Heard on the Parson. Just after the battle of Perryville, in October, 1862, says a Georgia exchange, Dr. Savage, a strong Union man, was at one of his appointments to baptize some children.

"Name this child," said the Union preacher, laying his hand on the boy's head. "Simon Bolivar Buckner," was the reply, which caused a smile to come over the congregation, but the brave preacher went on with his duty.

"Name this child," taking the next in order. "Pierre Gustave Toutant Beaubien," said the smile grew into a snicker, while Dr. Savage became red in the face.

Don't Treat Symptoms

Go after the cause. Stimulants and cathartics will never cure indigestion. They may temporarily relieve the system but the next meal clogs it again.

Children Thrive on Kodol. purifies, cleanses, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. This new discovery digests all kinds of food and assists the stomach and digestive organs in assimilating and transforming it into the kind of nourishment that is taken up by the blood and fed to the tissues throughout the various organs of the body.

Kodol Digests What You Eat. Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The #1 bottle contains 120 pills which will last for six weeks.

Wanted Another Wife. A traveler in Persia tells the following: "My hunt walks into the veranda. He is an aged man, wrapped in a long black cloak and wearing a green turban, denoting him a seyd, or a descendant of the prophet."

Herrmann and Kellar. The late Professor Herrmann, the magician, was possessed not only of great strength in his hands, but of such skill as would enable him to perform apparent feats of strength which would be impossible to a far stronger man.

Both Come in Bottles. The father was testing his little boy's knowledge of the story of Noah, which he had carefully rehearsed. The boy had been thinking hard, and his answer to the first question showed that he had at least the virtue of originality.

Olives and Pickles were anonymous terms in the small boy's mind for things which come in bottles and which he did not like.

On the morning of the first battle of Winchester Dr. Hunter McGuire, Stonewall Jackson's medical director, said to him: "General, I have some very fine brandy. Will you take a drink?"

McGuire answered, "Don't you like it?" "Yes," replied Jackson; "I like it too well. That is the reason I do not drink it."

An impressive exhibition of his self control that was Puritan in its self abnegation.

Vaccinated Before Wedded. In Brazil parents and guardians before consenting to the marriage of their charges require a medical certificate from the bride or bridegroom certifying that he or she has been vaccinated.

In Norway and Sweden before any couple can be legally married certificates must be produced showing that both bride and bridegroom have been duly vaccinated.

Finds Profit in His Good Deed. Greene—After all, Silmsit is good at heart. He prevailed upon the boys to give up smoking for a week and to give the money they would have spent for cigars and tobacco to old Derby to get him a suit of clothes.

Two of a Kind. "I'm a plain, everyday business man," said Meritt, "and I am nothing if not practical. Miss Wisely, will you be my wife?"

"I admire your frankness, Mr. Meritt," replied the fair object of his affections, "because I am inclined to be rather matter of fact myself. How much are you worth?"

One Minute Cough Cure. Is the only harmless cough cure that gives quick relief. Cures Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Pneumonia, Asthma, La Grippe and all Throat, Chest, and Lung troubles. I got soaked by rain, says Gertrude E.
