WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday, probably light rain tonight; fresh north to northwest winds.

Wedding.

The cosy home of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James M. Nourse on Braddock Heights was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding at noon today when their second daughter, Miss Edith Holmes, became the bride of Dr. Jesse Sidwell Myers, of Westminster, Md. Though the invitations were limited to relatives of the contracting parties, the house was filled with guests, young and old, from near and far, the families being Friends on one side and Presbyterians on the other—largely scattered throughout the District of Columbia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Ohio. The house was tastefully and prettily arranged for the occasion, there being flowers and ferns, variegated leaves and potted plants everywhere. The parlors which were adorned with yellow chrysanthemums and orange blossoms sent from California by the bride, were illuminated with banquet lamps, making them look like a veritable floral bower in the midst of fairy land. The bride-elect met the groom-elect in the hall at the foot of the stairs and unattended, and to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, they proceeded to the centre of the parlors where they pledged their troth, Rev. Mr. Nourse, the bride's father, taking their vows after the old Presbyterian custom. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried bride's roses. After the ceremony the couple remained awhile for greetings and to take part in the repast served in the dining room, after which Dr. and Mrs. Myers drove to the train and will go as far north as New York, returning to Westminster, where the groom has an excellent practice, and where Rev. Dr. Nourse was present for some time as president of a Presbyterian college. The bride was the recipient of numerous beautiful, costly and useful souvenirs.

R. F. & P. and W. S. R. Railways. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the R. F. & P. and Washington and Southern Railways was held in Richmond yesterday and all of the old officials were re-elected as follows: President R. F., & P. and Washington and Southern, Major E. D. T. Meyers; Directors—G. W. Stevens, John Skelton Williams, Samuel Spencer, W. J. Leake, J. Taylor Ellyson, with the addition of S. M. Provost. The report of the president showed that the road was in a most prosperous condition and that the sum of $131,499.97 was the net increase of earnings for the year, and that the maintenance of way of the company was in good condition. General Manager Duke's report showed that the system was double tracking from Richmond to Alexandria, and that the curvatures in the road had been greatly decreased. Already land damage has been paid as far north as Summit. The double tracking will increase traffic and increase the hauling capacity between 40 and 50 per cent. The work which is now being accomplished is a hard one, and will reduce the present trackage twenty-five miles between Richmond and Alexandria. With the exception of the addition of S. M. Provost, the directors and other officers of the road remain the same.

Thought He was a Cat. Some amusement was occasioned in the Police Court this morning during the trial of the case of Samuel Reed, colored, who had been arrested for shooting a dog belonging to Henry Nelson, also colored. The incident occurred on south Washington street Saturday evening. According to the evidence Reed was looking over a fence with his head only visible, and the canine, which had a propensity for worrying cats, mistaking him for a feline, made a leap and succeeded in lodging one of its teeth in the darkey's upper lip. The latter procured a gun and started after the dog, and when told by bystanders not to shoot he said he would not only put the dog out of the way but any one who undertook to stop him from wreaking vengeance. He emptied both barrels of his gun into the animal, causing children and others to scamper out of the way for fear of their lives. The owner of the dog had recently been compelled to pay $2 for a license for the canine, and the Mayor had reimbursed Nelson and pay $1 for firing a gun within the city limits.

Police Court Notes. The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning: Henrietta Pines and Ida Pines, both colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with assaulting and beating Catherine Smith, also colored, were fined $5 each. Samuel Reed, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with shooting a dog belonging to Henry Nelson, colored, was fined $5. Jack Washington and Arthur Lewis, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each. Two white men, arrested by Officers Arrington and Garvey, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each. Seven lodgers were at the station house last night.

Preparing for the Boating Season. The boat builders of Washington and Alexandria are anticipating a very busy time during the coming winter and spring, and it is said that several new pleasure craft will be added to the Potomac fleet. There is on the stocks at Mr. A. Dean's shipyard here an unfinished launch, which is being built for parties in Washington, and which is to be completed during the coming winter. A number of yachts are in process of construction in Washington. Steam yachts are becoming more numerous on the Potomac every year. This class of pleasure craft was hardly known hereabouts two score years ago. Now steam, electric and naphtha yachts and launches are more common than were sail boats before the days of the civil war.

Services will be held in the Second Presbyterian Church again tonight. The town clock was not illuminated last night.

Personal.

Miss Lena B. Toombs celebrated her 18th birthday at her home on north Patrick street last night. A number of her young friends were present. Conductor Thomas Chalmers, who had recently been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is able to be out again. Miss Marian Chalmers, daughter of Mrs. Algernon C. Chalmers, and Mr. William Bryant, the secretary of the Bryant Fertilizer Company, will be married tomorrow evening in St. Paul's Church, Rev. P. P. Phillips officiating. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. Lawrence Washington left today for Bloomington, Illinois, where he has secured employment with Mr. J. M. Duncan, formerly of this city. Fire Warden C. J. W. Summers went to Baltimore today for the purpose of examining the steam heaters used on fire engines in that city.

Dr. Jno. S. Powell, of Occoquan was in this city today.

Mr. John R. Smith, long night operator at the Southern depot, but for several years past with the Atlantic & Danville Railroad at Lawrenceville, is back in his old position in the Southern office in this city.

Miss Mary Custis Lee is the guest of Mrs. Marcellus Cox, in Philadelphia.

To Vote on Railroad Appropriation. The election in Stafford county on the question of subscribing fifty thousand dollars to the capital stock of the Fredericksburg and Rappahannock Railroad, to take place next Saturday, is attracting attention and being much discussed among the Staffordians. It is said that this line will cross the river about fifteen miles above Falmouth, forming a junction near Kennedy's. The main line will continue to the Potomac river, and a branch will be run to Hoadley, from which point connection will be had with the Mt. Vernon or Falls Church line. Falmouth and this city will be connected with the line by a short branch.—[Fredericksburg Lance.

Fair. The fair being held by Mount Vernon Council, D. of A., opened last night with a crowded house. The principal articles to be voted for are a gold watch and Elk's tooth. Misses Lillian Elson, Mamie Griffin and Edith Beach are contestants for the watch and the names of Messrs. Frank Hill, E. Shinn and C. C. Carlin are up for the Elk's tooth. A lively time is looked for by the different contestants. There will be dancing every evening, and all who attend will have a good time.

Patriotic Lecture Tonight. The lecture tonight at the Opera House, entitled "A Legacy of Honor," promises to be a success in every particular, and being in the interest of such a noble cause as the ladies of the 17th Virginia Regiment chafed represent should appeal to the patriotic feelings of our citizens. Doubtless a large audience will greet them. The ladies have taken to great pains to make the undertaking a success. The members of Lee Camp will attend in uniform.

Work at Southern Railway Depot. The work of rebuilding the old Richmond locomotives—Nos. 244, 356, 820 and 6, at the Southern shops continues, the men working full time and often with a night shift. No. 370 is also undergoing extensive repair, and the paint shop is furnishing up their tenders. The work of the railroad people is steady at the present time that there is not a single house nearby bearing a "for rent" sign.

The Weather. The heavens became cloudy and threatening early last night, and rain began to fall shortly before four o'clock this morning. A northeast wind blew cool and raw, and throughout today rain has fallen at intervals. The tide in the river made higher than usual and conditions around the wharves were cheerless.

Horses Purchased. The Fire Warden has purchased the pair of black horses which were brought here last week to be tested by the Relief Hook and Ladder Company. They belonged to Mr. John Simmons, of Washington, and the warden paid $500 for them.

Accident at Glass Works. Mr. Fred H. Simpson, while at work at the Bell-Pre Bottle Works this morning, had the thumb and index finger of the left hand cut off by getting them caught in machinery. Dr. Thomas Gibson rendered the necessary surgical assistance.

LOCAL BREVITIES. William W. Rapley, the owner of the New National Theatre, in Washington, since 1865, and a large shareholder in the Academy of Music in that city, died yesterday afternoon in the seventy-fifth year of his age. Mr. Rapley was born in Baltimore, but had lived in Washington since 1847.

The stockholders of the Albemarle Apartments Company met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the office of the local attorney for the company, Mr. Gardner L. Smith, and re-elected the old board of directors and officers, including the president of the company, T. Franklin Schneider, of Washington. Officer Allen today found one of the three mats which were stolen from the front doors of residences on North Washington street recently. The mat was in a yard and all the marks had been removed from it.

Mr. John Hasbrough, an employee of the freight department of the Washington-Southern Railway, fell between some cars at the Fayette street depot yesterday and was painfully bruised. An electric train ran into a stockade near the Four-mile run power house early this morning, somewhat damaging one of the cars. Traffic was delayed but a short time by the accident.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Ferdinand V. Berry, District of Columbia, and Lilly H. Crocker, Falls Church.

Anthracite coal is now being received by the dealers in this city in limited quantities, but larger receipts are expected soon.

The United States dispatch boat Dolphin passed up the river early this afternoon.

"Two Married Men." All London and New York has laughed at George R. Edson's new comedy, "Two Married Men," which will be produced here on next Tuesday night. It is brim full of mirth provoking situations, bright and sparkling dialogue, novel specialties and pretty girls. The company contains such well-known comedians as Frank Gottlieb, Max LaPell, Albert VonTaska, Albee Heindorf, Billy Colton, Carl Carter, and among the clever lady artists are Ethel Clayton, Ollie Joy, Lena Wheeler, Jean Darrow, Mrs. Carl Carter, Amy Gottlieb and Minnie Heindorf.
