FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 19, 1902.

LOCAL NEWS.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:52 a. m. and sets 6:49 p. m. High water at 9:10 a. m. and 9:30 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section rain this afternoon, tonight and probably Saturday; light to fresh winds, mostly north-easterly.

Bail Fixed at $10,000.

John C. Nelson, charged with having set fire to gambling houses in Jackson City, and at whose first trial the jury disagreed, was yesterday admitted to bail by Judge James E. Nicol, of the Circuit Court in the sum of $10,000, $1,000 for each of the ten indictments found against him by the grand jury. A was stated in the Gazette, Judge Nicol held a special session at the County Court house for their purpose of hearing the petition of Nelson's attorneys for his release on bail. The petition was brought up on appeal before Judge Nicol at Manassas on September 19, but was denied on technical grounds. The decision of the court was handed down yesterday afternoon, shortly after the Gazette went to press, and it was not until 6:30 p. m. that the list of bondsmen was completed and the defendant released. The bondsmen in their several amounts, are as follows: William Dugan, $2,500; Curtis, B. Graham, $2,000; George H. Rucker, $1,000; Walter U. Varney, $1,000; Thomas Hall, $1,000; T. J. Belashman, $1,000, and Dr. Corbett, $1,000. The proceedings were begun at 12 o'clock noon and continued throughout the day with the exception of a recess taken from 5:30 till 3 p. m. Messrs. R. W. Moore and Charles Benheim, attorneys for the defendant, produced evidence tending to show that the structures burned in Jackson City last July, and for which Nelson is about to have a second trial, were not used as dwellings within the meaning of the law. Commonwealth Attorney James E. Clements, assisted by Mr. Edmund Burke, called on a dozen witnesses, but failed to successfully combat this contention. The fact was established by the defense that no beds, cots, or other sleeping paraphernalia had ever been used in the buildings that were burned, though it had been the custom of the frequenters of the gambling houses to sleep on tables, benches, the floor, and even chairs. Judge Nicol held that this did not class the alleged offense of Nelson as an unbuildable one, which had been the contention of the Commonwealth attorney. Judge Nicol, in rendering his decision, referred to the fact that from the testimony it should be assumed that the accused was rich in personal and real property to the extent of $20,000, and that in admitting him to bail he felt that that sum should be required. During the progress of the hearing Nelson was examined by a physician, who reported that the defendant's health was poor and that the confinement he had undergone was beginning to tell on his nerves and general constitution. He stated on the witness stand that Nelson's pulse was at 120, and that he should either be released on bail or removed to a hospital, where treatment could be procured. Nelson's father and several members of his family were in the courtroom during the proceedings, and when the prisoner was released he returned with them to their home in Washington. The case will be tried for the second time next Monday.

Attempted Suicide.

Some excitement was caused in the neighborhood of the intersection of Wilkes and Columbus streets about ten o'clock this morning by the action of a young colored woman named Eliza Brown, who seemed to be bent upon committing suicide. The woman ran from her home on Columbus street, near Wilkes, and lay down on the railroad track in front of a train which was on its way to the depot. Flagman Clark was running ahead of the train at the time and he signalled the engineer to stop and pulled the woman from the track. The would-be suicide is a married woman and has two children. Recently she has been in ill-health and it is believed she is a sufferer from mental troubles. She said it was her purpose to destroy herself, as she did not desire to live any longer, and that she was bent on making other attempts at self destruction.

Police Court Items.

There was a small and uninteresting docket in the Police Court this morning. Henry Stevens, colored, who had been a fugitive from justice since last May, when it was alleged he cut a colored man named Gaines Banks, and was arrested last night by Officer Lyles, was fined $10. Ruby Sides arrested by Officer Knight charged with vagrancy, had her case continued. George Dove, arrested by Officer Griffin on suspicion of breaking into the store of Owen Nugent, had his case continued. William Burbidge, arrested by Officer Griffin on suspicion of larceny, was sent out of the city.

New Iron Bridge.

The Southern Railway Company's tugboat Louisville with a barge in tow containing a new iron bridge for the transfer slip of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, arrived here yesterday from Newport News. The bridge is 100 feet long and will take the place of the present 50 foot wooden structure. The bridge is practically new, having been used but a short time by the Southern Company at Newport News. Captain Tull, formerly of the steamer Norfolk, pilot of the Louisville to this port.

More Improvements.

Mr. Ernest R. Boyer has received a contract for granolithic pavements. They will be laid in front of the Marshall House property—45 feet on King street and 178 on Pitt, with granite curbing and a brick roadway on Pitt street. Numbers of persons on King street are contemplating placing this modern pavement in front of their stores. It is said to cost about one-third more than bricks, but is regarded as more durable and is certainly more sightly.

Accident to an Alexandrian.

Several men employed in the moulding department of the Washington navy yard were injured yesterday by an accident which occurred there. Among the number was Mr. Edgar Campbell, of this city, whose feet were seriously burned. Mr. Campbell was brought to his home in this city in the afternoon.

Personal.

Miss Hattie Whaley, of Alexandria, while visiting Capt. Garrett's family, was taken quite ill on Sunday. Drs. West and Elliot have been attending her and we are pleased to hear this morning that her condition is more hopeful.—[Lansburgh Mirror.] The condition of Mr. William M. Reardon, who is ill of pneumonia, had improved this morning. Rev. James M. Nourse, who has been seriously ill at the residence of his son Clarence on Braddock Heights, was able to drive into town yesterday. This was his first illness in twenty odd years and numerous friends trust that his convalescence will be speedy and sure. Miss Annie Tyler is suffering from typhoid fever at her home on south Fairfax street. She was ill with the same disease in September, 1897. Miss Mary Belle Gentry, formerly of this city, but now of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting Mrs. Geo. W. Keyes. Mrs. John Stever and her little son have returned from Linden. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore have returned home from Rectortown where they had been visiting. Major R. W. Hunter has returned from Winchester and vicinity where he spent the last month. Mr. W. E. Fendall, who spent the summer at the Sweet Chalybeate Springs, has returned. The many friends of City Attorney Boothe will regret to hear that he has typhoid fever, though his case is not an aggravated one. Mr. Albert Brager, formerly of this city, but now one of the most successful merchants of Baltimore, was here today on a short visit to his old home.

Appeal Denied.

The appeal taken by Mr. Geo. R. Nowland against the decision of the registrars of the First ward, who declined to register him on the ground of his being a non resident, was heard before Judge Norton at eleven o'clock today. Mr. Nowland was represented by Mr. C. C. Carlin, and the registrars by Commonwealth's Attorney S. G. Brent. After Mr. Nowland had testified, and arguments on his side had been heard, Judge Norton dismissed the case, his decision being that Mr. Nowland left here over 16 years ago; that he was not employed by the Government until long afterwards and then only occasionally. His residence was changed without any reference to government employment, and his case is in no sense a test case. Each case, the Judge held, must stand on its own facts.

Registration.

The registration of voters is still progressing slowly in both the First and Second wards, and comparatively few names are being recorded. When the books closed last night, those registered in the First ward were 182 whites and 12 colored while in the Second ward 138 whites and 6 colored had been registered.

Surgical Operation.

Mrs. Coroll B. Wood, who had been suffering some time from tumors, was removed to a Washington hospital on Wednesday and yesterday two growths, weighing sixty pounds, were removed from her. She is doing as well as could be expected considering the severe operation to which she was subjected.

Church Social.

The ladies of the social committee of the Epworth League, of the M. E. Church South, will give a literary entertainment and sociable in the lecture room of the church, this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Robbed A Cornerstone.

THIEVES have robbed the cornerstone of the new postoffice in Mexico city. The cornerstone was laid by President Diaz last Sunday morning. The cornerstone is in the cornerstone and its contents were taken. Watchmen were detailed to guard the new building and it is believed that some of them were the robbers. In the corner were gold and silver coin, signatures of prominent officials and various documents.

Advertising and Sales.

A shoe manufacturer who says the competition in his line has been keener than in most, has had a steady and enormous growth in his sales year after year. The increase last year over four years ago was 818,014 pairs of shoes. This he credits chiefly to his newspaper advertising. He says the increase of sales invariably corresponds with the increase of his newspaper space.—[Philadelphia Record.]

WHO MAY REGISTER.

1. A person who has served in time of war in the army or navy of the United States, or of the Confederate States, or of any State. 2. A son of any such person. 3. A person who owns real or personal property, upon which, for the year next preceding that in which he offers to register, State taxes of $1 have been paid. 4. A person who can understand, or give a reasonable explanation of any section of the constitution, either read by him or to him, by the officers of the registration. Registration begins in this city September 28th.

Second Annual Exhibition Richmond Horse Show Association, October 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18, 1902.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Five lodgers were at the station house last night.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Patrick H. Grant, District of Columbia, and Anna M. Hollin, Alexandria.

A garden party was given by Trinity Church at the northwest corner of Patrick and Patrick streets last night. It was a successful and pleasant affair in every particular.

An interesting and practical discourse was delivered at the Gospel tent meeting last night by Rev. H. W. Herrell. The discourse tonight will be taken from the 8th chapter of Daniel, 14th verse, and will be illustrated by charts.

The harvest moon now makes the night almost as bright as the day. The harvest moon oases it more to the fact that the full moon nearest the autumnal equinox rises at nearly the same hour for several nights in succession, providing the light by which English farmers were wont to hasten the work of gathering their crops.

The ladies and gentlemen from this city who yesterday went to Manassas to attend the annual meeting of the Ball Room, U. D. C. were most heartily received and entertained. They were dined at the Henry House and were placed in carriages there and driven over the battlefields in that vicinity.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Brown took place from St. Mary's Church this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Cutler and were attended by a number of friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

A heavy fog hung over the river and city early this morning, which seriously interfered with navigation. The steamer Washington of the Norfolk line was about four hours late in reaching this port in consequence of the fog. The order of Elks in this city has decided to add to their property at the corner of Prince and Royal streets and will have constructed a bowling alley, billiard room, etc. The work will be done by Mr. J. P. LeGard.

The work of reconstructing the gas works is being pushed rapidly and some of the new retorts are now being used. The works were inspected today by Mayor Simpson.

A carrier pigeon fell exhausted yesterday in the yard of a house on north Washington street. On the leg was a hard marked 14-16,280.

Some freight cars jumped the rails in the Washington-Southern Railway yard last night and damaged one of the tracks.

The boiler of the old steamer Harry Loder is being removed from the hull. The wreck lies at Mr. Devlin's dock.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dady died at his parents' residence, 500 Cameron street, last night.

There was quite a high tide in the river this morning.

Mr. Jacob Brill will give his usual crab feast tonight at his restaurant, foot of King street.

Monetary and Commercial.

New York, Sept. 19.—The market opened steady. There is a general belief that the worst of the monetary squeeze is over.
