MEDICINAL

A Quart Baby.

Now again there is an item in the newspapers concerning the birth of a puny baby so small that a quart cup holds it comfortably. If the article told all the facts it would probably tell also of a mother who in weakness and misery had looked forward to the baby's advent with shrinking and fear.

To have fine, healthy children the mother must be healthy, and it is the common testimony of mothers that the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only promotes the mother's health but also gives her strength to give her child.

"Favorite Prescription" accomplishes these results by tranquilizing the nerves, promoting a healthy appetite, and giving refreshing sleep. It increases physical vigor and gives great muscular elasticity, so that the baby's advent is practically painless. It is the best of tonics for nursing mothers.

"I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. W. G. Stephens, of Mills, Northumberland County, Va. "Before my third little boy was born I took six bottles. He is the finest child and has been from birth, and I suffered very much less than I ever did before. I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use the Favorite Prescription."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

WANTED TO KILL ROOSEVELT.

"I was sent here by God to be sworn in as President of the United States and to kill President Roosevelt. I dined with God this afternoon and He is watching my acts." This is what an insane youth of 18 years who is looked up in the Mount Vernon police station, N. Y., declares at intervals. Then he weeps in a hysterical manner and exclaims: "I don't know my name. God is my father." The young man, who is believed to have escaped from some asylum, fought four policemen in the station house and escaped from a cell after they had tried to lock him in. He had visited William Van Arsdale's livery stable and tried to hire a team to drive to Great Barrington, Mass., where he said he intended to meet government officials. When refused he went across the street, jumped in a rig which stood in front of the office of William Matern and started to drive away. Mr. Matern caught hold of the horse's bridle and asked the young fellow where he was going. His answer was: "I have an appointment with God and must drive to meet Him." Mr. Matern took the youth to police headquarters. Sergeant Joseph Alar asked his name, and he said he didn't know. He attempted to walk out, when the sergeant grabbed him and a terrible struggle took place. Four men attempted to take him to a cell, when the lunatic tossed them away, raving as he did so: "Let me go. I am going to kill the President of the United States!" For 15 minutes the police struggled with him. Finally, when they got him in a cell, he made a spring over the capot's heads and escaped to the main hall, when he was recaptured and put in a straitjacket.

SUNKEN GARDEN FOR GOULD.—The beauties of Georgian Court, the home of George J. Gould at Lakeside, N. J., continue to unfold. The latest in the million-dollar's program of improving nature is an Oriental sunken garden, upon which scores of laborers and teams are now engaged. The garden will improve a patch of marsh land near the house. It includes a waterway nearly 200 feet long, with a water depth of four feet. The canal will be 35 feet wide and have a spherical termination. On each side, down near the water level, will be an esplanade 20 feet wide, and at the north end a broad deck will have a fountain as a center ornament. All this is fully 20 feet below the turf grade on each side. From the esplanade two stairways will lead to the higher esplanade, beneath which will be a pumping station, and from this second level other short stairways will lead to the grounds. The water inclosures will be of cement rubble and brick, with copings of marble. The stairway, fountain and ornamentation will be of marble. Two hundred feet away and at the convergence of three fan-like drive-ways which lead through the Italian gardens to the casino a circular basin 60 feet in diameter is awaiting the finishing touches which will convert it into an electric fountain. It will be connected by a conduit with the pumping station at the sunken garden.

A ROYAL SUMMONS.—Albert Fairfax, of New York, who holds a clerkship in the banking house of Brown Brothers, will enjoy the unique distinction of being the only American citizen to receive a royal summons to attend King Edward's coronation next summer.

As twelfth Lord Fairfax and a peer of the Scottish realm, he is called upon by the proclamation which the Duke of Norfolk has just published in the London Gazette by the order and in the name of Edward VII. to send his address between now and January to the Earl Marshal of the United Kingdom, in order that the King's summons may be forwarded to him, not merely inviting, but commanding him to attend the ceremony of the coronation in Westminster Abbey. Should young Fairfax see fit to marry between now and next spring, his bride will be entitled by British law to receive a royal summons to attend the coronation as a peeress of Scotland, and will, like her husband, be forced to provide herself without delay with a silver gilt coronet and an ermine-lined mantle, or robe, in accordance with the out and pattern described in the royal proclamation above mentioned, as promulgated by the Duke of Norfolk. Lord Fairfax has a brother of Mrs. Tenstell Smith of Baltimore.

GRAND CAMP, C. V.—The Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia will assemble in Petersburg next Wednesday and will be in session for three days. The address of welcome will be made by Mayor Pleasant, and the response will be made by Grand Commander E. L. Murray. The address of welcome on behalf of A. P. Hill Camp will be made by ex-Gov. Cameron, and will be responded to by Col. Thomas D. Hanson. On Wednesday night the Grand Camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans will assemble when the address of welcome will be made by State Senator William B. Mc-

Wine and the response by Commander E. P. Cox, Army of Northern Virginia. The sponsors and made of honor will be presented by Col. James Mann. The reception response will be made by Rev. H. W. Battle. On Wednesday there is to be a grand tournament at West End Park, to be followed at night by a coronation ball. On Thursday afternoon there is to be a grand parade of the different camps of Confederate Veterans and also the camps of Sons of Confederate Veterans, together with several military companies and a large number of horsemen from the neighboring counties.

DEATH CAUSED BY A FLY.—The doctor of Vienna was greatly interested in the case of a man twenty-three years old who had just died, after a six months' painful illness which had puzzled the physicians, including German specialists. Shortly before his death his ailment was diagnosed as a blood-poisoning caused by the hatching of eggs of a blood-poisoning fly which the patient had swallowed, the maggots causing perforation of the intestines. The sufferer was then too weak to undergo an operation. An autopsy confirmed the diagnosis. Part of the large intestine was riddled by maggots, they having either eaten through the walls or caused ulceration. Prof. Notnagel will shortly read before the Society of Physicians a paper on the case, which is unprecedented there, although one or two similar cases are recorded in medical literature.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. B. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In a course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I considered that a very good recommendation for the remedy."

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDuc, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One bottle cured me. A friend who had suffered similarly put on the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. He is gaining flesh and will soon be able to work. Before he used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure indigestion had made him a total wreck. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons."
