The Proposed Parade.

About one hundred citizens assembled in Armory Hall last night to discuss the advisability of having a parade on the 22d of February and to receive the report of a committee appointed at a previous meeting. Mr. F. J. Paff presided and Capt. James E. King acted as secretary. Mr. A. D. Brockert, of the committee, said there was much to encourage the belief that the people of the city would respond liberally for the parade. Representatives of the Hydration Fire Engine Company reported that their organization would participate and would lend hearty co-operation. Committees from the Columbia Fire Engine Company and the Relief Hook and Ladder Company stated that they had every reason to believe that their companies would participate, but that they had been instructed to attend the meeting and report back before announcing their final determination, as the members were anxious to know whether they would be provided with bands. The committees from the councils of Junior Order of Mechanics reported that their order would turn out and, if necessary, would furnish their own band. Mr. E. R. Boyer said he felt confident that one company of uniformed Pythians would come from Washington, which, with the local uniformed Pythians, would make a good showing for that order. Those representing the Order of Red Men announced that Osceola Tribe could be counted upon to turn out in full. Mr. M. B. Harlow suggested that some well-known speaker be invited to deliver an address on the night of the 22d on the life and character of George Washington. Dr. William M. Smith was called upon for an expression of opinion. Dr. Smith suggested getting the co-operation of every organization and business man in the city and that efforts be made to secure the attendance of military companies, fire companies and other organizations from Washington and other neighboring places. It was finally decided that the chairman be empowered to name nine men to compose an executive committee. Mr. Paff stated that he would announce this committee in the next day or two. Mr. C. M. Cavillier stated that he hoped to have the repaving of King street completed before the 22d of February, but that he would promise to have one side of the uncompleted portion of the street filled in so that the parade could pass without having to leave King street at that point.

Struck with Billiard Ball.

During a game of pool in a saloon in the western portion of the city last night two players named Winter Crupper and Harry Taylor became involved in a dispute which culminated in a fight. Crupper picked up a billiard ball and hurled it at Taylor, striking him on the head and injuring him so seriously that he had to have surgical attention. Taylor swore out a warrant for Crupper's arrest and he was brought before the Mayor at nine o'clock this morning, but the plaintiff was not present and the case was dismissed. A few minutes later Taylor appeared with his head bandaged. He was told that not having been in court at the appointed hour and there being no one to testify against Crupper, the latter had been dismissed. Taylor subsequently gave his version of the affair which was to the effect that the dispute caused Crupper to apply ugly epithets and that he finally struck at him (Taylor) when the latter dealt him a blow. Crupper then picked up two billiard balls, hurling one at him with the result given above.

Alleged Cause of Fire.

Chief Webster has ascertained that the fire which partially destroyed the house of Dinah Harris, colored, on Gibson street at one o'clock yesterday morning was the result of gross carelessness, if not something more serious. Charles Edney and another negro known as "Sweetner" were in the house at the time, and it is alleged that the former was handling a lighted lamp in a careless manner while endeavoring to light a cigarette; that the lamp finally exploded and that "Sweetner," who was drunk, kicked it down stairs. The rear portion of the house took fire and soon the entire building was ablaze. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the parties named, together with others who are said to be material witnesses.

Teachers' Association.

The Mount Vernon district public school teachers' association held its January meeting in the Burroughs school house, on south Patrick street extended, yesterday. The session continued through pretty much of the entire day. The attendance was large and besides being representative of its own district had visitors from Alexandria city and county and Falls Church. Supt. M. D. Hall presided over the meeting and Miss Lella M. Milstead acted as secretary. Capt. K. Kemper, superintendent of the Alexandria schools, was a visitor and upon invitation made an address, speaking of Virginia educational matters in general and especially of the schools of this section, their needs and of what might be expected of them. He congratulated Prof. Hall and his board and assistants on the excellent organization they had, as well as the excellent work they are doing as described in the reports of the superintendent of education at Richmond. A large part of the morning session and pretty much of the afternoon session was given over to the reading of technical papers and the discussion of the same. Among them was one on the best plan of teaching percentages, which came under the head of arithmetic. This paper was prepared and read by Prof. E. C. Sine, of Falls Church, who was followed on the same subject by Miss Milstead and Miss Cowling. Another paper on American history and colonization, by Miss N. E. Hargis, was supplemented by remarks by Miss K. M. Riley and Miss S. E. Cox, and one on the easiest, most natural and best method of teaching grammar, by Miss L. M. Dyer, was discussed by Miss Fannie Weaver and Miss Mary Lukins. Interspersed between the reading and discussion of the papers readings and recitations were given by Prof. Sine, Rev. Everett Meade, Mrs. J. P. H. Mason and Miss L. M. Dyer. There were about seventy-five ladies and gentlemen present during the session and at noon the ladies spread a bountiful lunch for all.

Personal.

Miss Marian Blanche Moss, formerly of Alexandria, and Mr. James Noble, a well known hotel man of Philadelphia, in Hedgesville, Berkeley county, Va., on Wednesday night of last week. Miss Hallie Ramsey, of Alexandria, pupil of Andrews of the Corcoran Art School, Washington, has opened a studio in the Hollingsworth building, in Harrisonburg, for instruction in painting and drawing.—[Rockingham Register.

Mr. Philip Theodore, for several years past with Mr. E. Goldsmith in this city, will leave for Baltimore today where he will begin business for himself. He has recently purchased the outfit of a wholesale gentleman's furnishing house. During Mr. Theodore's residence in this city he has made many friends and acquaintances, all of whom hope prosperity will follow him.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Terrett, of Bailey's cross roads, Fairfax county, for the marriage of the daughter, Miss Eva Estelle, to Mr. Thomas Row, which is to take place at St. Paul's Church, Bailey's cross roads, on February 18 at eight o'clock. A reception is to follow. Mr. Sidney F. Sherwood has received an appointment as student assistant in the bureau of chemistry of the Agricultural Department in Washington. Mr. H. B. Caton, of this city, was yesterday admitted to practice in the Virginia Court of Appeals. Mrs. J. G. Gatewood has returned from Norfolk where she has been visiting relatives.

Donkey Party.

Miss Mary Kell celebrated her ninth birthday last night at her residence on north St. Asaph street. She entertained a number of her little friends and members of the family by giving a donkey party. There were two prizes, consisting of images, awarded. The first was for the person who placed the tail of the donkey in the proper place or nearest to it. This was won by Miss Gracie McKay. The second prize was for the one placing the tail farthest away. This was won by Master Peter Hoy. After the merriment over the donkey ceased, refreshments were served. At a late hour the company departed after having spent a most delightful evening.

More Snow.

The obscured heavens and easterly winds portended snow early this morning, but it was not until about half-past one o'clock in the afternoon when it began to fall thick and fast. The ground being in a frozen condition, there is every likelihood of its remaining some time should there be a heavy fall. The wintry conditions are in marked contrast to those of four years ago today (January 24, 1899), when the temperature was extremely mild. That night a mid-summer rainstorm prevailed, lasting about two hours, during which the lightning was vivid, flash following flash, while there was a continuous sound of thunder.

Weddings.

Mr. E. S. Fairfax, of Fairfax county, who is well known in this city, and Miss Helen Sweetberg, of Cripple Creek, Colo., were married last night at the home of the groom's brother, on south Washington street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. Mr. Robert Wallace and Miss Ruby C. Richards, of this city, were married in Washington yesterday.

Accidents.

Mr. Davis Fewell while at work on the platform of Washington and Ohio R. R., depot yesterday had one of his legs broken by a skid falling upon him. He was attended by Dr. O'Brien. Henry Thaxton, colored, an employee of the Southern Railway, was struck by an overhead bridge at Charlottesville yesterday and seriously hurt about his head. He was attended by the company's physician at Charlottesville and later brought to his home in this city where he was further attended by Dr. O'Brien.

Work of the Gleaners.

In a train of cars left standing on Wilkes street this morning was one containing about a ton of spilt coal. The bottom was allowed to fall out when the coal spread over the track. In a few minutes white and colored people, mostly of the younger generation, were wandering from every point of the compass toward the car. Bags, baskets, buckets, basin, hats and other handy receptacles were brought into use and in a short period every lump of the coal had found its way into houses in the neighborhood.

The new paving on King street, while affording an ideal bicycle track, is being used by the young of both sexes as a roller-skating rink. Youngsters who engage in the fun grasp the tail-boards of wagons and are often "towed" up the smooth roadway from Fayette street to the Strand.

Dr. Jones, assisted by Dr. Snowden, this morning performed an operation on Loretta, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. Randolph Hamer, for physical weakness of the limbs and deformed feet. The little girl up to a year ago had been compelled to wear braces. The operation was apparently successful in every particular and there is reason to suppose the patient will soon have the use of her limbs.
