WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and cooler tonight; Wednesday fair; diminishing northwesterly winds.

A Flourishing Alexandria Institution

The Puff Shoe Company has taken possession of its new factory building, northeast corner of Washington and Clinton streets, and the plant of machinery is now heard in a new quarter of the city.

The remains of Howson Hooe, who died last Sunday morning at his home, Longwood, Fauquier county, were interred in Ivy Hill Cemetery this afternoon.

The funeral of the late Miss Sarah A. Spencer, who died at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, took place this afternoon from her late residence, 1921 Oranoco street.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Harrison, who died in Washington Saturday, took place this afternoon in this city.

Demand for Dwelling Houses. The demand for suitable houses in this city continues in excess of the supply.

County Court. [Judge J. M. Love presiding.] Com. vs. James A. Gary, indicted for shooting firearms at Rosslyn; prisoner pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and required to pay costs.

River Notes. The United States coast survey steamer Endeavor from the lower Potomac loaded coal and other supplies at Wm. A. Smoot & Co's wharf Saturday afternoon.

Suits for Damages. Mrs. Kate Howard, wife of Corporal J. L. Howard, stationed at Fort Hunt, has filed suit in the Circuit Court for this city against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company for $5,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received by Mrs. Howard while a passenger on one of the cars of the defendant company.

Stabbed by a Negro. Mr. W. H. Steurnagel, steward of the Piedmont Club by Lynchburg, was stabbed yesterday afternoon by Walter Sherman, a colored boy. It is stated that Steurnagel gave the negro an order which incensed him.

Police Court Notes. The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning: Daniel Nelson, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $5.

Body Found. The body of an unknown white man was washed ashore at Colonial Beach yesterday. In a book found in the coat pocket was written "Roland E. Hart, San Antonio, Texas." The man was about twenty-five years of age. There was also a New York address in the book.

Funerals. The remains of Howson Hooe, who died last Sunday morning at his home, Longwood, Fauquier county, were interred in Ivy Hill Cemetery this afternoon.

Personal.

Mr. Manley T. Rust, formerly of this city, but now of West End, Falls Church, has issued cards for the wedding reception of his daughter, Miss Mary Estelle Rust, who will be married to D. Paul Swope on Monday afternoon, November 3.

Mr. Thomas J. Seay, salesman for Mr. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, whose sudden disappearance from this city some time since, was here today. He has been sick in Washington.

Miss Emily Allyn, of Norfolk, is visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. Charles Zimmerman, who is confined to her bed with a severe attack of erysipelas, is improving.

Mr. John A. Arnold, who has been visiting friends in this city for the past few weeks, left today for his home in Bloomington, Ill.

Among the numerous weddings announced to take place this fall is that of Miss Roberta Ansley, daughter of Captain and Mrs. H. C. Ausley, of this city, and Mr. James Corbett, a prominent young lawyer of Norfolk.

Mr. Henry Sirauss has sold to Mr. W. H. Peck a house and lot on the east side of Payne street, between Cameron and Queen, for $475.

The heavy rain of last night caused many of the streams in this vicinity to overflow their banks. But little damage was done however.

At the meeting of Sharps and Flats held last night several members were elected. The rechartering of "Little Tycoon" are becoming very interesting.

Capt. R. F. Knox will offer for sale at auction tomorrow on the premises a brick house and lot on the west side of Columbus street, between Oranoco and Pendleton.

The steam fire engine Wm. A. Smoot is being put in order for use at the Washington navy yard where the engine will be utilized in washing the sand and gravel from the sea wall.

The Gospel meetings are being continued in the hall, 116 south St. Asaph street, nightly (Wednesday and Saturday excepted).

The proceedings under a special act of the Legislature in the case of the Supervisors of Alexandria county against the City Council of Alexandria, for the sale of the old court-house and other property used while Alexandria was a portion of the District of Columbia, are not yet entirely complete.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life. "I believe I saved my (nine-year-old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis.

Look Out For Fever. Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

Quite an Innovation. "For a new actress she adopted an original way of drawing attention to herself."

Opportune. Miss Lily (after the proposal)—I don't think you'd better see papa today, Tom. My dressmaker has just been here with her bill.

The Inducement. The Sister—I have become engaged to Fred. The Brother—Whatever induced you to do that? The Sister—Why, Fred, of course!

Switzerland exports regularly to other countries seventeen different kinds of cheese.

Cleared of all Charges. John Nelson, who was accused of having set fire to buildings at Jackson City last summer, has been cleared of all the charges which were preferred against him.

The Weather. The rainy weather which set in yesterday morning brought showers at intervals during the day which were more copious and prolonged when night set in.

Plea Self-Defense. William Goings, the colored man who fatally assaulted Millard R. Birch in a saloon at Rosslyn on October 8, acknowledged having struck the fatal blow when arraigned before Justice of the Peace E. F. Thompson, in the county yesterday morning.

Rumored Reduction. It is rumored on the street that a considerable reduction is to be made in the clerical force in the office of the division superintendent of the Southern Railway in this city.

Body Found. The body of an unknown white man was washed ashore at Colonial Beach yesterday.

Police Court Notes. The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning: Daniel Nelson, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $5.
