A Dark Night.

Last night was indeed a dismal one, and to add to the general discomfort the electric lights were not burning. However, the people are becoming accustomed to a moonlight schedule on nights when the moon is out of date, but eventually will become tired of paying for a thing they do not receive. So general has the complaint been recently that the Mayor addressed a communication to the committee on light calling attention to the careless manner in which the lamps and line were attended to. At Mayor Simpson's suggestion a representative of the Gazette called at the gas office and asked what the committee on light had done in reference to the communication, and was told that the committee would take the matter up, but had not done so. With the two or three nights each month when the wicks are not operated and these occasions "extras," tax-payers citizens and all others who have to be on the streets late at night and in the early morning hours are asking whether the electric works are to be run at the convenience of the employees, or for the convenience of all the people. Great things were promised when the plant was purchased. That hopes and expectations have not materialized is an admitted fact. The people will not be over zealous to buy and operate an incandescent plant with the object lesson of an expensive arc street lighting system as at present managed.

Death of Mrs. Flippo.

A dispatch from Philadelphia received in this city today stated that Mrs. Flippo, wife of Rev. Dr. Flippo, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in Alexandria, died at 5 o'clock this morning. The deceased, who was a sufferer from heart trouble, had been ill for several weeks. Mrs. Flippo was a sister of Mr. J. W. Emmert, of this city. Her many friends in Alexandria will regret to hear of her death. The death of Mrs. Flippo makes the sixth death which has occurred in Mr. Emmert's family since his residence in this city, he having lost a daughter-in-law and three brothers and two sisters during that time. The thousands of friends who know and esteem Rev. Dr. Flippo will be pained to learn that he is so deeply in the shadows. Mrs. Flippo was a beautiful Christian character and beloved by a large circle of friends whose deepest sympathies go out to Dr. Flippo and to the family who mourn the loss of such a devoted wife, mother and loving sister. May the consolations of the Gospel, which Dr. Flippo has faithfully preached to others, uphold and cheer him in the hour of dark bereavement.

A Complaint from Mr. Hume.

Mr. Frank Hume in an interview with the Washington correspondent of the Richmond News-Leader a day or two ago said: "I think you would be doing the people a service if you would make known the poor methods of transportation between Alexandria and Washington. There are hundreds of Virginia citizens who have occasion to come to Washington every day, but they find it a difficult undertaking. The southern banks of the Potomac would make an ideal place for small towns suburban to Washington, where thousands of people could find cheap homes close to the farm-priced markets of Virginia, if more satisfactory provision for the accommodation of the traveling public were made and reasonable fares charged. I hope to see the day when these conditions will prevail, as northern Virginia is an ideal spot for suburban towns."

Fined for Unlawful Fishing.

William Baltzell, John Thomas, John W. Brown and William Lacey were arraigned in the Washington Police Court yesterday on a charge of illegal fishing. Baltzell was fined $50 and his companions each $20. They were captured Thursday night by a squad of police under Sergeant Anderson while operating a 150-fathom seine near the south end of the asylum trestle in the Anacostia river. They caught about 1,000 fish, mostly bass and perch, some of the former weighing from three to five pounds. There were bills in the possession of one of the prisoners showing that $200 worth of fish had been sold to a local dealer since February 12 last.

Case Continued.

Officers Young and Knight yesterday arrested a man named Von Weddel, who lives near Franconia Railway, charged with assaulting a youngster named Lee Gorham in this city a few weeks ago. The latter, it will be remembered, was seriously injured and had to be taken to the Alexandria Hospital where his left eye was removed. The prisoner was represented by Mr. Charles Benheim, at whose suggestion the Mayor continued the case for ten days. Von Weddel giving bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at that time. Von Weddel is a mature man and Gorham is a spare-built nineteen-year-old youth. There are several versions of the affair, but the gist of the matter is that a difficulty occurred on a local north bound train late in the evening, and while the train was held near the intersection of Duke and Fayette streets in order that a derailed freight car ahead could be replaced on the rails the combatants left the car. According to one report Gorham was sitting on a doorstep when he was struck by Von Weddel.

The Weather.

The rainy weather which set in yesterday evening continued throughout last night and part of today. There were some copious showers during the night and this morning, and the wind came in heavy flaps at times. It had worked around from the southeast to south and the clouds sailed across the heavens at a high rate of speed. The river was filled with white caps which chased each other and when the ebb tide set in there were high seas. The temperature was warm and conditions generally uncomfortable. The Weather Bureau had predicted that fair weather, northwest winds and lower temperature were to follow, and the hope was generally expressed that those conditions would not be long delayed. The disturbance was the result of the Gulf storm which has been moving in this direction. In the afternoon the prognostications of the Weather Bureau were being fulfilled.

The Princeton Disaster.

February 28, 1844, fifty-nine years ago today, President Tyler and his Cabinet were on board the United States steam sloop-of-war Princeton about five miles below Alexandria with a party of ladies, witnessing some experiments with a new gun. The gun was fired several times and the party finally went into the cabin for a luncheon. After the luncheon one of the ladies insisted that "one more shot be fired," and the entire party, with the exception of President Tyler, who stayed behind to hunt for his hat, which one of the ladies had hidden, went on deck to witness the last shot. The gun exploded, killing Secretary of State Abel P. Upshur, Secretary of the Navy Thomas W. Gilmer and Commander Beverly Kennon.

Late Cutting Affray.

Otto Vogelgesang, who was seriously cut by Harry Nicholson in the Alexandria Steam Bakery on Thursday night, is still at the Alexandria Hospital. While his condition is not critical, the outcome of his injuries is anticipated with anxiety, as blood-poisoning is possible. The wound in Vogelgesang's side (fourteen inches long) is of a serious nature. It is said to have been inflicted with a dirty knife and minute particles of clothing were forced into the gash. The knife has not been found, as Nicholson disposed of it before he was taken into custody yesterday.

Knights of Pythias Fair.

The George Washington Brass Band gave a concert at the Knights of Pythias Bazaar last night. This band has only been organized about ten weeks, but it is rapidly becoming a favorite Alexandria institution. The vote stands as follows: Lady's gold watch, Miss Bertha Holland, 5; Miss Mamie Lucas, 5. Lady's gold ring, Miss Lillian Elson, 5; Miss Mamie Robinson, 5; Miss Rae Sinclair, 4. B. P. O. E. ring, Mr. George T. Caton, 5. I. O. R. M. ring, Mr. Samuel Elliott, 5.

Personal.

Mrs. J. A. Carter of Norfolk, Va., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dempsey, south Fairfax street. Mr. F. L. Slaymaker has returned from a pleasant trip to Florida. While there he visited Palm Beach and St. Augustine. Miss Lillian Peyton of King George county is visiting relatives in this city. Mrs. W. A. Smoot, Chaplain General of the D. A. R., and Mrs. Eleanor W. Howard, Secretary General, both of this city, retire from their respective offices with the close of the present session of that organization.

Charter Granted.

Judge Barley today granted a charter to the Mount Vernon Telephone Company, the object of which is to establish telephone plants and systems in Fairfax county and elsewhere. The capital stock is $5,000 and the officers are: J. N. Gibbs, president; F. H. Wilkins, secretary and treasurer, and E. O. Thompson, C. Lukens and S. B. Moore, directors, all of Fairfax county. It is understood that the company will at once build a line from Alexandria to Mount Vernon.

The Market.

The rainy weather had a depressing effect upon the market this morning, but few buyers or sellers being present. Prices showed no material variation. Eggs were sold for 20 cents by most dealers, although in some instances they were sold as low as 18 cents. Poultry was scarce and firm.

Renting of Fish Wharf.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, actioneer, today rented the corporation fish wharf to Mr. J. T. Ballenger for $400. Last year the property brought $350, and in 1901 $300. The wharf will be placed in order in a few days to accommodate the spring business.

Death of an Old Resident.

Mrs. Annie M. King, widow of Samuel King, died at the residence of Mrs. Foltz, on south Lee street, this afternoon. The deceased would have been 91 years old had she lived until next Wednesday.

Withdrawn from the Line.

The steamer Belle Haven of the Washington ferry line has been withdrawn from the route. The steamer Columbia is now the only boat plying on the Washington ferry.

The whistle of a locomotive at the Southern Railway depot got the rampage yesterday evening, and for about half an hour blew a steady blast. A crowd of people were attracted to the neighborhood of the depot.

During the month the Clerk of the Corporation Court recorded 26 and issued 83 marriage licenses—26 to white and 7 to colored persons.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Pope has decided, after his jubilee, to address to the rulers and faithful of the world an encyclical containing his thanks for the demonstrations of cordiality received by him. The letter will also contain what will be his testament in religious, political and social affairs.

The building erected by the Church of England Army, an organization of London for the shelter of the poor, was destroyed by fire this morning. There were 300 persons in the building when the flames were discovered. Several of them are missing, and it is feared they have lost their lives. The body of one has already been recovered.

It is stated on the best authority that when the foreign ambassadors solemnly read to the Sultan at Turkey the text of the Austro-Russian note demanding reforms in Macedonia Abdul Hamid could hardly conceal his joy at the insignificance of the provisions in the note, and the ease with which they could be evaded. Since that time the Sultan has been in better temper than he has shown for years. He believes that his empire has received a new lease of life, and had an opera company give a private performance of "Il Trovatore," at the palace, as a celebration.

Explosion and Loss of Life.

Latrobe, Pa., Feb. 28.—A fire damp explosion occurred in the Hostetter-Connellsville coke company's mine, five miles west of here this morning. Seven men are reported killed. Eight hundred men are employed in the mine.

The Cunard liner Etruria, which left New York this morning for Liverpool, went aground on the bar in Godney's channel shortly before 11 o'clock. The vessel is believed to have sustained no injury, and will undoubtedly be floated at the turn of the tide.

Mrs. Joseph Bieu, a young French woman, was criminally assaulted yesterday afternoon by a masked man who forced his way into her home, in Springfield, Mass. The assailant has not been captured.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of the President, arrived at Groton, Mass., last evening. Professor Wm. Amory Gardner, who will be her host while she is at Groton school to visit her sons, met her at the station.

A Weak Stomach

causes a weak body and invites disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures and strengthens the stomach, and wards off and overcomes disease. J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and run down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefitted me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." E. S. Leadbeater & Son.

As Usual. Husband—Where do you want to go? Wife—Oh, I don't know—anywhere where I can spend money. "But I thought you wanted a change?"—Smart Set.

After Which He Departed. Augustus Aubrey—Do you know, I much prefer the society of ladies to that of men. Miss Cutting—So do I.—Pittsburg Press.

Balzac and Dumas. It is said that Balzac detested Dumas. Once he brought to the Siecle the manuscript of a novel, which was to follow "Les Trois Mousquetaires," then being published. He asked to be paid 2 1/2 francs a line. The director of the journal hesitated. "You see, M. Dumas is being paid only 2 francs a line." "If you are giving 2 francs to that negro, I shall go out!" And Balzac stalked off.

Dumas was not ignorant of Balzac's feelings toward him and did not spare him. In the foyer of the Odeon theater Balzac was talking loudly in a group of literary men. "When I have written myself out as a novelist, I shall go to playwrighting." "You can begin right away," called out Dumas.

An Arabian Story. An Arab and his wife were constantly quarreling, and the wife always went straightway to her father and made complaint. One day the Arab boxed the ears of his better half, whereupon she went again to her father and related her grievance, demanding revenge. The father, a wise old sheik, shook his head, and after long reflection, bowed his daughter's ears and said: "Now thou art avenged. Thy husband has boxed the ears of my daughter, and I have boxed the ears of his wife!"—Lustige Blatter.

He Merely Made It. "My boy doesn't seem to have got along here very well," said the office boy's father. "Well, to be perfectly frank with you," replied the employer, "I must say no."

Satisfied. The angular passenger stuck her head out through the car window. "Why," she asked the man on the station platform, "did you speak just now that singular looking machine as 'she'?" "Because, ma'am," replied the man on the platform, "it's a mail satchel." And she took her head in again.—Chicago Tribune.

The Real Truth. "Didn't she marry a 'has been'?" "No. She thought he was a 'will be,' but he turned out an 'isn't'."—Life.

Change. A little change in the hand is worth more than a great change in the weather.—Philadelphia Record.

Riding the Goat. Whence comes the phrase "riding the goat"? Presumably from Egypt and old Nile. Capricornus, the goat of the zodiac, was the patron of the hierophants in the Egyptian mysteries. Knowledge, especially occult and occult knowledge, was under his protection. The goat of earth, but the celestial goat is or was a mighty and mysterious power. It may be a long way from the astrological and astronomical goat to the comic "goat" of modern imitations, but that is not the goat's fault.

Chinese Royal Tea. The tea used in the immediate household of the ruler of China is treated with the utmost care. It is raised in a garden surrounded by a wall, so that neither man nor beast can get anywhere near the plants. At the time of the harvest those collecting these leaves must abstain from eating fish, that their breath may not spoil the aroma of the tea; they must bathe three times a day, and, in addition, must wear gloves while picking the tea for the Chinese court.

Monetary and Commercial.

New York, Feb. 28.—The stock market opened easier and quiet, but more active. The market has been under considerable pressure, the same influence controlling the speculation which contributed to the depression yesterday. These factors are the expectation of an extremely unfavorable bank statement and fear that the Aldrich finance bill will fail of passage. The stock market, which began to rally shortly after 11 o'clock, rose sharply after the bank statement. The close was strong, although a shade under the best prices.
