

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 17, 1902

LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:50 a. m. and sets 6:12 p. m. High water at 7:49 a. m. and 8:59 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight; Thursday partly cloudy; light to fresh east to south winds.

Suspected Man Dismissed. One day last week an upper King street saloon was entered and some articles carried off.

Personal. Mr. William Craven, janitor of the Market Building, is confined to his home by sickness.

River Notes. The three-masted schooner Harland W. Huston, from Newberne, N. C., with lumber for H. K. Field & Co., has arrived.

The King Street Improvement. The work of repaving King street with vitrified brick has been carried about as far as possible until the remainder of the improved rails to be used on that thoroughfare shall have arrived.

Arrested at the Instance of Her Husband. Annie Brummitt was before the Mayor this morning charged by her husband with disorderly conduct.

Attempt to Fire a Stable. An attempt was made on Monday night to set fire to Mr. William Demaine's stable, in the rear of his undertaking establishment.

Purchasing the Best. Since the growing troubles that housekeepers experience with colored cooks and others of their race some of whom are averse to being employed by the month, but prefer to work only when they "are good and ready," the sales of the better grades of bakers' bread are said to have increased.

Registration. A little more interest was taken in the present registration yesterday, and more than the average number of voters applied.

Funeral of the Late Dr. Cox. The funeral of the late Dr. A. F. Cox will take place from Christ Church at 5 o'clock this evening.

Disorderly Negro. Rufus Robinson, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officer Arrington for drunken and disorderly conduct and for assaulting Mr. W. H. Travers, of the street repairing force, with a stone.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Albert Gaines, and Maude Skillman, both of Alexandria; and Loami Fritter and Emma B. Sackelord, both of Stafford county.
