has in it considerable of the pathetic, but throughout, whenever the villain seems to succeed in his evil schemes, Hall, as Ross Bolivar, in his inimitable funny way turns the clouds into sunshine. The play is of unusual interest, clean and sparkling with wit throughout.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Edward Cavan took place this morning from St. Mary's Church, the services being conducted by Rev. H. J. Cutler. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. P. Graves, Thomas Dalton, W. T. Emerson and J. M. Young, all members of Davis Post, G. A. R., and the remains were interred in the National cemetery.

She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery.
