Are Your Lungs Weak?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery CURES Weak Lungs.

$3,000 FORFEIT

Will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"When I commenced taking your medicine, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chaneyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pain in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicine. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly." —

A PROTEST FROM GERMANY.

The German government has taken a prompt and firm stand in regard to the seizure of the mails of the North German Lloyd steamer Prinz Heinrich, which arrived at Aden July 16 from Hamburg and Southampton for Yokohama, by the Russian volunteer fleet steamer Smolensk July 15, having entered a protest against the carrying off of the mails, and asking for a disavowal of the captured mail sacks. The German government, the Foreign Office says, recognizes the right to search mails when on board the vessel itself, but claims the Smolensk had no right to take off mails in bulk from the vessel. The further argument is advanced that the right to search can only be exercised by a warship, whereas the Smolensk traversed the Dardanelles, only recently, flying the Russian commercial flag, not assuming the character of a warship. No answer has yet been received from Russia. Diplomatic circles believe Russia will speedily disavow the seizure, since a refusal to do so will certainly raise the question of the status of the Smolensk. Discussions of the incident among the foreign diplomats show there is a belief that the raising of this question will be extremely awkward for Russia, since the Smolensk passed the Dardanelles as a merchantman and assumed the role of a warship in the Red Sea. In determining her status only two alternatives are permissible—she is either a warrior or a pirate—and Russia having every reason to prevent Germany from pressing for a decision on this point, will, it is believed, gracefully disavow the rash act of the Smolensk.

Two naval orders issued yesterday by the British admiralty are believed to indicate a determination on the part of Great Britain to protect British shipping from unjustifiable acts by the Russian navy. One order directs the Mediterranean squadron to leave Malta and proceed immediately to Alexandria, which is close to the mouth of the Suez canal, and the other directs two fast cruisers to proceed through the Suez canal and take a station on the Red Sea, near the scene of the recent interference by Russian auxiliary cruisers with neutral vessels of Great Britain and Germany.

Strike Situation.

A fresh effort toward a settlement of the packinghouse strike in Chicago was made yesterday afternoon by Secretary C. L. Champ, of the Stationary Firemen's International Union, and by President Joseph Morton, of the local body of the same organization. The two officials, after a conference with President Donnelly, proceeded to call on the packers. The attempt, however, failed, as the packers were all out in the yards and would not be seen.

President Donnelly yesterday sent out a new circular urging the men against violence, as follows:

"We must win. Because every American citizen must have living wages. Must have a good home. Must have the very best for the children. Must have recognition for the union. We can win, if you stick by the union; if we obey the laws of the country, if we molest no person or property and abide strictly by the laws of the country."

A crowd of men concealed behind a fence bombarded a Lake Shore train which had on board 50 negroes bound for the plant of Armour & Co. The train was crossing Wentworth avenue when a volley of bricks and stones was hurled at the windows. The negroes took refuge behind the seats, and no one was injured.

Of the men injured in Sunday night's riot near the stockyards two are still in a critical condition. It is said the others will recover.

Slugged into insensibility by a dozen men early yesterday and left for dead on the tracks of the Ashland avenue trolley line, Anton Bartusiakov, an employe at the Swift packing plant, is dying at the County Hospital. His injuries, in the opinion of Police Inspector Hunt, were inflicted by strike sympathizers and the wheels of a trolley car. The men, according to a witness who has talked to the police, set upon Bartusiakov as he was going home from work. When they could not make him join the strikers they broke his skull, fractured his jaw, kicked him about the face, head and body and then threw him upon the car tracks.

Mysterious Death.

Unconscious from the effects of knock-out drops, and then cast down the cellar steps, where she died either from the effects of the poison or as a result of her fall, was the theory advanced by the New York police yesterday afternoon when they discovered an empty bottle and a glass with a little liquid in it at the bottom of the light shaft in a house on Amsterdam avenue, where the body of an unidentified young woman was found. The body is now at the morgue, where an autopsy to determine the exact cause of death will be held. Dr. Van Winkle, who examined the woman's body shortly after it was found, thinks that the woman's neck was broken. He thinks she may have been brought into the hallway in a dazed condition and flung to the bottom of the cellar doorway. The manner in which the body was
