THE CONVENTION.

A memorial from the people of Falls Church, Fairfax county, deploring the attempted assassination of President McKinley, and praying that anarchy be made a crime punishable with death...

The petition was referred, and it is believed the question will be brought before the convention either in connection with its action on the Chicago charge.

There was no effort when the constitutional convention met yesterday to reconsider the action of the convention abolishing the committee of the whole.

It was agreed that, pending the disposition of the motion to reconsider, the entire matter was in abeyance and the committee of the whole would remain in operation.

One of the most interesting facts that have developed during the committee meetings is that every committee having before it the election of officers by the people has decided against such a step.

The committee on judiciary is opposed to the election of judges by the people; the committee on executive departments has voted against electing the treasurer, auditor and secretary of the commonwealth by the people...

It has been thought that considerable debate would be brought out on this subject and the elimination of the committee of the whole might operate to practically limit the debate to a statement by the chairman of the committee.

Many petitions have been presented by different members, by request, on the subject of the liquor traffic and against appropriations of State funds to sectarian institutions.

THE PRESIDENT'S CONDITION.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 11.—Although a second minor operation was performed on President McKinley last night, there seems to be no reason for apprehension as to his condition this morning.

The physicians say that the irritation was undoubtedly caused by a fragment of the President's coat which was carried beneath the skin by the bullet last Friday.

The general condition of the President continues to improve and the surgeons say the incident cannot give rise to other complications. The physicians say that the irritation was undoubtedly caused by a fragment of the President's coat...
