

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 29, 1901.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Rise tomorrow at 4:57 a. m. and sets at 7:18 p. m. High water at 4:08 a. m. and 6:38 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight, Tuesday partly cloudy, showers and cooler in afternoon; light southerly winds.

BOILER EXPLOSION.—About half-past four o'clock yesterday morning boiler No. 1 in the boiler room of the Robert Porter Brewing Company exploded.

SUFFERING FROM LAUDANUM.—Thomas Fair, a four-year-old colored child, was brought to the office of Dr. W. R. Parvis yesterday evening suffering from an overdose of laudanum.

DROWNED.—William King, colored, about eighteen years old, was drowned while bathing from a barge off the Virginia shore near the Aqueduct Bridge late Saturday afternoon.

AFTER HIS SHOES.—The announcement in Saturday's Gazette that Mr. Frank Hume was not over-anxious to return to the Legislature has had its effect, and Mr. Wm. H. May, a former delegate from this city, announced himself a candidate for the position.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Henry Blondheim, whose death occurred last Thursday night, took place at 4 o'clock yesterday from the residence of his parents on Cameron street, near Pitt, and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today: John Bryan, suspicion of stealing a dress from Lizzie Grady; dismissed.

CHARGED WITH SHOOTING A BOY.—Fannie Butler, colored, who lives north of the old canal basin, yesterday afternoon notified police headquarters that "Barley" Banks, a negro man, had that morning, without provocation, shot her ten-year-old son Courtney Butler, with a revolver. The bullet lodged in the fleshy part of the boy's back and has not yet been located.

All apprehension as to a scarcity of ice has been permanently dissipated. In addition to the schooner which arrived here last week from the Kennebec, another with 1,400 tons is expected hourly. The tugboat William Yerkes passed up the river to Washington this morning with a three masted schooner loaded with ice in tow, and two four-masted schooners also loaded with ice, passed up the river yesterday. There is an ample stock here now to meet all requirements of the city and shipping demands.

Dr. Bull's Celebrated Pills cure many ills. One pill a dose. Box, 50 pills, 10 cts. Cure Constipation, Liver Troubles, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Impure Blood and Poor Blood, Female Complaints, Stomach and Bowel Disorders. Dr. Bull's Pills never gripe. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

"I wish to truthfully state to you and the readers of these columns that your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is without question, the best and only cure for dyspepsia that I have ever come in contact with and I have used every other preparation. John Bean, West Middlesex, Pa. No preparation equals Kodol Dyspepsia Cure as it contains all the natural ingredients. It will digest all kinds of food and can't help but do you good. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Basil B. Gordon, who is well known in this city, is dangerously ill at his camp, "Silver Strand," in the Adirondacks, New York. Mr. Gordon has been in ill health for some time, and especially so since the recent death of his mother.

Miss Bernadette Curtin has returned to her home in this city after a delightful trip to the Catekill Mountains.

Mr. Matthew J. Shuman has gone to Atlantic City to spend his vacation.

Mr. William Pinkney Holmes, of Baltimore visited relatives in this city yesterday.

Mr. Edmund Hunter, son of Major R. W. Hunter, has returned from Richmond much improved since the recent operation performed upon his leg which was injured some years since in a football game.

A letter from the Sweet Chalybeate Springs says: "Among the recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marbury and family, Alexandria, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Alexandria, Misses Daisy, India and Loez Marshall, Alexandria, Mrs. Margaret Marshall, Mr. C. B. Marshall, Alexandria."

A male quartette, consisting of Messrs. Birch, Rensch, Hicks and Moore, rendered "Jesus Lover of My Soul" at the evening service at Christ Church yesterday. The choir of this church will take a recess until September.

Mr. O. F. Baggett and family left Saturday for Colonial Beach.

Mr. Edward Kidwell and family are visiting in Richmond.

Mr. C. M. New on and Miss Sallie Jones are to be married at the bride-elect's home tomorrow evening.

Mrs. George H. Harlow has gone to Puxillville for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Benoni Wheat, both of whom have been quite sick for the past few weeks, are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dainierfeld have gone to the coast of Maine to spend the summer.

Miss Mabel Allyn has returned to Norfolk from a visit to friends in this city.

Mr. Allan Warfield is registered at the Berkeley at Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. M. Adams, of Wilmington, Del., continues very sick at the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Lannon, on Cameron street.

Among the strangers who attended Christ Church yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Colin Studds, of Washington. Mr. Studds is the courteous and efficient division passenger agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Mr. K. C. L. Moncre, of Fairfax, was in the city today.

Mr. R. F. Byrd, of Winchester, is in the city on legal business.

Mrs. Cole, formerly of this city and mother of Dr. Lee Cole and J. T. Cole, of Washington, is seriously ill at Takoma.

DEATH OF A PRINTER.—Mr. S. P. Jackson, who became critically ill last Friday morning, died at his home, on Duke street, between Fairfax and Lee, between one and two o'clock this afternoon. The deceased had had periodical spells of indisposition recently, and last Wednesday night was taken with a chill. The following day he attempted to work, but in the afternoon was compelled to return to his home. The next day he had uramic convulsions and became unconscious. He rallied occasionally only to lapse into a stupor, and his condition fluctuated until this afternoon when death closed the scene.

The deceased was the second son of the late Robert Jackson, and was born in this city 48 years ago last Friday. Losing his mother when he was at a tender age and his father a few years later, he was made to realize the responsibilities of life during his boyhood days. Thirty-one years ago he became an apprentice in the composing room of the Gazette office and with few interruptions had continued therein up to the time he was prostrated. Industrious and reliable, he enjoyed the confidence of his employers as well as those with whom he worked.

The deceased leaves a widow and three children—two sons and a daughter. He was a member of the National Union of this city. The employees of the composing room of a newspaper after years of every-day intercourse became as it were a family. Most of their time is spent together and there is a fraternal feeling which only printers can understand. When death enters and makes a gap in it is akin to the empty chair or the vacant seat at the family board. This is the third member of the little company employed in publishing the Gazette who has been called from earth's scenes during the past thirteen months.

DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION.—Hon. Claude A. Swanson, to whom a list of delegates from this city to the Norfolk convention was submitted last week, has returned the same after revision. The following is his letter confirming the names given below: Chatham, Va., July 28, 1901.

In pursuance of the result of the primary held in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, on the 6th day of May, 1901, and the authority given me by the city democratic committee of said city to name the twenty delegates to which Alexandria city is entitled in the democratic convention to be held in Norfolk, Virginia, on the 14th day of August, 1901, I hereby name the following as delegates to said convention: Hubert Snowden, Edwin M. Birrell, W. E. Smoot, C. C. Carlin, Judge J. K. M. Reed, Geo. Drewry, John M. Reed, Theo. Ballenger, Chas. M. Cuvillier, Richard H. Cox, Lewis C. Barley, Charles B. Marshall, S. G. Brent, Jas. R. Caton, J. M. Hill, Geo. H. Hayden, Chas. Bendheim, Jno A. Marshall, C. Randolph Davis and Geo. W. Pettit.

In testimony whereof witness my hand this 26th day of July, 1901. (Signed) CLAUDE A. SWANSON.

MAKING THEM MOVE ON.—The hint given in Saturday's Gazette of the unseemly picture of about a score of drunken and semi-drunken men standing and lying on the corners at the intersection of Cameron and Royal streets has been acted upon by the police, and the standing order, "move on," is being vigorously enforced. Many ladies were often compelled to go squares out of their way in order to avoid the groups which infested these corners. The loiterers, for the most part, are of an imprudent class who start out in the morning with but one engine before them—the easiest way to become fuddled for the day.

PLAYING DEAF AND DUMB.—A one-legged individual, giving his name as William Sims, was arrested yesterday for vagrancy, and when taken before the Mayor this morning pretended he was deaf and dumb. Several persons testified that he had suddenly lost his speech, as he was loquacious enough on several occasions recently. It was ordered that he be retained in custody until his speech returned. Sims added himself to Alexandria's pauper list several days ago.

A NEIGHBORHOOD QUARREL.—Some excitement was caused on upper Prince street Saturday night by two females who became exasperated against each other on account of a row precipitated by the children of both. One dared the other to come within so many feet of her and her antagonist started to roll up her sleeves for the encounter. There was no fight, however, and one of the parties said the affair would be ventilated in the Police Court.

CHARTER.—Judge Norton today granted a charter to the Doremus Manufacturing Company, the objects of which are to buy and use domestic and foreign patents and devices and to buy and sell machinery, &c. The capital stock is to be $50,000, and Mr. G. L. Booth is named as the local attorney. Mr. G. G. Green, of Binghamton, N. Y., is president.

THE WEATHER was hot again yesterday. In the evening the temperature was very oppressive and continued so until some time after dark, when a refreshing southern breeze set in. There were comparatively slim congregations at all the churches. The weather today has again been uncomfortably warm, the mercury at noon registering 94°.

A L. I.—The Seventeenth Virginia regiment, which has been in camp at Ocean View for the past ten days, will break camp this evening and the companies forming the regiment will return to their respective homes. The Alexandria Light Infantry will arrive here on the Norfolk steamer tomorrow morning.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. TAKE LAXATIVE BROMO-QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

It is easier to keep well than get cured. DeWitt's Little Early Risers taken now and then, will always keep your bowels in perfect order. They never gripe but promote a gentle action. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Mrs. J. T. Harrison, living near Bailey's cross roads, was stricken with paralysis on Friday.

The infant son of Mr. Edgar L. Crump died yesterday at his parents' residence on upper Prince street.

Private Keresy, of the Alexandria Light Infantry, was overcome by heat at Ocean View a day or two ago. He soon recovered.

Mr. Allen, the night engineer at the Consumer's Brewery in the county, had one of his hands crushed in the cog-wheels last night.

After today the bricklayers of Washington, will receive $4.50 per day. There was an agreement entered into last week between the employers and men that this should be the standard rate in future.

Irene Anderson, of Washington, has been missing since last Wednesday. Her mother has notified the police of this city to keep a lookout for her. When last seen the girl was at Burke's station, on the Southern Railway.

A small boy named Charles Lloyd was arrested this morning for attempting to rob money drawers in the market house. He was sent to the work house by the Mayor. The boy has given much trouble of late to butchers and others in market.

A new council of the Royal Arcanum recently organized in Warrenton by Deputy Grand Regent Hedley Boyd, of Portsmouth, was instituted Friday night with thirty-one charter members. Grand Regent C. C. Berry, of Staunton, who is ill, was represented by Vice Grand Regent R. W. Arnold, of Alexandria, who was assisted in the work by Grand Secretary James B. Blake, of Petersburg.

James Looney, an employee of the Washington Traction Company, was electrocuted yesterday afternoon in the plot pit at Thirty-sixth street and Prospect avenue, Georgetown. Five hundred and fifty volts of electricity passed through the man's body, but in spite of the powerful voltage, Looney was able to call for assistance, and his death did not occur until five minutes after his arrival at the Georgetown University Hospital. He was thirty-two years old and leaves a widow and two small children.

Judge Nicol, of the Circuit Court of the county, has rendered a decree ordering the sale, on Thursday next, of the old one-room frame school house and two lots of land in the southern part of Jefferson district, just south of Del Ray, in the county, and directing that the proceeds of sale thereof be applied to the completion of the large new brick graded school house that has been lately erected near the old one, but in a more central part of the school district.

A meeting of the school board of Washington district of Alexandria county will be held at Cherry Lane Thursday night to formally award the contract and accept the bond for building the new Saegmuller public school house near the Chain Bridge, in this county. It is the desire of the school board and the people of the neighborhood to have the school completed and opened by November 1 next.

County Surveyor L. R. Haney has tendered as his official bondsman, George N. Saegmuller, who has been accepted by the court in place of L. D. N. Rust, who resigned from Surveyor Haney's bond at the last term of court.

The trustees of the Ballston school have offered a reward of $15 for the apprehension and conviction of the miscreant who threw a brick through one of the large windows of the structure on Friday night last.

There was a cake walk on some white women and men at the extreme northern end of Fairfax street Saturday night which attracted a number of spectators and caused some disorder.

Marrus Baker, colored, of this city, died in Washington yesterday. His remains will be brought to this city for interment. He was 65 years of age.
