The Fishing Season.

A force of men were at work at Fish-town this morning laying the platform on the wharf. All the houses have been placed in order for the receipt and packing of fish.

The mild and clear weather of the past few days is tending to the ushering in of the fishing season. The Baltimore papers say the shad season is now on and, judging from the outlook, the shipments to that port will be large.

The hauling of the big seine at the Gums fishing shore, operated by Mr. Theophilus Ballenger, was started Monday, and two hauls are now being made each day. White and yellow perch and other bunch fish and some few herring are now being caught.

River Notes. A force of carpenters is at work on the new electric lighting plant building at Colonial Beach. W. H. Wigston & Bro. will, in a few days, begin the erection of a new wharf in front of the big hotel at Colonial Beach.

The Danville Wreck. As has been stated, coroner's jury called to investigate the collision of two passenger trains in the depot yard of the Southern Railway at Danville on Tuesday, in which two men were killed, has made its report, placing the blame on the railroad company.

A Noted Concert Company. Arrangements have been perfected to bring here the Students' Concert Company, sent out by the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, of Ithaca, N. Y., on Tuesday evening, March 24, for a concert at the Opera House, under the auspices of the Opera House, under the auspices of the First Baptist Church Sunday School.

Fair and Bazar. Osceola Tribe of Red Men have made arrangements for holding a fair and bazar from April 13 to 23, inclusive. Armory Hall will be tastefully arranged for the occasion.

Deaths. Madeline, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. Joshua and Mrs. Lena Harrington, died at her parent's home, 311 north Patrick street, yesterday evening from meningitis.

New Schedule. A new schedule will go into effect on the Washington and Alexandria ferry tomorrow. The trips will be more frequent, the boat not remaining at each end of the route as long as by the present schedule.

North Union Street. People who conduct business on north Union street as well as those compelled to go into that neighborhood are and have been for some time loud in their complaints of the condition of that thoroughfare. The paved portion is seldom cleaned and that which is not—

Arrested in New York. Amos P. Elliott, of Alexandria County, was arrested in New York Thursday and held for requisition papers from Governor Montague. Two warrants alleging grand larceny were recently issued for the young man.

Personal. Mrs. Frank E. Anderson is at the Hotel Albemarle, Atlantic City. Mr. Andrew Nisbett and family expect to move to Baltimore in April, as Mr. Nisbett's business takes him there.

The Market. There was no material change in the market this morning. About the average number of country people and buyers were present.

Former Alexandrian Killed. John Purvis, fireman on the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad, a former resident of this city, was killed in an accident to a freight train last night near Lynchburg.

Bicyclists and Roller Skaters. Mayor Simpson has directed the police to see that people who ride wheels run them at a safe gait on King street. He has also directed the police to clear King street of roller skaters.

Washington's Birthday Association. Another meeting of citizens interested in the formation of an association for the annual celebration of Washington's birthday will be held in the rooms of the Business Men's League on Monday night next at 8 o'clock.

U. D. C. The committee on Southern Cross of Honor being still authorized to bestow that testimonial on all Confederate soldiers in good standing, desire all such papers of eligibility, fill out same, have this properly signed, and send it to the committee soon as possible.

Receiver for Treasury Fund. Howard L. Wilkins yesterday filed suit in Washington against H. Clay Jones, of Alexandria, to have a receiver appointed to take charge of a fund of $1,000, to the credit of the latter, in the United States Treasury.

A Remarkable Case. One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure.
