

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 28, 1900.

At the recent reunion of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, at Fredericksburg, every allusion to President McKinley was vociferously applauded by the large number of ex-Confederates and their children who were present, and Mr. St. George Fitzhugh of that town, who made the address of welcome to the Northern soldiers, said "we recognize our President as a pure patriot and a stainless statesman, whose wise and courageous administration of this government, both in peace and war, has endeared him to the hearts of his countrymen and shed national lustre upon the office he fills."

Whenever the democrats meet to express their sentiments, no matter where, they make it plain that they are in favor of Mr. Bryan as their candidate for the next Presidency, and also, that they don't want, and will not have, anybody else. Those of the Borough of Manhattan, New York, on Saturday last subscribed $100,000 to the democratic Presidential fund, provided, however, that Mr. Bryan be the nominee. Why the democratic deserters should persist in their futile efforts to prevent his renomination, they alone can tell. They are going to vote against him, and that being so, they should join the republicans as once.

THE Baptist Missionary Society, that met in Detroit last week, declared in favor of expansion, assigning as the reason therefor the statement that trade and humanitarianism follow the flag. But that trade does not follow the flag is proved by the experience of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, and to know that humanitarianism does not, it is only necessary to read the daily newspaper accounts from those newly acquired provinces. But money must be contributed to save the souls of the heathen, if their bodies be starved and shot to death.

GEN. WOOD, commander of the U. S. army in Cuba, says "palace life is expensive." But the General should know that, under a republican form of government, officers of the army are not expected to live in palaces. Palaces are for princes and potentates and the heads of trusts to reside in, and not for officers of the army, whose salaries are small and are fixed by law. But every sort of life is expensive under an imperialistic government, whether it be spent in palaces or in hovels.

ALL INTELLIGENT democrats laugh at the pretense of the republican committee during the recess to formulate a bill to repeal the war tariff, because they know that if Mr. McKinley be re-elected the tariff will be increased, instead of decreased, in order that the trusts may get back the money they shall have contributed to the fund that is being raised to buy his reelection.

FROM WASHINGTON. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] Washington, May 28. The friends of the St. Louis World's Fair have secured 225 signatures, or more than a majority of the House, to the petition asking the committee on rules to set apart a day for the consideration of the exposition bill. Clouds interfered somewhat with viewing the eclipse here this morning. The shadow touched the solar disc at 8:55 and the phenomenon ended at 10:14. When the sun's obscuration was at its greatest, eleven-twelfths of the solar disc was obscured, the heavens mellowed and resembled a heaven mellowed. Reports received at the weather bureau show that the weather was clear along the entire belt of territory from New Orleans to Norfolk. Minister Hunter at Guatemala cables the State Department today as follows: "Hernandez has been convicted of the murder of Imboden and wounding of Gold at San Pedro Sula, Honduras, and sentenced on the twenty-fifth instant to ten years imprisonment." Imboden and Gold were Virginians who were prospecting for mines, and in an altercation were shot by Hernandez, Imboden dying. The killing occurred last September.

It was announced at the Navy Department today that the cruiser Newark had arrived at Taku, which is the nearest port to the scene of trouble in China. The State Department has no advice from Minister Conger at Hong Kong and the significance of the present movement is only a matter of conjecture. The French, British, German and American warships are now in Chinese waters and while the United States will act independently of other nations it is well understood that should the "boxers" rise against the foreigners American action will be concurrent with that of the European powers to repress the outbreak and to protect the lives and property of the foreign residents.

It is said in labor circles that Joseph Ralph, of Illinois, at present custodian of dies, etc., of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, will succeed Claude M. Johnson, former director of that Bureau, whom the labor organization succeeded in ousting. The U. S. Supreme Court in an opinion read by Justice Harlan today decided the bounty claim of Admiral Dewey. It held that the statutes must be strictly construed and that excluding the shore batteries and submarine mines his force was not opposed by a superior force. The bounty allowed is therefore only $100 a man. The opinion was not unanimous, Chief Justice Fuller, on behalf of himself and Justices White and McKenna, reading a dissenting opinion, holding that Admiral Dewey should receive the double bounty, and that the judgment of the Court of Claims should be reversed. Under the decision Admiral Dewey's bounty allowance will be about $10,000, his share being one-twentieth of the total. In his behalf later his attorney, Ex-Secretary of the Navy Herbert, asked for leave to file a petition for a rehearing, which was granted, the mandate being stayed in the meantime.

In the Senate today Mr. Daniel introduced bills to refer the following bills to the Court of Claims: For the relief of Goff A. Hall of the District of Columbia, James Taylor, deceased, and Felix Richards of Alexandria county, Va., and Brannon Thatcher, of Fredericksburg, Va.

The West here is still engaged in their effort to get something for their claim against Alexandria. Hugh West was King's counsel for Virginia. He obtained possession of the land on which Belle Haven was located from Lord Fairfax, and when the name of Belle Haven was changed to Alexandria he leased it to the corporation that came for ninety-nine years, with the provision that the lease for the Metropolitan Hotel and Fishtown should be permanent. The descendants of Hugh West are the Denzel, Gunnell and Adams heirs.

GENS. SICKLES, RUGGLES and Kelley were at the Capitol today in the interests of the proposed Fredericksburg park. But Mr. Speaker Henderson and Representative Jones of Virginia and Gen. Sickles, who called on him in that interest, that there was no possible chance for the park at this session.

One house of Congress has agreed to give $1,500 an acre for the additional land required for the St. Elizabeth Iveson Asylum to a syndicate who don't own it, but hold an option on it at $500 an acre.

There is no doubt that so far at least as can be learned from the republican members of Congress, Senators as well as Representatives, that the prospects of the success of their party at next fall's election are good, nor can it be denied that some of them attribute this condition to the policy of Mr. Hanna; indeed, they speak of it as the Hanna fruit, nor is there any doubt that some of them are of the opinion that were it not certain Mr. McKinley would hesitate no longer to oppose the policy. They also say with them in '96 will get next fall, and that they have already seen buttons on which white miners are represented as being forced to work by negro U. S. soldiers, and that such buttons are being scattered broadcast among the working men throughout the North.

The banquet of the ex-Confederates to Congress will be given at the Metropolitan Hotel tonight. The only invited guests will be Rev. Dr. McKim, formerly of Christ Church, Alexandria, and Major Bischoff, ex-president of the Virginia democratic association of this city. Senator Daniel will respond to the toast, "Virginia."

The talk at the Capitol about the running mates of President McKinley and Mr. Bryan is in favor of Representative Dilliver of Iowa for the former and Representative Williams of Illinois for the latter.

Capt. Davis and Mr. W. P. Graves of the Davis G. A. R. post of Alexandria, Virginia, were at the Capitol today to become members of the House to deliver the address at the federal decoration day services in their city, as General Dyreforth, their selected war, declined to do so because General Dyreforth had been invited. They indicated Representative Landis of Indiana, who was born in Ohio in 1858, who accepted the invitation at once.

An application was filed at the Postoffice Department this morning for rural free delivery at Herndon and vicinity, Fairfax county, Virginia. Those interested in the omnibus bill, containing the Bowman bill claims and others in which Virginians and some other Southern people are concerned, are making a strong effort to have that bill passed during the remaining days of this session, but there doesn't seem much chance of their success.

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS. Washington, May 28. SENATE. The Senate met at 11 o'clock today. After routine business Mr. Hale submitted a partial conference report on the naval appropriation bill which was agreed to. He also reported disagreement on three items—armor plate, ocean survey and the length of the course of instruction in the naval academy. Mr. Wellington in a carefully prepared speech advocated the adoption of the resolutions sympathizing with the Boers in their struggle. Americans, he believed, were for the infant republic and against the empire. If the Boers were crushed by this power liberty in South Africa would be crushed. Mr. Wellington made a savage attack

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The trial of Rev. J. E. R. Riddick, charged with the murder of Dr. William H. Temple, will be commenced in the county court of Brunswick next Tuesday. Mrs. Riddick will be a very important witness for her husband.

Gen. Butterfield has presented to Fredericksburg Masonic Lodge, under whose auspices the cornerstone of the battlefield monument was laid there on Friday evening, in the presence of President McKinley, the Society of the Army of the Potomac and thousands of officials and visitors, the beautiful silver trowel used in the ceremony.

The funeral of Capt. Page McCarty took place from the mortuary chapel at Hollywood, Richmond, at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Landon R. Mason, of Grace Episcopal Church. A large number of the friends of the deceased were present. The interment was made in the McCarty square in Hollywood.

With imposing ceremonies St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, Norfolk, dedicated yesterday morning. The ceremony was conducted by Right Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of Southern Virginia, assisted by the rector during whose work in Norfolk St. Luke's was built. Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Loyd, of New York, now secretary of the General Mission Board of the church. A large number of other clergymen participated.

THE WAR IN AFRICA. Lord Roberts' main army crossed the Vaal river yesterday and is at last on the soil of the South African Republic. A dispatch states that the only fight which marked the crossing was a skirmish, in which four British and twelve foreigners serving with the Boers were killed.

The Boers, it is stated, have retreated to Klipriviersberg, 30 miles north of the Vaal and 21 miles south of Johannesburg. They are expected to make a stand there, as the position is one of great strength. The place where Roberts crossed the Vaal is Vijoen's drift on the northern side of which is the town of Vereeniging. The railroad also crosses there. Other bodies of the British troops made a flank move and crossed respectively at Parys, 30 miles west of Vereeniging, at Lindogfontein drift, near Parys. These flanking moves by large forces of troops rendered resistance by the Boers useless.

While the main Boer army has been compelled to retreat before the immensely superior numbers of Lord Roberts, parties of the burghers are active in a number of directions. A dispatch from Newcastle, northern Natal, says the Boers are "very active" and have been reinforced. Their front extends from Laing's Nek to New R public. The force which retired from Mafeking when the relief column arrived has recaptured the town of Kuruman, Bechuana-land. They have also occupied Heilbronn, 50 miles east of Kroonstad, in the Free State, where they can threaten Lord Roberts' line of communications.

A dispatch from Grootvlei, dated May 27, says that Lord Roberts' northern advance force has sighted the Transvaal hills, and that General French has secured an excellent flanking position on the northwest. The same dispatch says the Boers have destroyed all the bridges and culverts, and have threatened to blow up the mines at Johannesburg.

President Kruger, it is now reported, has issued a proclamation asking the Transvaal burghers to state whether they want to continue the war or sue for peace. The Boer commandos facing Buller's forces at Laings Nek have been reinforced, and their front now extends from Laings Nek to New Republic. The Boers are said to have located large camps at Ristfontein and Daniels Krull.

The railway between Mafeking and Bulawayo has been restored, and supplies are being brought in to Mafeking.

THE CHURCHES. The Presbyterian General Assembly in session at St. Louis, Mo., adjourned sine die on Saturday to meet in Philadelphia in 1901. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church concluded its labors at Atlanta, Ga., on Saturday. There was much enthusiasm over the decision to raise a million dollar twentieth century fund for the benefit of the church education.

The annual conference of the Methodist Protestant Church at Atlantic City, on Saturday elected delegates to the Ecumenical Congress of Methodism, which is to meet in London, September 4, 1901. Montgomery, Ala., was selected for the next meeting of the conference. The report of the committee on temperance condemned the failure of the government to enforce the letter and spirit of the anti-liquor clause in the reorganization bill. The word "Catholic," which four years ago, at the general conference, was stricken from the Apostles' Creed, was ordered restored in the phrase which read: "The Holy Catholic Church."

By a vote of 527 to 290, and after a debate which exceeded in bitterness anything yet heard during the session, the Methodist General Conference, in session in Chicago, on Saturday decided to make no change in the attitude of the church in regard to card-playing, dancing, theatre-going, and other forms of amusements, which, since 1872, have been under the ban of the church. The four newly elected Methodist Episcopal bishops, Drs. D. H. Moore, S. W. Hamilton, E. W. Parker and Frank Wesley Warner, were consecrated at Chicago yesterday.

THE STATE CONVENTION.—A letter from Richmond says: It is evident that the voters of Virginia have divided in favor of the proposed constitutional convention. The majority may be as much as 20,000, perhaps more. After the returns have been canvassed and the result declared, the governor can, if he chooses, call an extra session of the legislature to provide for the holding of the convention. Most of the democratic leaders are in favor of leaving it to the General Assembly to be chosen next year to provide for the convention. This will probably be done, and in that event, the convention cannot be held until 1902. It is understood in advance that the organic law drafted will be submitted to the voters for their approval or rejection. To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascara Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. M. C. TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Foreign News. Shanghai, May 28.—The foreign ministers at Peking consider the reply of the Chinese foreign office to their note of protest against the "Boxers" as unsatisfactory. The foreign representatives consider that the ineffectual efforts of the government to suppress the "Boxers" is calculated to encourage the continuance of the reign of terror if not lead to a combined effort to exterminate the Christians.

London, May 28.—Mrs. Gladstone, widow of William E. Gladstone, is so seriously ill at her residence, Hawarden Castle, that the members of the family have been summoned. Madrid, May 28.—Extraordinary precautions were taken in Spain and Portugal to protect astronomers from the superstitious fear of the peasants during the eclipse of the sun today. All the observatories were surrounded by strong cordons of police and soldiers. Yesterday the priests in all the peasant churches explained the eclipse to their congregations and assured them there was no reason to be afraid. Despite the assurances, however, the peasants were in an uneasy frame of mind and regarded the preparations of the astronomers with suspicion.

Peking, May 28.—The situation here is most serious as a result of the war with the "Boxers" and the defeat of the government troops. The "Boxers" are reported to be marching on Peking. The "Boxers" have burned a railroad station and murdered several employees. The foreign representatives are preparing to depart in a day or two to guard the legations. Much apprehension prevails. The American cruiser Newark and a French cruiser have arrived at Taku.

Sourabaya, May 28.—Forty-four workmen were killed and twenty-seven injured here today by the collapse of the Southampton dock buildings in course of construction. The accident happened without warning and all of the laborers were buried in the ruins. Count Boni's Castellane, who occupies a seat in the Chamber in the national interests, made his maiden speech before the Deputies this afternoon when he charged the government with having promised a revision of the Boni affair on the growth of the Dreyfus case if he withheld his charges against the government until after the exposition. Castellane's attack was prompted by the Marquis de Gallifet's statement Friday that the Dreyfus affair was closed. Count Boni spoke for eight minutes. He began well but was later compelled to refer to notes. He was warmly applauded by the nationalists. The Count de Castellane occupied a seat in the gallery.

Lisbon, May 28.—The Portuguese minister of the exchequer has notified the representatives of the claimants of the Delagoa Bay award that Portugal is ready to pay the amount and has asked where they wish to receive it. The Situation in South Africa. London, May 28.—The war has reached its last stage. The entire British army is in the Transvaal and every one believes the end will come quickly. Few believe that the Boers will make any serious resistance now, even though the country is well adapted to their manner of fighting. Those who claim to be acquainted with the political situation in the Transvaal claim that there will be no siege of Pretoria. They believe the irreconcilable element among the Boers sees the futility of resistance against the overwhelming British force and are preparing to trek north or escape to Lorezo Marquie before they are surrounded. The others, they say, will surrender without resistance in the hope of saving their property and being allowed to resume their old life unchanged by British domination.

A Capetown dispatch says that owing to the near approach of the British to the Witwatersrand and the gold district, several prominent outlanders have joined the Boer headquarters staff as guides and advisers. The dispatch adds that there is an untraceable rumor that General French has occupied Johannesburg.

New Castle, Natal, May 27.—The Boers have recovered from their panic and are returning in strong force to Laing's Nek. Fresh Pretoria commandos are joining Botha. The Boers possess Muller's and Botha's passes. The British are blockaded at Van Reenen's pass.

The Morris-Clark Nuptials. New York, May 28.—Miss Katherine Stauffer Clark, the daughter of Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, and Dr. Lewis Rutherford Morris were married at 3:30 this afternoon at St. Thomas church. The ceremony was quiet but magnificent. The edifice of St. Thomas was a mass of flowers, the interior was decorated with orchids and apple blossoms while the choir stalls were concealed by two monster arches of roses, lilies and orchids. The floor of the chancel and the aisles were strewn with roses. The decorations were pink and white. The church was opened at 2 o'clock for the seating of guests who numbered about 600. The wedding party marched up the aisle to the strains of Lohengrin, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Senator Clark. The groom, Dr. Morris, accompanied by the best man, Wm. H. Harriman, received the bride at the chancel rail and the nuptial knot was tied by Dr. J. W. Brown. After the ceremony the recessional was in the reverse order, Senator Clark taking the arm of Mr. Harriman. The return music was Mendelssohn's wedding march.

After the wedding service a reception was tendered the newly-wedded couple by Mrs. E. M. Culver, at her home, following which will be a dinner to a few near friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The couple will leave for the South this evening. The city is today entertaining many people from the West and Southwest who have come to attend the wedding. Miss Clark's wedding gown was of white satin and rose point lace and the lines are straight from the neck to the hem in the garment save for eight folds at the waist line. Over this gown Miss Clark wore a shawl made up of rose point lace, but no jewels. The wedding cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

Another Failure. New York, May 28.—Seymour, Johnson & Company, stock and cotton brokers, announced their failure on the stock and cotton exchanges this morning. The failure was precipitated by the collapse of Price, McCormick & Company. Announcement of the failure on the cotton exchange led to a break of a several points with August down to 8.55. Later the price of rally then some covering orders came into the market.

The Markets. Chicago, May 28.—The market closed as follows: Wheat—May—July 67 1/2 @ 67. Georgetown, May 28.—Wheat 55 1/2.

THE ECLIPSE.

New York, May 28.—Cloudy weather here interfered with observations of the eclipse this morning. The sun, with its disk slightly obscured by the moon, was visible for less than a minute at 7:55 a. m. Then the clouds gathered and the sun was entirely eclipsed. Later momentary glimpses were had as the clouds, for a few seconds at a time, rolled by. The eclipse here was not total, though the city became dark and gloomy and lights were necessary in office, shop and house in order to do any work.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 28.—The eclipse began in Philadelphia at 7:45 o'clock and reached its maximum at 8:59. The view of enthusiasts with smoked glasses was spoiled owing to clouds. New Orleans, La., May 28.—Total darkness, caused by the eclipse, occurred here at 7:30 a. m. It lasted about a minute.

New York, Va., May 28.—Total eclipse occurred here at 8:53 a. m. All was dark for more than a minute, during which Mercury was visible right above the place where the sun had disappeared. The conditions were perfect and observations taken by scientists from the Washington and New England observatories were most satisfactory in every particular. The corona was the centre of attraction. The totality came suddenly. Venus could be seen, but not so plainly as Mercury. Jupiter was visible. During the totality a bright horizon of light was seen about the entire horizon. Lamps had to be lighted in stores and fire works were shot up while whistles of factories and steam vessels in the harbor screamed. The negro population became almost frantic in being their belief that the world was coming to an end. Many ran to the woods.

Fortress Monroe, Va., May 28.—At O D Point Comfort, thousands of visitors lined the hotel verandas and wharves to view the eclipse. As dark shadowed from the Virginia capes, the wind died down and the earth seemed to settle itself to repose. The scene grew more weird until 8:53 when the sun's light was snuffed out like a candle. The total eclipse lasted half a minute here. Mercury was visible just above the point of contact. Many photographs of the Dolphin went out near the capes to observe the eclipse, as did also Secretary Gage's party on the Holly.

The Dolphin with President McKinley and party passed out Hampton Roads on return to Washington at 10 o'clock. The battleship Kearsarge of Old Point fired a presidential salute of twenty-one guns. Madrid, May 28.—Clear weather prevailed here during today's eclipse and the astronomers securing magnificent photographs. The observations were entirely successful.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES. The grand stand at the baseball park in Cincinnati was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $19,000. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin. The snuff factory of Stewart, Ralph & Sons, of Philadelphia, which has been a landmark in the Kensington district for the past thirty years, will in the course of a few weeks be removed to Clarksville, Tenn., as a result of the assimilation of Stewart, Ralph & Sons by the American Snuff Company, of New York. The factory will be closed about the 100 employees, many of whom have been with the firm for years, will be turned adrift.

The great Calumet and Hecla mine, near Houston, Mich., is being run and workmen are being from the shaft. One miner has perished and five others have been hurt. Democratic primaries were held in a number of towns throughout Maryland on Saturday, and the Bryan men were generally successful.
