WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section a fresh southerly wind, shifting to easterly.

Searching for Klein.

Detectives Coughlin and Hogan, of Baltimore, accompanied by Dr. J. Percy Wade, superintendent of the Maryland Hospital for the Insane at Spring Grove, near Baltimore, and Deputy Sheriff Harry Palmer, of Alexandria county, left Washington early yesterday morning to attempt the capture of George Klein, the alleged murderer, who escaped from the Maryland Hospital last Thursday, and who was supposed to be in hiding at the home of his father in Alexandria county, near Bailey's Cross Roads. They arrived at Mr. Klein's home shortly after 8 o'clock and were received in a friendly spirit by the members of the family. They were conducted over the premises and otherwise aided in the search for Klein. The aged father informed his visitors that his son was not then within reach. He stated that, exercising a fatherly interest in the unfortunate young man, he had engaged Col. Francis L. Smith, of Alexandria, to represent him, and had been advised not to surrender him to the Maryland authorities without a legal battle. Mr. Klein said he did not desire to evade justice in the matter, and as an evidence of his good faith he agreed to proceed with the sheriff and detectives to the County Court, where Judge Love was then presiding, and place himself under bond of $1,000 for the safe delivery of his son in court this morning at 10 o'clock. Officer Lyles reports that he saw George Klein at the intersection of King and Payne streets, in this city Monday. The officer knows him, but at the time did not know that he was wanted by the Maryland authorities. He states that he did not talk with the fugitive, but is positive as to his identity. He also reports that later in the day he saw Klein's father here and since learning of the escape of the younger Klein is certain that his father was in search of his son, though he did not appeal to the police for assistance. This evening Klein was brought before Judge Love on a writ of habeas corpus, and was released on bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance next Saturday.

River Notes.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company is arranging to have the steamer Newport News in service on the route between Washington and Old Point Comfort during the coming encampment of the Grand Army. Preparations are being made by the line to bring many of the southern and western veterans to Washington for the encampment. The Norfolk and Western and other roads will bring them to Norfolk and will there transfer them to the steamboat line to complete their journey. The steamer Norfolk, of the Washington line, had the joiner work of her stern considerably damaged yesterday morning in collision with the steamer New York, of the Cape Charles Line in Hampton Roads. No one was injured. Local inspectors will investigate the matter. The steamer Harry Randall, which arrived up this morning from the river landings brought a large supply of tomatoes to Messrs. Charles King & Son. They will be used in their canning factory.

The King Street Improvement.

The improved rails to be laid on King street by the electric railway company are not in sight as yet, and the half-finished square between Royal and Pitt streets remains as it was last week. About every other day the announcement is made that the rails have been shipped, or that they are expected to arrive here in a day or two. Inquiry at the Washington-Southern and electric railway depots however brings forth the stereotyped answers to the effect that nothing is known concerning the new rails. It is said the company is to use Cameron street for its trains when the repaving of King street shall have been commenced. The trains will enter and leave King street at Columbus, proceeding up the latter to Cameron. From Cameron they will turn into Payne street and by that thoroughfare reach King street again. Arrangements are being made to have the crossing over the Washington-Southern track at Cameron and Fayette streets, removed some time ago, restored.

Registration.

More interest is being taken in the new registration now than at any time since the start, and yesterday was rather a busy day at all the precincts, especially in the First and Second wards, where those persons who have put off registering until the very last, are now applying in good numbers. Tonight the books will be closed at nine o'clock in the First ward and no more names will be registered there until next year. The Second ward rolls will be completed tomorrow night, and today and tomorrow are the last chances for voters in those wards. Last night at closing 298 white voters and 13 colored had been registered in the First ward; 214 white and 10 colored in the Second, 152 white and 4 colored in the Third, and 86 white and 17 colored in the Fourth.

Another Echo.

There was a gathering of colored people at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Columbus street Monday night after the closing scenes of the Industrial Parade, when a row occurred between a drake named Jackson, living in Alexandria county, and a colored individual of this city. The couple were put out of the hall and later renewed the trouble at the corner of Queen and Fayette streets. The Alexandria whipped out a knife and made a lunge for the county negro's face. The blade split Jackson's check open, making a severe wound. Jackson later in the night left for his home and no arrests were made.

A difficulty occurred on King street this morning between a white and a colored man who were engaged in laying a granite pavement. The darkey armed himself with a rock and the white man with a spade. The beligerents were finally quieted. Officer Garvey having put in an appearance the trouble was not renewed.

Police Court Notes.

The following docket was disposed of by Mayor Simpson in the Police Court this morning: Howard Robinson, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith for disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5. Alice Cash, colored, arrested by Officer Ticer for disorderly conduct, was fined $5. John Jordan, colored, arrested by Officers Allen and Mayhugh for assaulting Minor Coleman, colored, was fined $5. John Jordan, William Marshall and William Saunders, all colored, arrested by Officers Allen, Mayhugh and Roberts for gambling, were fined $5 each. Two cows belonging to a resident of the First ward were taken up astray by Officers Allen and Mayhugh on the premises of a lady on south Washington street. The owner was fined $2. Generally the atmosphere of the Police Court is anything else than the exaltations from a bank of roses. This morning, however, some of the colored spectators had been in a shower of cheap colloquy and it relieved the situation considerably.

Personal.

Mrs. R. A. Tucker has returned from Round Hill, where she spent the past month. The Misses Parrott have returned from Warrenton where they spent the summer. Mrs. J. H. Mansfield has gone to New York as a representative to the Funeral Benefit Association which meets there. Mrs. John F. McCuen, who has spent the past month in New Jersey, has returned home. Miss Emma Hume, who has been seriously ill in North Hatley, Canada, has so far recovered as to be able to return to her home, "Warwick," in the county. Lieutenant-Colonel Greenough, the first commandant of Fort Hunt, will reach San Francisco from the Philippine Islands on the 29th. He has been in the Philippines for about two and one-half years. Lieutenant-Colonel Greenough has many acquaintances in this city.

Body Found.

Mr. Luther Hayden, living in the First ward, found the body of a colored man adrift in the river off the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad transfer slip early this morning. He towed it ashore and Dr. Purvis, the coroner, was notified. The remains were taken to Mr. William Demaine's undertaking establishment where later in the day Dr. Miller made an autopsy. There were several suspicious-looking marks on the head, but the body having been in the water for about a month, it was impossible to ascertain definitely whether or not they were the result of foul play. Dr. Purvis deemed an inquest unnecessary and the remains were interred this afternoon by Mr. Demaine. There was nothing on the body by which it could have been identified.

Sewer Bids.

The committee on streets today opened bids for the Cameron and Queen street sewers. Only one bid was made—by Cavillier & Co. The appropriation for Cameron street was $2,200. The bid would require an additional appropriation of $1,500, the bid approximately being $3,700. Queen street appropriation was $2,800; the bid was $4,083. No award was made. It will be recalled that some years ago—1896-1897—the City Engineer built the Prince street and Patrick street or Hydraulion engine house sewers for 20 to 25 per cent. less than the lowest of the several bids. It is probable the committee on streets will act in 1902 as they did in past years and allowed the City Engineer to do the work.

Episcopal High School. The sixty-fourth session of the Episcopal High School of Virginia, near this city, open today. The scholastic year commenced under favorable auspices. The number of students in this session is reported to exceed one hundred. Several improvements have been made, among which is the erection of a new infirmary. The building is of brick, of ample size and graceful appearance, situated a few feet east of the old infirmary, and planned under the best medical advice with every modern improvement.

Robberies.

A colored man entered the yard of the residence of Mr. E. C. Rowland, corner of Wolfe and Columbus streets, early this morning and stole a coat and vest. The negro was seen leaving the yard by neighbors. A set of garden hose was stolen from the front of a residence on south Washington street, Monday night. Officers Allen and Roberts had on several occasions called the attention of the owner, (a lady) to the fact that she was running a risk in leaving the hose out at night.

Opera House.

After enjoying a long run at Wallack's Theatre, New York, Sydney Grundy's best effort, the "Strange Adversity of Amos Skeeter," will be presented here for the first time on Thursday. The comedy is clean, wholesome and refined and one that interests both young and old and never fails to arouse the enthusiasm of the audience and excite them to laughter by the irresistibly funny complications, scenes and situations gradually unfolded to the auditor. The play will be seen here with a company of capable actors and actresses.

Circuit Court for the City. In the Circuit Court today, Judge Nicol, the trial of the suit of Laura E. Ridgeway against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, on a claim of $15,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received in an accident to one of the defendant company's trains at Addison Heights, Alexandria county, October 14, 1900, was resumed and a number of witnesses were examined. The case was still in progress when this report closed.

"Court week in heaven" was the subject of Rev. H. W. Herrell's discourse at the Gospel tent meeting last night. A large congregation was present. "The constitution of heaven" will be the theme to night. The weather has been uncomfortably warm during the past few days. The wind has changed from the northeast to the south, and from present indications the threatened equinoctial disturbances seem to have given this section the "go-by."

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Officer Goods as a member of the police force will probably be filled at the meeting. Mr. John Henderson has been appointed to fill Mr. Goods's place temporarily. At the First Baptist Church Sunday School on next Sunday morning the regular services of the school will be dispensed with and instead special missionary services will be held, which will consist of solos, recitations, readings addressed by the pastor on "news from the mission fields," and good singing. The carols used are entitled "Come," "Go." The public are cordially invited. The exercises will commence at 9:30 and continue one hour.

Officer Allen today arrested a man representing the Independent Oil Company for selling oil without a license. He was released on collateral. C. E.
