WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Tuesday; probably warmer Tuesday; fresh southerly winds.

ALARMS OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 9 o'clock Saturday night was caused by the burning of soot in a chimney at Mr. Charles Zimmerman's restaurant in Market alley. The fire department responded, but their services were not needed, as the soot soon burned out. The alarm in less than time that it takes to tell it completely blocked King street from Royal almost to Fairfax. As is usual on Saturday nights, King street was alive with people, and large numbers were lined up on both sides of Royal street, near King, listening to and watching the antics of a street preacher, who was consigning to everlasting torment all who persist in the impious sin of drinking sweet cider or smoking cigars. When the alarm struck these platoons immediately closed and hundreds running from every point of the compass packed the intersection of King and Royal streets with a sea of humanity. Women in some cases took refuge in stores, while those with baby carriages had no little difficulty in rolling their charges to places of safety. A volume of smoke was pouring from Sharpshin alley, between Miller's china store and Carlin's hardware establishment, and while no blaze could be seen numbers were confident they had located the fire. Some positively asserted the china store was doomed to destruction, others I. Eichberg's dry goods establishment, some Bendheim's—in short the fire was fixed within the radius of a square. The actual cause was finally discovered. Mr. Zimmerman was frying oysters when a bank of soot in a front chimney ignited, which simple incident caused all the excitement.

The alarm of fire this morning was caused by the partial burning of the roof of a frame back building of a house on the north side of Cameron street, of Henry. The flames engulfed the loss being a fire was caused by an overpipe which protruded

LOOKING FOR HIS DAUGHTER.—Edward H. Scott, formerly of this city but now of Washington, has requested the police of that city to assist in the search for his missing daughter Nellie. She was last seen by relatives in Alexandria shortly before 8 o'clock Saturday night. It is believed she and a young man in this city have been contemplating marriage, the latest information being that the nuptial ceremony would occur to-morrow. Mr. Scott came to this city Saturday night and reported the case at police headquarters. Accompanied by an officer he made a search for his daughter, but it proved fruitless. Mr. Scott has been employed in Washington for some years, but until little more than a week ago resided with his family here. When he moved to Washington he consented that Nellie remain temporarily with John Henderson, an uncle, in her native city. She liked Alexandria so well she declared she was unwilling to go to Washington last Saturday. Her parents desired her to come home, and the uncle informed the girl she would have to obey. Early Saturday evening she left her uncle's and went to the home of a sister of her step-mother, in this city, remaining there about five minutes. She then proceeded to the home of a relative of John Pettit, a young man about nineteen years of age, who has been devoting considerable attention to the girl. A few minutes before the 8:15 o'clock train left for Washington over the electric line she started down the street. Her father says he knows nothing regarding her subsequent movements.

P. S.—Notice was received at the station house this morning that the young woman had been located at the home of Mr. Pettit's sister in Washington. It was further stated that she had been taken to the Florence Crittenden Home there, but that the managers said they would not detain her unless she consented to stay.

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS.—An unidentified colored man was found lying beside the railroad tracks on the outskirts of Jackson City last night. The man was taken to Washington on one of the cars of the electric railway, and placed in the Emergency hospital. One of his legs is fractured, and there are a number of cuts and bruises about his head and neck. The negro was found shortly after 9 o'clock by employees of the railroad company, who were walking along the track southward from Jackson City. They picked up the negro, who was in an unconscious condition, and carried him to the station. An incoming train was signaled and he was placed aboard. It is thought the man may have been struck on the head by some of the tough characters about Jackson City. He was in no condition last night to tell how he was hurt.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.—Wm. S. Yeatman, disbursing clerk of the War Department at Washington, who went to York, Pa., on Friday night with a woman and registered as "W. S. Yates and wife" at a hotel, died suddenly in his room Saturday. He was in bed in condition during the night. A physician was summoned, but Yeatman died several hours later. The physician who signed the death certificate declares emphatically that death was from natural causes. Yeatman was born in this city on March 10, 1839. He received his education in the schools here and in Washington and entered the government service in the quartermaster's department in 1861. He leaves a widow and two children. His father was the late Arthur Henry Yeatman, who was in the employ of the Coast Survey for many years.

OPERATION.—Mr. William Violett, an old and well-known resident of south Lee street, who has been indisposed for some time by reason of an internal disorder, submitted to an operation for his relief at the Infirmary yesterday afternoon.

Stops the Cough and Works Off the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

How Are Your Kidneys? Dr. Hobbs' Spargan's Pills cure all kidney ills. Sample free. Ask Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or N. Y.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular.

THE TIDES continue to make high, and while no material damage has resulted, no little inconvenience is experienced by those whose callings keep them around the wharves. The water yesterday morning reached a higher point than at any time in last week, spreading in various directions. At the Baltimore and Ohio transfer slip the tide reached the railroad track on the approach to their wharf. At Agnew's wharf it spread over the wharf and laved the coal bins in the enclosure. This condition of affairs existed all the way to Point West, or beyond Fiehtown. The usual discomfort was experienced by passengers going to or coming from the Washington ferry boats.

The water this morning had reached a higher mark than for a long time, and it was impossible to walk around the Strand. The tide at 11 o'clock was creeping toward the railroad track on Union street, and wagons in coming from and going to the ferry wharf were submerged to the hubs. Nearly all the wharves were submerged and a sheet of chips, trash and bark covered the face of the water, while long lines of drift wood, in the shape of logs, rails, &c., were born on the bosom of the current which prevailed in the channel. At one o'clock, when the tide ceased to swell, the water had in some instances reached the level of the street track, and on laved the streets leading from the Strand it was impossible to reach saloons and stores without wading knee-deep, and scenes in Venice were suggested. So far no material damage has resulted, but there is much apprehension. Reports from above are to the effect that this is one of the most sudden rises of the Potomac river in recent years. Distraction to property along the banks and damage to the Chesapeake and Ohio canal was threatened yesterday. The river is higher than it has been in five years. The stage of water at 6 o'clock yesterday evening was 22 feet above low level and it was rising 10 inches to the hour. The low lands between the river and canal at Williamsport, Md., are under five feet of water, and on the Virginia side the river has leaped the high banks flooding acres of wheat. At points at and below the river is higher than the canal and is flowing into the levels, which are overflowing. It is feared this condition of affairs will cause serious trouble in Alexandria.

PERSONAL.—The marriage of Miss Clara Evelyn Chewing, daughter of Mr. Lizzie G. Chewing, to Charles Phillips, son of Mr. L. Phillips, will occur at 8 o'clock tonight at the Baptist Church. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. George L. Hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Mahood will reside in Lynchburg.

Mr. Harry B. Hudson left on Sunday with the best wishes of his many friends for Silverton, Colorado, where he has gone to accept a position.

Mr. W. H. Hantzman, who has been quite sick, was thought to be better today.

Mr. James Peverill and Miss May Mitchell will be married tonight, Rev. E. V. Regester to officiate.

Dr. Mary Barton is seriously ill at her home on King street.

Mr. Park Agnew, U. S. Internal Revenue Collector for this district, who has been quite sick for some days, was able to at his office this morning.

Mr. W. F. Creighton continues quite sick at his home, on Pitt street, with grip.

Mrs. Eppalmer and Mrs. Matthews, from Roanoke, Pa., are visiting Mr. A. H. Oyster, on King street.

Mr. J. Lawrence Perry, of this city, recently appointed agent for the Washington and Alexandria Ferry Company, at Washington, will assume his new duties May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kelth, who returned to this city last Thursday from their wedding trip, left this morning for their home in West Virginia.

The Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, the recently appointed pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, conducted the services in that church yesterday and made a most favorable impression on the large congregation that heard him.

RUMORS OF SMALLPOX.—Intelligence was received in this city yesterday to the effect that smallpox had broken out among colored people in a thickly settled neighborhood near Arlington Heights, and that the county authorities had taken prompt measures to prevent its spread. If this be so, and there is some likelihood that it is, great care should be exercised by the authorities of this city and Washington, considering the intercourse carried on between the county and both places.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today: Thomas Gordon, charged with being a vagrant, was dismissed. George Humberman, charged with running away from his home, was turned over to his father. Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and cool. Seven lodgers were at the station house.

CUT HIS KNEE.—Mr. J. J. Minor, foreman of the Postal Telegraph Company's construction corps in this vicinity, perched on a pole while arranging a pole on which wires were to be stretched. The accident was caused by the pole slipping as Mr. Minor struck it with an axe, which sent the blade into his knee.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The committee on streets met on Saturday night and considered the bids submitted that day for paving King street, between Fairfax and Royal, with vitrified brick. The contract for the work was awarded Messrs. Cuvillier and Spinks, the lowest bidders. They expect to commence work at once.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The National Union meets tonight. You can take a layman to task but you can't make him work. Business is heavier on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal this spring than since the flood of 1899.

The schooner Rio Grande, with shingles from Plymouth, N. C., to H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

James Smithers fell in a fit on the corner of King and Alfred streets this morning and cut his knee severely.

The Chesapeake and Ohio canal case was argued before Judge Stake in Hagersstown Saturday. The decision of the court was withheld.

Michael Thomas, who in 1896 was sent to the penitentiary for an assault on his wife, has served his term and has returned to this city.

Complaint is made by brethren that the bell in the First Presbyterian Church, on south Fairfax street, is rung on Sunday afternoon so vigorously that it is calculated to start a salaried man.

The remains of the late F. Schwab which have been in a vault since last March were yesterday morning in the presence of his family and friends interred in the family lot in St. Paul's burying ground.

The police are still driving apples from the city. An unusual number of apples, which she brought with her, was among those made to decamp this morning.

A number of members of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, of this city, left Saturday night for Honolulu, Va., to attend the organization of a council of the order in that city.

The Catholic Benevolent Legion held their regular meeting in St. Mary's Hall yesterday afternoon, when an application for membership was received and considerable routine business was disposed of.

Eryan Henry and Stanley Edella, who were sent to the Western State Hospital for the Insane, at Sheppardsville, three weeks ago, have returned to their homes in this city, both having been pronounced sane.

Mr. Charles Jones, living in the western section of the city, discovered this morning that some one had broken into his home during the night and completely cleaned out his larder. Among the articles stolen was a ham.

Messrs. Lyles and Koll have repaired and adjusted the platform scales at the City Gas Works, and they are now in first class order. The scales were adjusted by the city bay scales at the corner of Duke and Fairfax streets.

MINERAL LANDS.—Mr. Haney, the official surveyor for Alexandria county, is in Winchester. For some days past Mr. Haney has been out in the county surveying a large tract of land in the Cove, belonging to Messrs. Corbett and Whirlit, of Alexandria. The land is supposed to be fairly rich in minerals and it is believed that the new owners will develop it. In the connection it is known that several parties have recently visited Winchester and inspected county lands with a view to securing mineral rights. [Winchester Star.]
