LOCAL MATTERS

Rain rises tomorrow at 6:16 a. m. and sets 6:16 p. m. High water at 3:25 a. m. and 3:53 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair, continued cold tonight and Wednesday; fresh west to north west winds.

DEATH OF MR. SHUMAN.—Mr. Ernest Shuman, the oldest resident of the city of Alexandria and probably in this part of the country, died at the residence of his son, in Shumanville, Caroline county, last night. The deceased was born in Frankfort-on-the-Main on the 24th of May, 1807, and was nearing his 95th birthday when death overtook him. Mr. Shuman came to Alexandria in 1832. He was a butcher by trade and began business in an old frame house (relic of colonial days) which stood until a few years ago at the northeast corner of Duke and Fairfax streets. Later he engaged in other occupations and for a long time was employed in the Irwin Brewery at the foot of Wolfe street previous to about 1853, when it was destroyed by fire. He left this city subsequently and took up his residence in Richmond, where he remained for a number of years, but finally returned to Alexandria, where he had since remained. For a long time the deceased, by reason of his ripe old age, was regarded with interest by all classes of our people. Pleasant in deportment and compassionate, many were fond of conversing with him concerning the old and new world. He for many years was the only person in Alexandria who had seen Napoleon Bonaparte, and his recital of that fact alone made him an interesting study. He never tired of telling all who asked him of having when a small child seen Napoleon as that individual passed through one of the German villages, probably previous to his banishment to Elba. He was married twice and leaves five children—two daughters and three sons—among them Mr. Louis Shuman, the well-known confectioner of this city.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. SMITH.—The funeral services for the late Mrs. Sarah G. Smith, widow of Francis L. Smith, took place from the home where she had lived so long on Wolfe street, this afternoon, and were attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances who gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to one whose memory will long be revered. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, and Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. The ceremonies were fit and impressive throughout. As their conclusion the remains were conveyed to the family lot in the Presbyterian cemetery where the interment was private. The pallbearers were Messrs. William H. Lambert, Charles R. Hoof, Boyd M. Smith, Judge Norton, Dr. Rast, William F. Brookes, Herbert Bryant and Hubert Snowden. The floral offerings were profuse, beautiful and suggestive in design.

A CRUEL KIDNAP.—A rumor was circulated this morning to the effect that a well known Alexandrian had been struck by a street car in Washington and killed, also that his body would be brought here at three o'clock this afternoon. Many relatives and friends of the gentleman, after enduring hours of agony of mind, discovered that no such accident had occurred and that the report had been thoughtlessly put in circulation by a friend who strangely imagined he was perpetrating a joke. Reference has recently been made in this column to such a rapid procedure on the part of people otherwise malfeasant common discretion. It may be fun to them, but it's of the same nature the jackass in the fable experienced in dancing among the ducks.

THE KRETOL WORKS.—In order to facilitate the reopening and operation of the plant of the Kretol Company, in this city, Capt. R. F. Knox, the receiver, has decided to issue preliminary receiver's certificates. These certificates will be probably redeemed later when an issue of the ordinary certificates is made. Mrs. Annie Campbell, whose husband discovered the Kretol remedies, and who, after his death, organized the original Kretol company, has expressed her willingness to return to her former position as chemist at the plant and make up the various products. Mrs. Campbell was deposed from her position some time ago.

A CHANGE IN THE WEATHER.—As had been foretold by the Weather Bureau, the mercury in the thermometer took a decided drop last night and the north west wind has roared furiously ever since. Persons who had discarded overcoats were glad to slip into them again this morning and hot stoves were surrounded and enjoyed once more. The change is the natural result of the blizzard weather which has prevailed in the northern and northwestern sections of the country during the past day or two.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.—Officers Knight and Bettis last night arrested two young colored men on suspicion of robbing a clothes line, although so far no one has reported the loss to the station house. The darkeys had in their possession garments which were wet and apparently just taken from a line when the officers accosted them. They told conflicting stories and the Mayor this morning concluded to hold them until the officers could examine further into the matter.

"THE MILKMAIDS' CONVENTION," which is to be presented at the Opera House Thursday April 3, for the benefit of the Alexandria Kindergarten, promises to be a big treat to all who attend. It is an unusually amusing entertainment, and the cast includes Miss Myra Lee Cavalier, who is so well known and popular in town. Owing to the demand for tickets they have already been placed on sale.

BODIES IDENTIFIED.—It is now believed that the body of an elderly man recently found near Bryan's Point was that of William A. Fisher, of Charles county, Md. That of the younger man also found near that place is thought to be that of George W. Cochrane, of Washington, who was formerly a clerk at the Mount Vernon Hotel. He had previous to his disappearance been a victim of melancholy.

There will be a social and tableaux tonight for the benefit of the F. Church at the residence of Mr. W. H. Lyles, corner of Prince and Patrick streets.

PERSONAL.—At the Century Cottillon to be given at Dalmonico's, in New York, on April 2, Dr. George Bolling Lee, son of Gen. W. H. F. Lee, of Fairfax, will be one of the leaders of the dance.

Rev. J. A. Jeffers has returned from Waterford where he went to attend the Virginia Conference. He was returned to the charge of the Trinity M. E. Church in this city.

Mr. Hezekiah Robey has removed from this city to Fredericksburg. Col. Arthur Herbert and family have returned from a delightful visit to Florida.

Mr. R. M. Lawson is in this city on a short visit to his numerous friends. Mrs. Maria Dyer is ill at her home on Royal street, near Prince. Miss Genevieve Wright is visiting in Macon, Ga.

WORK ON THE POTOMAC.—The work of deepening the channel over the Kettle Bottom shoals near the mouth of the Potomac will, it is said, be vigorously pushed during the summer. The large dredge which worked on the Maryland Point shoals last season will return in a short time to complete the work, and from there will go to the Kettle Bottoms. As a preliminary to the improvement, the coast survey steamer Endeavor has been ordered to make the necessary soundings over the Kettle Bottom shoals, and who will spend several months in the Potomac on that work. In the soundings experiments will be made with a new apparatus, the invention of Mr. C. A. Thompson, who will be aboard the Endeavor to assist in the work. The steamer was expected to sail from Baltimore for the Potomac yesterday.

ARRESTED FOR VAGRANCY.—Officer Beach last night arrested Dollie Jenkins and Martha Johnson, two young colored women, charged with vagrancy and disorderly conduct in the neighborhood of the Fayette street depot. The two women had acted in a disorderly manner toward two young white men who happened to be passing at the time, and they called the attention of the officer to their conduct. The Mayor this morning fined them $5 each and in default of payment they will be sent to the work house.

MEMORIAL BRIDGE.—The citizens of Washington who are in charge of the arrangements for the annual encampment of the G. A. R. in that city this fall, are now devoting great energy toward securing for the encampment the laying of the cornerstone of the proposed Memorial Bridge. A special committee has been appointed to urge the necessary legislation from Congress. A petition has been received from the National Soldiers' Home in Ohio, and many others are expected to follow.

DEATH OF MRS. PULMAN.—Mrs. Frances Pulman, widow of Samuel Pulman, died at her home, northwest corner of Prince and Alfred streets, this morning. She was born in Ireland Oct. 31, 1824, and came to this country in 1849. She was married in 1850 and later with her husband moved to Fairfax county, near this city, where Mr. Pulman engaged in the dairy and trucking business. She leaves two children—Mrs. John Miller and Mr. Peter R. Pulman—and seven grandchildren.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.—A slight fire occurred at an early hour this morning at the residence of Mrs. Lynch, 1021 Princess street. Mr. Raymond Smith, driver of the Hydraulic wagon, mounted a horse and galloped to the scene. He proceeded to a bed room, where the fire had started, and extinguished it without sounding an alarm.

A number of Shriners from this city visited Almas Temple in Washington last night and enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Lewis Williams has sold to J. B. Wiggin a house and lot on Fayette street between Wolfe and Madison for $130.

One of the white members of the chain gang broke the shackles from his legs this morning and made his escape.

The steamer Columbia will leave Baltimore tomorrow morning for this city.

No business of interest was transacted in the Circuit Court today.

FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

Washington, D. C., March 18.

SENATE.

Two veto messages from the President were read in the Senate this morning—those granting an honorable discharge to Charles H. Hawley and setting aside the finding of a court martial in the case of James W. Howell. The messages were referred to the committee on military affairs.

After some minor business had been disposed of unobjectionable pension bills were taken up.

HOUSE.

The House passed a resolution appointing Frank B. Lyon, of Cuba, N. Y., Doorkeeper, to succeed W. J. Glenn, who died last week.

The House, in the committee of the whole, then resumed consideration of the river and harbor bill.

Mr. Hepburn was the second speaker against the measure. He said that the people did not expect him to deviate from his usual course, and as he had been doing it for twenty years, he would have to again protest against the passage of the bill.
