WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section partly cloudy tonight and Saturday; light variable winds.

PROGRESSIVE ASSOCIATION.—A number of the representative members of the Citizens' Progressive Association held a meeting last night at the Business Men's League rooms for the purpose of making arrangements for the general election next week.

It was stated that a determined effort to defeat Mr. C. C. Leadbeater, supposed to be the weakest candidate for Council in the Fourth ward, was being made by Mr. Frank Evans, an independent, and that no opposition to the association's candidates appearing in the other wards all the power of the organization should be concentrated in the Fourth in endeavor to elect its ticket.

Several members made suggestions, among them Mr. M. B. Harlow, who thought some exhibition should be made toward securing the votes of the colored element.

Mr. Frank Spinks called attention to the fact that there was opposition in all the wards to other candidates, notably to Mayor Simpson, and he believed that the influence of the association should go out in all directions in the interest of the Democratic nominees.

Mr. F. S. Harper said it was distinctly understood at the outset of the crusade that the organization would only interest itself in the Council ticket. The members had nothing to do with candidates for other offices.

Mr. Spinks did not like the idea of appealing to the colored element; he was averse to hearing members of the race say they had to help the association out. In short, he did not like a negro anyhow.

Mr. J. R. Caton spoke of the necessity of earnest work on the part of the association in the Fourth ward. Mr. Spinks reiterated his convictions that endeavors should be made all over the city.

Mr. Harlow supposed that with the assistance of the democratic committee the association would have no trouble in electing its candidates. He suggested the appointment of a committee to raise funds to be used on election day in procuring workers, etc.

Mr. C. C. Leadbeater said it would be necessary to procure a revised list of the voters of the Fourth ward. Mr. Spinks was of the opinion, and he stated that at elections in the Fourth ward negroes from Pohick, Occoquan and other places voted on the names of darkeys dead a hundred years. It was difficult to detect the fraud, as all coons look alike.

It was determined to procure lists of both black and white voters, and a committee—consisting of F. J. Spinks, C. C. Leadbeater and F. S. Harper—was appointed to look after the interests of the association's candidates in the Fourth ward, and Messrs. J. R. Caton, A. D. Brockett and M. B. Harlow were designated as a collecting committee. It was determined to solicit aid from members of the association only.

Mr. Harlow said two or three active negroes were wanted for work in the Fourth ward on election day. He promised to secure the services of such. He also said that he earnestly hoped when the new council assembles no wrongs will be heard of factions or wranglings, but that each member will go in with a will to endeavoring to enhance the city's interests.

Mr. G. D. Hopkins said he thought it was due to the Alexandria Water Company to state that Mr. E. Wheat, the president, had cheerfully agreed to extend the water mains to the new glass factory—a distance of 2,175 feet at a cost of $1,500—free of cost to the plant. The Southern Railway Company, he said, would also spend $741.50 in putting in a side track without cost to the proprietors of the glass works. These facts, he said, should be known, as the corporations referred to had acted very liberally toward the new plant.

Mr. Caton urged that the association should become one of the perpetual institutions of the city, and upon his suggestion it was agreed that the next meeting be held on the first Monday night in June.

Upon motion of Mr. Harper it was agreed that in lieu of the collecting committee a fee of $1 a year be charged members—there being about 80 now on the rolls—and that the first year's dues be collected at once.

BROKE JAIL.—Two prisoners, E. I. Miller and Frank Anderson, who had been sent on to the grand jury, the former for forgery and the latter for breaking into a residence and stealing an overcoat, broke out of jail last night and succeeded in shaking the dust of Alexandria off their feet. The two men were confined in an upper room on the south side of the jail overlooking the yard. It was known to the prisoners that two of the perpendicular bars of the empty room adjoining on the east were broken and had been for a long time; so by long and tedious work they succeeded in digging a hole in the nine-inch wall through which they squeezed their bodies. Upon reaching this room it was comparatively an easy matter to bend the horizontal bar and form an aperture through which they could pass. They had previously cut up blankets and formed ropes, by means of which they easily descended to the yard. An iron bar taken from a bedstead, had been bent into the shape of a letter S. This formed a hook, and it having been attached to the improvised ropes was thrown over the wall and made fast to the coping. The ascent was comparatively easy, as was also the descent. Miller will be remembered as a character for many years. He has served several terms in prison, and was some time ago engaged in evangelistic work with a crusader named Randall who attacked citadels of sin in Alexandria. Anderson is a tramp and a stranger in these parts. Some time ago the jail inspectors called the attention of the City Council to the need of immediate repairs to the room from which the men escaped. The report was referred to the committee who met City Engineer Holcombe at the jail. The latter pointed out the defect, but for some reason action in the matter was deferred.

RED MEN.—At the afternoon session of the Red Men's Council, in this city yesterday, the newly elected officers were duly installed and Great Sachem S. S. See announced the following appointments: Great Sannap, A. W. Lescoe; Great Mishieewa, F. Whittle; Great Guard of Wigwam, Samuel C. Eviler, Jr.; Great Guard of Forrest, E. P. G. Yocum. The unwritten and secret work of the order was fully and thoroughly explained and all unfinished business disposed of. On motion a rising and unanimous vote of thanks was extended to the Mayor and citizens of Alexandria for their universally kind and hospitable treatment during the sojourn in this city of the Great Council. A vote of thanks was also given to the committee of arrangements of Occoquia tribe No. 1 for their untiring efforts for the pleasure, cure, and comfort of the members of the council. Council adjourned at 6:30 o'clock and its members have returned to their respective homes. As heretofore stated the next annual meeting will be at Roanoke, in May 1902.

CHECK RECEIVED.—City Treasurer Robinson today received from the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Co., a check for four hundred dollars in payment to May 1st of the quarterly amount required for the use of Royal street, the annual amount being $1,600, which is in addition to the tax on the track and overhead construction. Mayor Simpson, who brought this matter before the City Council, and Alderman John T. Sweeney, who was chairman of the joint committee to whom the Mayor's message was referred, and his associates who persistently, and at last successfully, piloted the measure through its various ups and downs, each feel, and no doubt do, no small satisfaction in exacting from this railway $1,600 not heretofore paid for a valuable concession.

SUDDEN DEATH.—William Taylor, twenty-eight years of age, died suddenly at his home at Four-Mile Run early last night. He had been at work during the day as usual, and a few minutes before his death was engaged in social intercourse with some of his friends. He had been suffering from pulmonary trouble and was attacked by hemorrhage to which he almost instantly succumbed. The deceased for a number of years lived in Alexandria, and when young and thoughtless consorted with characters who often got into trouble and occasionally he fell into the same net when arrests were made. For some time, however, he had avoided evil associates and had led a quiet and industrious life, making many friends who will regret the loss of his life.

CHIEF PETTEY'S CART.—On Wednesday it was stated in the Gazette that Chief Petty had purchased a new fire cart. Today the chief laughingly said he was like a "man up a tree" for the reason that his wagon was seven inches wider than his stable door and he could not get the wagon in unless he removed the door on one side, and then his last state would be worse than the first. He had experienced no trouble in getting his horse to the wagon, however, but he could not let "Grover Cleveland" stand out all the time, so he had at last been compelled to increase the width of the door twelve inches. The chief wishes it understood that his nag "Grover" is big enough and strong enough to pull a steam fire engine.

MASSAGE.—There was a largely-attended meeting of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons last night. The Master Mason's degree was conferred on two candidates. After the adjournment of the lodge a collation was served. A number of visitors were present, among them Dr. W. M. Smith, District Deputy Grand Master. During the evening speeches were made by Rev. Messrs. Register, Ball, and H. P. Brown and Mayor Downham.

COURT NOTES.—Judge Nicol today granted a charter to the Home Land, Mining and Manufacturing Company, the objects of which are to buy and sell land and to do a mining and manufacturing business. The capital stock is $5,000 and Mr. J. P. Clark of Washington is president. Mr. J. T. Callahan is named as local attorney in this city.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of W. T. Emerson vs. J. B. Fries, a decree was entered confirming sale of property.

In the Corporation Court today E. J. Taylor, of Washington, was appointed administrator of the estate of the late Henry Cleveland.

Mrs. Chancy G. Eay, of Falls Church, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Emma Norris is quite ill at her home on south St. Asaph street.

Mrs. J. K. Swartz and daughter, who have been visiting in Philadelphia and Atlantic City, returned this evening.

FIRE.—The barn of Mr. Frank Payne, at Bailey's Cross Roads, was burned about one o'clock this morning, together with its contents, consisting of four wagons, agricultural implements, butchers' implements, a quantity of machinery, &c. The loss will aggregate $2,700 and there is only a partial insurance. This is the second loss by fire Mr. Payne has sustained within a year.

The alarm of fire about 1:40 o'clock today was caused by the burning of a mattress in an upper room of the residence of Mrs. J. T. Luckett, on Patrick street, between King and Prince. The fire loss was trivial, but some damage was done by water. Engine No. 7, temporarily loaned this evening by the Washington fire department, was in service and attracted much attention.

An oil stove in the kitchen of the house occupied by Mr. Frank Buckley, No. 351 north Columbia street, caught fire shortly before 4 o'clock this evening and the alarm brought out the fire department. But little damage was done.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Cook took place this morning from St. Mary's Church, the services being conducted by Rev. Father O'Leary. The pallbearers were Messrs. E. M. Latham, Louis Shuman, P. F. Gorman, Wm. Desmond, T. McGowan and Jos. S. Beach.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Four lodgers were at the station house last night. The gymnasium at the Alexandria Light Infantry armory will be reopened tonight. More horses and mules, which have done service in Cuba, are being returned to St. Asaph. The schooner Mary Ann, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., sailed today for Rock Point. Complaint is made by some of the butchers of the long intervals between cleaning days in the Market House. Arthur Herbert Chapter, Children of the Confederacy will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at No. 525 King street. Messrs. Cavillier & Spinks contractors for laying the sewer on King street, between Fairfax and Royal, have begun work. The Mayor has ordered the police officers to arrest any one caught trespassing upon the grass plot around the Confederate monument. It is stated that the negro Payne, who is to be hanged in Richmond for the murder of a fellow convict, was sent to the penitentiary from this city several years ago. John Jordan, colored, arrested for assault and beating Julia Coleman, also colored, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear in the Police Court this morning. The seven empty hacks which wound through a number of streets early last night and occasioned so much curiosity were the accompaniments of a colored ball at Odd Fellows' Hall. Preparations for the minstrel show which will be given on May 30 for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten are progressing rapidly. Over thirty Alexandria men are to take part in it. Persons living in the neighborhood of Wolfe and Lee streets are again complaining of the disorderly conduct of boys during the night time. This complaint has been made at intervals during the past fifty years. Melvin, the little son of Mr. J. P. McCuen, who was so seriously injured in a bicycle collision on Columbus street Wednesday evening, had improved a little today. His physicians, however, do not regard his injuries as necessarily fatal. While workmen were engaged in transferring wires from the old to new poles at the corner of King and Royal streets this morning, one fully charged with the live wire and life taking fluid broke and fell across other wires, cutting them loose; broke the glass of the gas lamp on the corner, shocked a negro who happened to touch it, and made many slow-moving people step lively to get out of its way. A skilled workman soon bottled its energy. Mr. Jacob Brill will give another crab feast tonight.
