TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Foreign News. Vannes, France, April 29.—A fire broke out in the camp of the 57th Artillery at this place today and swept through the barracks, eight lives being lost and many persons were injured before the flames were extinguished.

London, April 29.—The coroner's jury in the case of "Billy Smith," the New York boy, delivered a verdict today of accidental death.

London, April 29.—A deputation of coal miners had an audience today with Sir Michael Hicks-Beach on the subject of the new export tax of one shilling a ton on coal. The miners protested against the tax as injurious to British mining interests, and asked that it should be expunged from the budget.

London, April 29.—Lord Kitchener reports that Greenell has taken from the Boers, 35,500 rounds of ammunition. Boers, April 29.—It is said that the Very Rev. J. J. O'Connor, vicar general of the diocese of Newark, will succeed the late Bishop Wigger as bishop of Newark.

Algiers, April 29.—The insurrection against French authority in Algeria is spreading and the insurgents are committing many outrages. They are well armed and the residents of the region in which they are operating are terror stricken. Farms are being abandoned and the former occupants are flying to the cities and towns for protection.

From South Africa. London, April 29.—Lord Kitchener reports from Pretoria that Major General Kitchener's scouts, under Grenfell's command, captured Van Rawsberg's laager at Klipdrift. Seven Boers were killed and 37 prisoners, 8,000 pounds of ammunition, and all the enemy's wagons were captured. The British loss was only 1 wounded. Other British columns report three Boers killed, 58 prisoners taken, 57 surrendered and one quick-firing gun captured. Klipdrift is some miles north of the Pletersburg, which was recently taken by the British.

Capetown, April 29.—Cecil Rhodes, the South African statesman and millionaire, narrowly escaped capture by the Boers near Kimberley on Saturday. The Boers blew up the railway track in front of the train on which Rhodes was traveling. He succeeded, however, in making his escape.

Capetown, April 29.—The total number of plague cases here up to date has been, of blacks, 334, of Europeans, 135. Total number of deaths, of blacks 176; of Europeans 41.

The Leyland Line Steamers. Leeds, April 29.—The Daily News announces that J. P. Morgan has acquired control of the Leyland Steamship Line. Besides their trans-Atlantic services the company has regular lines to Portugal, Sicily, Malta, Alexandria, Constantinople and the Black Sea.

London, April 29.—J. Pierpont Morgan paid $1,250,000 on Saturday as a deposit to secure the purchase by himself of the controlling interest in the Leyland line of steamers. Ordinary shareholders will be paid about $72.50 for each ten pound share. The News in commenting on Morgan's purchase, says: "It is a pity that this line, which exceeds in tonnage all but one English line, should pass into hands which, from their control of American railways, are in a position to outbid other British Atlantic lines. We have reason to understand that Mr. Morgan intends further shipping purchases, and that his combinations will have serious consequences for British trade and shipping."

London, April 29.—It is reported in connection with the purchase of the Leyland Line by J. Pierpont Morgan, that when Andrew Carnegie declared that the highness of ocean freight rates was now the chief obstacle in the way of building up the American export trade, he added: "I will not rest satisfied until I have done something to bring them down to a proper figure." J. Pierpont Morgan, who has arrived in London said, "I see Carnegie. He and I have trials in common." The foregoing seems to suggest that Carnegie and Morgan are in a deal to control trans-Atlantic shipping.

New York April 29.—It is said in Wall street that Mr. Morgan wants to carry over his steel products as cheaply as possible. The steamship companies might raise the freight rates on him so that the product would be practically shut out. This can not happen if he has a line of his own. He can start an ocean freight war that would soon bring the others to terms.

The Markets. Georgetown, April 29.—Wheat 70a7s.

FOREIGN NEWS. Nine Chinamen will be executed to a Congoh or Cold at once. Congohers will be hanged for highway robbery and violence.

The indications at Pekin are that the American view in regard to reducing the amount of the Chinese indemnity will prevail.

Boers recently derailed two trains and captured 25 men near Kroonstad, in the Orange State, but released them after taking their horses and accoutrements.

General Kettler, in his report of the recent fight with the Chinese, says his force inflicted terrible loss upon the Chinese. The Germans had 1 officer, 2 sergeants, 3 corporals, 25 privates and 3 soldiers killed and 23 soldiers wounded. Field Marshal von Waldersee reports several engagements between the Germans and the Chinese at the Great Wall and the complete rout of the latter.
