WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section increasing cloudiness, followed by rain late tonight, Wednesday clearing; light south to west winds.

The Election.

The election today has been remarkably quiet, and at times no one save those conducting it were to be seen at the voting places. The ballot was a lengthy slip, and would have filled about two-thirds of a column of the Gazette. It was not necessary, however, to glance down the list of names and erase only those of presidential candidates a suffragan did not desire to support. At the foot of the ticket the names of the two candidates for Congress were printed, and it was requisite for the voter to scratch one or the other. The manner of preparing the ticket was simple, but many were apprehensive of making mistakes, and submitted the slip to one of the judges before depositing it. The weather has been all that could have been desired. The number of votes cast at 4 o'clock this evening was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: White, Colored. Rows for First ward, Second ward, Third ward, Fourth ward, and Totals.

Charge Against a Flagman.

Lieut. Smith and Policeman Roberts yesterday found nearly all of the jewelry stolen from Mr. and Mrs. W. M. C. Dodge, living on Thirtieth street, Washington. The missing jewelry, valued at $600, was discovered in a trunk in the home of W. O. Pollard, a flagman on the Southern Railway. Later in the evening Lieut. Smith and Officers Knight and Roberts waited at the Duke street station until the regular evening train from the South, due at 8:45, arrived, when, armed with a warrant issued by Commonwealth's Attorney S. G. Brent, they took Pollard from the train and placed him under arrest. From the beginning Pollard maintained that he was innocent, and said that he found the jewel box on the platform of the railroad station in Washington. Several other articles, believed by the police to have been stolen, were found in Pollard's home, and a further investigation will be made. The jewelry vanished from a trunk October 25 while on the way from Haymarket to Washington. Lieut. Smith gained a clew which led him to suspect Pollard. It was ascertained that the flagman had been a member of the crew of the train on which Mr. and Mrs. Dodge and their trunk were brought to Washington. While Pollard was away on his run yesterday his home was searched and the jewelry found. Pollard was arraigned in the Police Court this morning when the stolen jewelry and other articles were displayed. There were about fifty pieces, including earrings, pins, cuff buttons, studs, &c. There were besides razors and a silver-mounted comb and glass. The comb and glass stolen June 10, belonged to Mrs. C. V. Forsythe, of Front Royal. The jewelry, stolen October 25, was the property of Mr. and Mrs. Dodge. Acting Chief Smith told of searching Pollard's house and finding the missing articles, and Officer Roberts' testimony was substantially the same. Mr. G. P. Duncan, special agent of the Southern Railway, testified to the loss of the comb and brush and jewelry and his efforts to recover the property and identify the thief. Pollard, when asked if he had any statement to make, said he took the comb and glass from a car, but that he found the jewelry and other articles on a platform in the railroad depot in Washington. The accused was sent on to the grand jury.

Pollard was flagman on passenger train No. 18. The baggage car from which the jewelry and other articles were taken belonged to the Manassas division and was coupled to No. 18, north bound, at Manassas. The car was always locked before it was attached to the train on the main stem. A fine plate glass mirror, which had been taken from a Pullman car, was found in Pollard's house. Justice Caton fixed his bail at $2,000. He has not furnished it and is still in custody.

More Stolen Goods.

Officers Smith and Knight and Special Officers Garner and Tesh have recovered more articles stolen from railroad cars, and there is now a large and miscellaneous stock at the station house—enough to stock a country store. In the pile are automobile tires, guns, dry goods, shoes, patent medicines, canned goods, several boxes of tobacco and cigars, smoking tobacco, leather, rope, &c., &c. The bulk of the property was found in M. Hurst's house in Fairfax county, but two guns were found in the possession of an employee at one of the glass factories. The latter says he purchased the fowling pieces from a stranger. Hurst, it will be remembered, avers that he was authorized by railroad agents to purchase the goods.

Football.

The football team of the Alexandria Athletic Association announces that they are prepared to make dates with eleven averaging 140 pounds. The Alexandrians went to Brookland Saturday last and defeated the team from that suburb by a score of 12 to 0. Tomorrow afternoon they will meet the team from Fort Myer, when an interesting game may be expected. On next Saturday the Alexandrians will play the Rhode Island Methodist Protestant eleven from Washington.

At Orange yesterday Woolberry defeated the Episcopal High School in a very close game of football by a score of 6 to 5.

River Notes.

The schooner Wm. H. Maguire has arrived with about 60,000 feet of pine lumber from Nominin. The schooner Leona Bramble, Capt. James Elliott, has gone to Baltimore with a cargo of canned goods from this port. The schooner C. C. Wheeler is loading a general cargo at this port for points on Chesapeake bay.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] City Council vs. Nathaniel Thornton; final decree. City Council vs. Virginia Lancaster; decree dissolving sale.

"A Trip to Africa"

The John Larkins Comedy Company presented the two-act musical farce-comedy "A Trip to Africa" at the Opera House last night to a fair sized audience. The comedy has no plot worth mentioning, but is full of good refined comedy all the way through. The chorus work was unexcelled by any company that has visited Alexandria in a long while. John Larkins was the leader of the fun-makers, and is the equal, if not better, of either Williams or Walker. He is an excellent singer, good comedian and a fine dancer. One of his songs that made a hit with the audience was "Shame On You," sung in a manner far above the average. All the costumes were bright and new, the show was excellently staged, and, taken all in all, was "a head liner." This is one of the best colored troupes on the stage today, and deserved a crowded house, not only of colored people, as some seemed to think it especially caters to, but of whites as well, as in no other city has the company been greeted by so small an attendance of the Anglo-Saxon race. The show is owned and managed by Mr. Lewis Scarpace, well-known in theatrical circles. Should it visit this city again it will, no doubt, be greeted by a crowded house.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dempsey have returned from a visit to friends in Lynchburg. Miss Flora Recker and Mr. Ernest Recker who have been ill from typhoid fever, are improving. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, the new rector of Grace P. E. Church, preached two eloquent sermons on Sunday last to large and appreciative congregations. In addition to the Sunday services there will be held on every Wednesday evening Evening Prayers and a lecture at 7:30 p. m. Miss H. P. Chandler, who recently had an operation performed by Dr. Louis Greene at the Episcopal Eye and Ear Hospital in Washington for the removal of a cataract, expects to return to her home in this city tomorrow. Miss Virginia Burke, Miss Ellen Herbert and Miss Josephine Robinson will give a tea at the Golf Club house next Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Nelson Welford, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with drunken and disorderly conduct on an electric train, was fined $5. John H. Dietrich, arrested by Officers Beach, Allen and Lyles charged with assaulting and beating Grace Winston, was held in the sum of $100 security to keep the peace. Lewis Jackson, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear. Frank Jackson, colored, arrested at the same time on a similar charge, was dismissed. W. O. Pollard, arrested by acting Chief Smith and Officers Roberts and Knight charged with the theft of jewelry, was sent on to the grand jury.

Alexandria Library.

The following list of books has been added to the Alexandria Library: "The Light of the Star," by Hamilton Garland; "In Search of the Unknown," by Robert Chambers; "The Castaway," by Hallie Rives; "Anne Grey," Anonymous; "Heart of Hyacinth," by Onoto Watana; "The Boss," by Alfred Henry Lewis; "The President," by Alfred Henry Lewis; "The Last Hope," by Henry Seton Merriman; "Nancy Starr," by Elliott Lane; "Beverly of Graustark," by George Barr McCutcheon; "The Masquerader," Katharine Cecil Thurston; "The Truants," A. E. W. Mason; "The Affair at the Inn," Kate Douglas Wiggin; "Christmas Eve on Lonesome," John Fox, Jr.; "Russia and the Russians," Edmund Noble; "Mosses from an Old Manse," Nathaniel Hawthorne.

The Water Company.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Alexandria Water Company was held today, Mr. Laurence Stabler presiding. The reports of the officers were read and the old board of directors re-elected, viz: Walter Roberts, E. L. Daingerfield, G. S. French, Hubert Snowden, Worth Hallish, M. Ahern and W. F. Lambert. After the meeting of the stockholders the directors met and re-elected the old officers as follows: Walter Roberts, president; George Uhler, secretary and treasurer; James Everlett, collector, and Chas. A. Power, superintendent. A dividend of $2.50 per share was declared.

Railway Improvements.

President Samuel Spencer of the Southern Railway has returned to Washington from an inspection trip that covered the entire territory touched by his line. He reports conditions as very good, and says that the $25,000,000 which the Southern determined some time ago to put into improvements is going into them rapidly, and the result is being shown. The rolling stock has been improved almost as much. The double track will eventually be extended through to Atlanta.

Christian Endeavorers.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist Protestant Church have elected the following officers for the ensuing six months. President, Faith Henderson; Vice President, Richard G. Hantzmon; Secretary, Mamie Simpson; Treasurer, Flora Glasgow.

Delay.

The polls in West End, Fairfax county, were not opened till eleven o'clock this morning, the old election officers having resigned and those recently elected having failed to be on hand at the proper time—surprise.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a one that constipation is caused by the lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Gibson & Timberna and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Officer Knight today found an umbrella in one of the electric stations. It is at the station house awaiting its owner. The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., will meet at Lee Camp Hall tomorrow (Wednesday) at 8 o'clock p. m. The fair of the Daughters of America will not be opened tonight on account of the election. It will open tomorrow night, however. The Circuit Court for the county, Judge Nicol, was not in session today, having adjourned yesterday until tomorrow. There are but five cases on the court docket. Samuel Garrett, living on Cameron street, Alexandria, was found unconscious on the sidewalk at 13th and B streets northwest Washington, about one o'clock Sunday. The police were notified and Garrett was removed to the Emergency Hospital. It was found by the surgeons that he had sustained a bad fracture of the skull, which he had received by falling.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Abram Hyatt, a presidential elector on the democratic ticket, died today in Ossining, N. Y. Late last night a fire of unknown origin destroyed the Smart & Silbert block, in Oil City, Pa., causing a loss of $275,000. The new six per cent Japanese loan for one million pounds at 90% will be secured by a second charge on the Japanese customs. One half of the loan will be offered in New York and the other half in London.

Traction Cars Collide.

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—In a collision between a Rapid Railway suburban car and a Cincinnati Traction car, at Sixth street and Gilbert avenue, Tuesday morning, O. J. Riley was killed and several others injured, some seriously. Peter Campbell, colored, was badly hurt and was taken to a hospital. Among the others injured was William Steins, internally, and Mrs. Isadore Ivison, who was taken from the wreck unconscious. The traction car was backing down the hill which is quite steep when it hit the Rapid Railway car. The motorman of the latter, jumped. Motorman Ferris, of the traction car, stuck to his post, attempting to reverse his car to save it, and was caught and badly crushed.

Mrs. Maybrick Seeks Children's Love.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Florence Maybrick will come to Washington the latter part of this month and make her home with a prominent railroad official there. She will write the story of her sad life, in the hope that the recital of the suffering she has undergone will bring back the lost love of her two children, who still believe her to be guilty of the crime of which she was convicted.

Gale in England.

London, Nov. 8.—British coasts were swept by a terrific gale which lasted throughout the night. There were many wrecks of small craft reported and a number of rescues by the life saving crews. No serious casualties have been reported.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 8.—Mayor J. H. Powell, of this city, in issuing his Thanksgiving proclamation, says: "Let us be thankful that our colonels are not so full of corn as our corn is full of kernels. Though the surrounding soil, tickled with a hoe, is laughing with a harvest, poor folks are still with us. From this soup and cold potatoes, Good Lord, deliver them!"

Wed Four Women in Four Weeks.

A dispatch from Indianapolis, Ind., says: Four wives, accumulated in less than four weeks, is the record made by Edward H. Lane, of New York, whose brother is a surgeon at Bellevue Hospital. Lane was arrested at Logansport Friday and described his marriage least as great sport. He went to Cincinnati to visit relatives and wood and in two days won and married Miss Minnie Veiling. He then went to Indianapolis, where he espoused Mrs. Minnie Wilson, a dashing young widow. He spent two days with her, and then said he had to go to Marion, Ind. There he met Mrs. Lulu Young Brubaker, a divorced young woman of 22 and strikingly beautiful. He wooed and won her and married again after an elopement last Tuesday. On went the Lothario to Logansport, Ind., where yesterday he was married a fourth time.

Beat His Own Mother.

Joseph O. B. Cawood, a King George politician, was on Thursday last indicted by the grand jury, and on Saturday evening was arrested and lodged in jail on a charge of assault and battery on his mother. Cawood was one year ago the republican candidate for the State Senate in that senatorial district, in opposition to C. Harding Walker, the present Senator, and was previously a candidate for the House of Delegates for King George and Stafford. He is the man who wrote that notoriously eccentric letter to "Uncle Joe" Cannon, Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, about a year ago, asking certain legislation by the national lawmakers. The letter is remembered as a very remarkable production, and was reproduced by many of the leading newspapers making the author famous far beyond his county.
