

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 13, 1904.

REV. DR. ALBERT PIPER, a Philadelphia clergyman, in his sermon last Sunday said "a vacation, spend it where you please, destroys all that has been done in man's better nature during the year and sends him home a moral wreck."

ANTI-SEMITIC riots in Russia are again attracting attention. The Gazette yesterday printed an account of a fierce Jew-baiting riot in Poland in which synagogues were attacked and the worshippers ill-treated and wounded.

A DISMAL incident in connection with the many turmoils now apparent in most parts of the country is the rapid rise in the price of wheat and the announcement that the United States will be compelled to purchase foreign grain in order to keep the wolf from the door until a crop can be raised.

THE OLD republican State central committee of Wisconsin, deciding the republican State convention controversy, yesterday declared that the La. Follette convention was the regular one, and that the nominees of that convention are the only ones entitled to go on the official ballot, under the party designation of "republican ticket."

MAINE has gone republican again, which is another case of the Dutch taking Holland. The democrats, however, made slight gains in various parts of the State, while the republicans sustained corresponding losses.

Russian Cruiser Guarded. San Francisco, Sept. 13.—Guarded by the United States torpedo boat Paul Jones, the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena lies at anchor off the Union Iron Works, and there she is likely to remain until the close of the war.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.) Washington, D. C., Sept. 13. After a conference this morning at the State Department between acting Secretary of State Adee, Judge Penfield, the solicitor of the State Department and Capt. Pillsbury, assistant chief of the bureau of navigation, it was authoritatively announced that the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena at San Francisco was in actual need of repairs requiring about six weeks in which to complete them and that under the law she would be permitted to make those repairs.

Many delegates, accompanied in many instances by their wives, of the Society of Chemical Industry, arrived here this morning for a two days' sight-seeing stay before going to St. Louis to attend the International Congress of Science and Arts. The members of the Society of Chemical Industry of Baltimore and this city combined to entertain the guests, many of whom are from foreign countries.

The investigation of the steamer Slocum horror will be resumed in New York by the commission in charge on Thursday next. The re-inspection of excursion boats in New York harbor has been practically completed. The commission has been resting on its oars, waiting for the completion of this work.

JAPAN PROTESTS. The expected protest of Japan against allowing the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena, which arrived at San Francisco Sunday, to remain longer than 24 hours came yesterday, when the Japanese consul in that city, through the collector of customs, made formal demand that the vessel be required to leave at the end of that time.

Many wild ducks have been seen flying down the river during the past few days. Mrs. H. M. Flagler is reported to have been robbed of money and jewels at a lawn party in Newport, R. I., recently.

News of the Day.

A stray cow was found grazing in the White House grounds directly in front of the Executive Mansion last night. The owner has not yet been found.

It is reported that Senator Gorman will go to New York and become an adviser of the democratic national committee, with an office at headquarters.

Chairman Sheehan, of the democratic executive committee has written a letter in which he denies that there is any friction in the national committee regarding the management of the campaign.

The spectacle of United States Senator Charles Dick and his private secretary, W. E. Marsh, with revolvers in hand, standing over two dogs fighting in Senator Dick's yard, and Arthur Jeffries, coachman of W. B. Miller, secretary of the Diamond Rubber Company, wildly flourishing a whip in close proximity to the Senator's face, caused great excitement at Akron, Ohio, yesterday.

SITUATION IN THE EAST. Marshal Oyama, the Japanese commander-in-chief in Manchuria, has established his headquarters in Liaoyang, and is pushing reinforcements and supplies northward with the evident intention of forcing the Russians into another decisive battle in the vicinity of Mukden.

The London Daily Mail's correspondent with the Japanese repeats from Tientsin a report that Lieutenant General Linevitch, with 50,000 men, invaded northeastern Korea and cut General Kuroki's communications with Feng Wang Cheng.

With the exception of a special dispatch to a London paper, stating that Gen Zassalitch, with a detachment of the Russian rear guard, has been defeated and captured by the Japanese, the sanguinary side of the Russo-Japanese conflict is not now in evidence, and with the practical suspension of news from the front the interest for the time being centers in rumors—that Viceroy Alexieff has resigned, as reported Sunday; that Gen. Kuropatkin is to be replaced by Lieut. Gen. Linevitch, now in command of the forces at Vladivostok, and other statements which cannot be traced to authentic sources, but all of which, if true, would have a most important bearing on the situation.

DEATHS IN VIRGINIA. Mrs. Mary Stickley, wife of David H. Stickley, a farmer, of Vauclose, Frederick county, died Sunday, aged 58 years.

Evangelist Murdered. Simon Talhelm, for a number of years engaged in evangelistic work, was murdered shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home in Hagerstown, Md.

Simon Talhelm, for a number of years engaged in evangelistic work, was murdered shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home in Hagerstown, Md. His lifeless body was found lying on the floor a few minutes after 4 o'clock by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Dayton, who had gone to the house to see the old man.
