A HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL.—As forecasted in yesterday's Gazette, the employees of the Washington Southern Railway Company in this city have presented Mr. E. C. Joyce, the efficient agent of that company in Alexandria, with a handsome and useful token of appreciation. This reminder is a highly-finished roller-top desk of modern pattern, together with an arm-chair to match. The business office of this company over which Mr. Joyce presides is a model of its kind, and the expeditious manner in which a large business is managed was never better illustrated. The pen has been virtually superseded by modern type-writers and book-writers which do the work quicker, better and manifold more properly. Instead, therefore, of being engaged in laborious copying and writing, the clerks are now engaged in operating the clicking of machines, each performing more work than a man with a pen, in a day. Mr. E. W. Schneider is in charge of the city business office; Mr. M. E. Miller, assisted by Mr. H. A. Moss presides over the machine operative; Mr. J. F. Peverill has charge of the north bound traffic; Mr. W. A. Harding, with several assistants, handles the through southbound business; Mr. James G. Peverill is chief clerk; Mr. W. W. West is in charge of the passenger department; Mr. J. K. Edgington of the telegraph department; Mr. J. M. Cornell of the claim department; Mr. J. B. Arnold has charge of the office at night, and Capt. Harry J. Myers has charge of the transportation department.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE B. COCHRAN.—The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. George B. Cochran were startled this morning to hear of the sudden death of that gentleman at his home at Marshall, Fauquier county, especially when only a few days ago he was in Alexandria and being greeted by his old acquaintances apparently in his normal good health. The deceased was a native of Fauquier county, but previous to the civil war removed to Texas where he engaged in business and was very successful. About twenty years ago he came to this city and with the late J. J. Jamieson conducted the commission business on Cameron street. Recently he removed to his old home in Fauquier, but frequently made visits to his friends here. Mr. Cochran had many friends and acquaintances throughout this Congressional district as well as in other parts of the State, all of whom will regret to hear of his sudden death. He was well-preserved and manifested but few of the indications of ripe old age. His death was doubtless due to some organic trouble which had assumed an acute stage. The deceased leaves a widow and seven children—five sons and two daughters.

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—Frank, the three-year-old son of Officer William Mayhugh, was fatally burned at his home on Henry street, opposite the Southern Railway depot this morning. The mother of the little boy left him in the house but a few minutes while she went to a store a few doors away to make a purchase, and upon her return was horrified to see the child's clothes ablaze. As quick as possible she smothered the flames, when to her anguish she found the little fellow was terribly burned about the body and legs. Dr. Delaney was summoned and did all possible to alleviate the agony of the little boy. He lingered until a quarter past one o'clock this afternoon when his death occurred. During the mother's absence the child found a match and ignited it. His clothes caught from it with the distressing result described above.

PROPERTY SALES.—Capt. R. F. Knox today sold at auction for J. K. M. Norton, commissioner, a frame tenement and lot of ground on the west side of Alfred street near and north of Cameron to J. Gardner Graham for $850. Mrs. Florence Cornwell has sold to C. G. Goodloe a house and lot on the north side of Prince street between Payne and West, for $1,050. Have you seen the new line of ladies' shirt waists, also the new Gibson waists at Schwartz's, 518 King street? They are headquaters on infants' head wear and cashmere coats. You cannot afford to miss seeing their new arrival of spring goods, embroidery, laces, etc.

PERSONAL.—Mr. James F. Peyton is quite ill at his home on north St. Asaph street.

Miss Mary Hobenstine has gone to Birmingham Ala., to visit friends in that city.

Rev. Father W. A. McKelvey, of Winchester, will hear confessions this evening and will preach at St. Mary's Church tomorrow morning. Dr. Thos. Cochran was called to Marshall today by the sudden death of his father.

Miss Lucy Leadbeater has gone to East Orange, N. J., to visit her sister, Mrs. Lloyd.

Mr. Ernest Deahl is convalescing from his recent illness. Mrs. O. B. Hopkins has returned to Richmond from a pleasant visit to Alexandria.

Mr. Charles O. Summers, son of Mr. George L. Summers, a native of this city, has been elected president of the Barneville, Ga., Savings Bank, and Col. W. W. Lambdin, brother of the late John R. Lambdin, of this city, has been chosen cashier of the same institution.

Mr. A. H. Mitchell, manager of the Postal Telegraph office, is confined to his home by sickness.

THE FISHING SEASON.—The fishing season is still a thing of the future, so far as active operations are concerned. The shores along the Potomac will all begin operation in a few days however. Captain Gale, who will this year operate Chapman's fishing shore near Operatic Point, is at that landing, and Captain Faunce has taken down a large crew to operate the seine at the shore. Windmill Point, Plum Tree, the Gums and Passapatany are in operation. Boats carrying fish from the lower river occasionally pass up to Washington, but few stopping here, while most of those received are reshipped to northern markets. Mr. Theo Ballenger had another lot of rockfish this morning which had been caught at Freestone. They, too, were reshipped. Affairs at Fishmont are still at a standstill, the operatives being in a state of expectancy, waiting for clear and warmer weather. The steamer Norfolk on her way up this morning passed several small vessels, supposed to be loaded with fish, bound either to this port or Washington.

POLICE COURT ITEMS.—Amos Robinson and Fred Washington, both colored, were before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct near the Bridge pump last Saturday night. It was alleged that one of the parties drew a pistol during the row, although this was not proven. They were fined $5 each. A white man, charged with being drunk at the station house, was fined $5.00. The police are endeavoring to locate a quantity of lead which was stolen from the Partner Brewery recently. Fifteen lodgers were at the station house last night.

FAILED TO MEET HIM.—Mr. R. Frank Goldsborough, representing a New York syndicate, was in this city last. He came to meet the joint committee on finance and light, and to discuss with them and endeavor to meet any objections that might be made to his proposition to lease the city's gas and electric lighting plant. The committee, however, failed to meet and he returned to New York. It is understood that the committee in question has formulated a report to be presented at the next meeting of the City Council adverse to the leasing of the gas plant.

THE MARKET.—There was no special change to note in the market this morning. There were average numbers of buyers and sellers in attendance. Prices in the main were considered higher. Poultry has advanced. Eggs were selling at 15 1/2 cents a dozen and butter 25 1/2 cents a pound. The supply of fresh fish showed an increase. Some fine shad, herring, black bass, &c., were on the benches, but were held at the same high prices which have prevailed for a week or so past. Fresh meats are higher.

SENT TO AN ASYLUM.—Mrs. Mary Carlos and her daughter, Anna Carlos, who formerly lived in this city, were yesterday adjudged insane, and were committed to St. Elizabeth's Asylum. Some time ago they were discovered in the loft of a stable on Ninth street, in a most impoverished condition. Mrs. Edith Dennis, nee Kelly, formerly of this city whose health has recently become impaired, was also sent to St. Elizabeth's Hospital for treatment.

POLK MILLER'S CONCERT.—The concert to be given next Wednesday night by Mr. Polk Miller will be well patronized. Numbers have expressed a determination to be present, especially those who have previously enjoyed these delightful entertainments. All concur in the opinion that his banjo reproduces the negro of the happy days before the war, and his entertainments give the highest pleasure and satisfaction to all who hear him.

BODY IDENTIFIED.—The Washington police boat Vigilant made a trip down the river to Glymont yesterday morning to investigate the finding of a body in the river near that point last Tuesday. The body was identified as that of William Washington, colored, the cook of the tug Carter, who fell overboard and was drowned off this city while the tug was assisting in the work of breaking the ice in the channels previous to the recent floods.

RIVER NOTES.—The schooner Annie Carlisle, is loading fertilizer at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf for Westmoreland. The schooner Thomas J. Seward, from Norfolk with salt for Chas. King & Son and H. Kirk, has arrived. The schooner Mary, loaded with lumber for Washington, passed up in tow of the tug Camilla this morning.

NEW ROADS.—In the Alexandria County Court yesterday, Judge Love, testimony was heard in the Mackey road case, after which court adjourned. Counsel for both sides will argue the case before Judge Love next Tuesday. In the application for a new road in Arlington district, which is better known as the Garrison road case, Judge Love, as stated yesterday, ordered that the route as proposed be opened. Counsel for both sides filed an application for the appointment of commissioners to assess damages. This will be considered by the court later. The cases are somewhat similar.

INDICATED FOR STOPPING A TRAIN.—T. J. Gately has been indicted by the grand jury in Frederickburg on the charge of throwing a stone at a train of the Washington-Southern Railway near that city, which smashed a Pullman car window and struck a lady in the face. He will be tried next week.

A kite with a lantern attached to the tail is said to have had the effect of keeping a number of colored and some white people within doors during the past few nights. It has been taken for the "flying devil."

The weather this morning was a continuation of that of yesterday—raw and threatening. Later, however, the heavens became clear and milder and more pleasant conditions followed.

CIGARS. Trust Methods are familiar to our people, and there is little need of a sermon to enlighten them. Patrons home industries and thereby strike a telling blow in the interest of the commercial life of your country and community.

We can and do make as good a cigar for the money as can be made anywhere in the country, and we are not disparaging nature and out-gauging taste by combinations of colors to proclaim the fact. Take, for instance, our "Choice," a cigar that is not surpassed anywhere for a nickel. Our Tampanola, Perfecto and Plantation are as good as are produced of their grade. Then there are other brands equally as good at their price. Our Indio Americano, a lower grade, is better than the average five-cent cigar sold elsewhere.

Every brand union made. Every "Plantation" Cigar is stamped with the firm name of "Hamilton & Co.,"
