MEDICINAL CUPID'S MIRROR.

"The beauty of a woman's face or figure is but the external sign of the good health within," says Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the specialist in women's diseases. Further, to be happy and beautiful one must naturally have good health. Now, if a woman has dragging-down feelings, together with constantly recurring pains and aches, a too great drain upon her vitality and strength, she will never look beautiful. The feelings of nervousness, the befogged mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, all result from those disorders peculiar to women, and the only way to effect their cure is to strike at the source of the difficulty. There is every reason why she should write some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century like Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge.

During a long period of practice, Doctor Pierce found that a prescription made up entirely of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, cured ninety-eight per cent. of such cases. After using this remedy for many years in his private practice he put it up in a form that can be had at any store where medicines are handled.

In many cases, Dr. R. V. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will fit the needs and put the body in healthy condition.

So sure of it is Dr. Pierce, he offers a reward of $500 for women who cannot be cured of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Eruptions, or Falling of Womb. All he asks is a fair and reasonable trial of his means of cure.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering you a cheap substitute.

Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing and get Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, his paper covers free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

WATSON IN PROPHETIC ROLE.

Thomas E. Watson, recently candidate of the people's party for President, yesterday addressed a large crowd at Crawfordsville, Ga., the former home of Alexander H. Stevens. His address was received with close attention, but with no marked enthusiasm. He spoke in part as follows:

"In national politics the democratic party stands without a party, a declaration of principles or accepted leader. It is utterly bankrupt in reputation. It has no unity of conviction, sentiment or purpose. It contains antagonistic elements which can never be harmonized. Its secret purpose is so foreign to what democratic masses approve that the eternal struggle of the national leaders is to prevent the democratic masses from penetrating that secret purpose."

"What is that secret purpose? To use the democratic party in support of the same system of class legislation which the republican party stands for. The watchword is, 'Keep up the attack upon republican individuals, but do not attack the system of special privileges which is responsible for present conditions.' In other words, the secret mission of the democratic party is to keep up a sham battle."

"By keeping the party divided and deluded they hinder the organization of a real opposition to privileged class legislation and corporate greed. Thus the democratic national party is the best friend of which the plutocratic republican party can boast, for the Belmonts, who call themselves democrats, are just as much in favor of special privileges as the Carnegies and Morgans, who call themselves republicans."

"I make this prediction: Bryan will be the candidate of the democratic party in 1908. And I make this second prediction: 'When Bryan runs for President in 1908 as the candidate of the Parker-Belmont-Cleveland-Jordan combine he will be a worse beaten man than Parker ever was.'"

"Does Mr. Bryan sincerely believe that he can commit the national democratic convention to his recently repaired and replenished populist platform? If so, he must see that the country would have two populist parties. Such a contingency would be laughable were not the crisis so grave. Mr. Bryan must know that his program promises nothing better than a spectacular combat at another St. Louis convention, with another 'dog fall' as the result, another surrender on the part of Mr. Bryan, another sham battle before the people and another Waterloo in which all will be lost, including honor."

"The democratic party can no longer claim to be national. It is sectional. The South is still its victim. The South is still the quadrilateral which corrupt or stupid Southern politicians deliver to Wall street. But for the solid South the eastern democracy would have to shut up shop, join the republicans and face a genuine party of opposition."

"What keeps the South solid? Nothing in the world except an out-of-date sectional animosity and the shamelessly hypocritical cry of negro domination. 'In each Southern State there is a monopoly of privilege and power which is fighting for its life. As a rule, the monopoly is based upon the support of northern railroads, northern banks, northern manufacturers, the school-book trust and the cottonseed oil trust. Fed doubtfully from these rich sources the democratic machine in the Southern States is very highly indeed. It wants no change. Southern politicians will sacrifice the national ticket any time to maintain the local monopoly.'"

"And the 'negro question' is the joy of their lives. They exist upon it. They fatten on it. With one shout of 'nigger' they can run native democrats to their homes at any hour of the day. Men who appear to have some common sense in other directions lose all their mental bearings when the 'negro question' is sprung, and they immediately begin to hop around in a Dervish dance of the political hysteria."

"The South cannot afford to be sectional. In self-defense she must be national. If we allow our Southern leaders to put us in a degrading position nationally ours is the fault. As long as we allow the solid South to be a political slave to a handful of eastern capitalists we may expect to feel the lash of the slave driver and to feel the weight of the chain."

"Let us put a finish to this degradation of the South. Let us assert our manhood against the tyranny of political bosses. Let us break the shell of this burbonism, which neither learns nor forgets."

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse. Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old-fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., Druggists.

Thousands Cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of Piles. "I bought a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the recommendation of our druggist," so writes C. H. LaCroix, of Zavalla, Tex., "and used it for a stubborn case of Piles. It cured me permanently." Sold by all druggists.
