

MEDICINAL.

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.

Of course every one knew when they were engaged and every one pretended to be surprised when they heard it was suddenly broken off. It was first said she had broken it off, then that his heart had changed, but finally she confessed that she had been so irritable, so depressed and blue that she had fairly driven him away. Her good looks were vanishing. She was getting thin, pale, and hollow-looked, with dark circles around her eyes. Suddenly all society was pleased again to hear of the engagement being renewed, and it was not long before a beautiful and radiant bride was taken to the altar. She had regained her good looks, her former happy disposition and strong nerve all through a secret friend gave her. A few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in whole made two more lives happy and a radiant bride more beautiful than she had ever appeared before.

Lacked up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Protrusion or Prolapse of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I am glad to let others know the great benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Miss Lettie A. Clark, of Jacksonville, Fla. "I suffered from loss of appetite, had very severe attacks of sick headache and nose bleed. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Spear-Wed,' and from the time I commenced these remedies, I felt better. Today I am well, am going to school and can do all the work expected of me."

JAPANESE CROSS YALU RIVER.

Between Monday night and yesterday morning the Japanese forced a passage of the Yalu, two companies crossing between Tchadngjio and Siaopoussikhe. Heavy firing was heard near Tatungkan, in which it is believed the Japanese made a feint in order to distract attention from the real point of passage. So far no bridge spans the river. It is believed the Russian fire succeeded in destroying the floating parts of the Japanese bridges.

The entrance into the service of four submarine boats at Port Arthur means the addition of a new and formidable weapon for the defense of that stronghold. The dispatch of the boats in sections over the railroad has been shrouded in secrecy, and many in St. Petersburg are inclined to doubt the report by officials of their presence at Port Arthur or to accept the information as trustworthy.

An effort now to close or blockade Port Arthur will be too dangerous, it is thought, for Vice Admiral Togo to attempt. The defenders of the port will be able to guard against Japanese submarine vessels entering the harbor and attacking the Russian ships at anchor. It is reported in St. Petersburg that an attempt of the Japanese to cross the Yalu has been frustrated. The authorities have no news of a reported Japanese bombardment of Niuchwang. The Czar has received two official dispatches concerning fighting on the Yalu.

Advices from Mukden indicate that the Russians have completed the concentration of their forces on the Mukden-Liaoyang-Yalu and Mukden-Niuchwang lines. Forty thousand men are occupying fortified positions along the Yalu river, and 20,000 are posted at Taku-shan, at the head of Korea bay, where the Japanese have threatened to make a landing. The Russians also occupy the banks of the Tumen river from the Russo-Korean frontier to Lake Talgi (Paikoussan), on the Manchu-Korean frontier, near the source of the Yalu.

Detachments of Russian cavalry and light artillery hold the towns of Kiolin, Musan and Zunduyan, along the river, and points on the east coast of Korea offering facilities for landings. The Russian foreign office denies that Russian troops have been sent to occupy neutral territory west of the Liao river. No protest has been received from the Chinese government, and it is said China has no ground to protest. The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Paris Matin says: "I learn from a sure source that the Vladivostok squadron yesterday sank four Japanese transports which were conveying 4,000 men. A sensational story in afloat at Cronstadt of an attempt to destroy the battle-ship Alexander III. According to the reports a sailor saw a stranger, wearing the uniform of an officer, going down into the engine-room of the battleship, followed him, and saw the stranger attaching something connected with wire to the dynamo. After the stranger left the sailor examined the attachment and found it to be a bomb. The sailor at once cut the wires, ran upon deck to tell what had happened, and found that the stranger had hanged himself. The crew of the Alexander III, it is added, were instructed not to speak of the occurrence and it is said that the stranger was a madman or a member of some revolutionary organization, to whose lot it had fallen to blow up the Alexander III."

A special cable to the Chicago Daily News, from Kobe, says: "Under full steam a strong squadron of Japanese armored cruisers was observed yesterday morning making its way northward in the Japan sea. It is believed that the vessels are on their way to attempt to cut off the Russian squadron that appeared at Won-san, on the east coast of Korea, Sunday. It is feared, however, that as the Czar's cruisers are superior in speed to those of the Mikado, they may escape in safety to the shelter of Vladivostok. It is also stated that the Japanese have succeeded in luring the Russians from protection of the Vladivostok guns and that there is another Japanese squadron between them and their retreat, but these are mere rumors."

The general opinion is that Vice Admiral Togo is waiting for the Vladivostok squadron is confirmed by the London Daily Telegraph's Tokio correspondent, who says there is no doubt that the Japanese are taking steps to cut off the retreat of the Vladivostok warships.

Pretty Ankles High in Air. A spring display of lingerie and hosiery, wholly unannounced, was made on Saturday afternoon, on Broadway, in New York. The two young models who figured in the affair made a hurried escape, their blushes saving them the pain of being laughed at in the awkward predicament in which they found themselves. They were riding up the street in a hansom, when an accident happened. The belly band of the harness gave away, letting loose the shafts of the hansom. The horse was going at a good trot, and in a moment he was free of the vehicle. Then the hansom tipped backward and the display began. The driver landed on the roadway and his two fares lay on their backs with their feet kicking high in the air. After what seemed a very long time to the victims, but was really only a few minutes, rescuers grabbed the shafts and pulled the hansom down so that the young women found themselves in a sitting posture. "Will you let me long to arrange their shirts," "Will you give me your names?" asked Policeman Brady. "How dare you?" said one of the young women, as she grasped her friend's arm and disappeared.

Tested and found pure for seven years with consent of doctors and druggists, and recommended by all who have used it for medicinal purposes as being the real thing and the healthiest drinking water.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Robinson's statement: Alexandria, Va., April 14, 1904. We lived with our family of eight children for seven years at 911 Wolfe street. After the men put down a lot of pipe in the ground the water came up in the yard and the children and we had no sickness while we drank it. We declare we found it good and healthy and the neighbors remarked that our children looked remarkably rosy. We are now applicants to get back so as to have the benefits of the water. W. B.
