WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Wednesday; fresh westerly winds.

Accident to Crane Car.

By the overturning of a crane car at the crossing of the new railway tracks and Braddock road, a short distance north of this city, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, two men were injured. Samuel Stebbins, an engineer, whose home is in North Carolina, and John Ford, an iron worker, from near Farmville, Va., were the victims of the accident. The former has a broken arm and is cut and bruised about the head. Ford is hurt about the head and back, and it was at first thought his injuries were fatal, but it was subsequently seen that he was not seriously hurt. The crane car on which the men were employed was lifting into position an iron girder weighing over eight tons, when the car toppled over, it is said, from the foundation giving away under it. A number of iron workers who were on the car jumped and escaped injury, but Ford and Stebbins were less fortunate. The injured men are in the employ of the American Bridge Company, of Phoenixville, Pa., which has the contract for constructing the bridge work incident to the railway improvements near Alexandria. Both men were brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital. It is said that the men were operated the crane had been warned of its dangerous position.

Defacing Property.

A large number of residents of this city are kept in a chronic state of exasperation by the vandalism of certain persons—presumably boys—who deface houses and fences in various ways. It either is painted in a light color charcoal is introduced; if of a dark hue chalk is freely used. Besides this species of wanton defacement, houses and fences are often cut and otherwise rendered unsightly, while stone doorsteps are attacked with hammers and other implements of destruction. Many years ago the City Council passed an ordinance providing for a fine of five dollars upon such offenders, and examples should be made of a few of them.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Lee Odell, arrested by Officer Mayhugh charged with using abusive language toward George Lucas, was dismissed. Peter Macabee, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with assaulting and beating Ann Jordan, was dismissed. Hattie Conway, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with assaulting John Dogan with a pistol, was dismissed, and the latter fined $10 for assaulting the woman.

Sent to Jail.

Fortune-tellers have rough experiences in Washington. William Houston and William Burke, who are said to follow this vocation, were arranged in Police Court yesterday with four charges of larceny against them. The men are said to have visited the homes of poor people, mostly negroes, and posing as wizards, swindled them out of small sums of money. After the evidence was heard, Judge Scott sentenced each of the defendants to eleven months and twenty-nine days in jail, remarking as he did so, "The law is intended to reach just such rascals as you fellows."

A Happy Gathering.

Mr. Charles H. Zimmerman gave an opening entertainment last night at his hotel in Market alley. A large number of Mr. Zimmerman's patrons, friends and acquaintances who had been invited were present and all experienced a pleasant evening. Mr. Zimmerman has recently enlarged the old Market alley hostelry and in a measure metamorphosed the building. It is one of the most popular restaurants in the city and the number of its patrons is increasing daily.

Potomac Steamboat Service.

A letter from King George to the Fredericksburg Lance says: "The people of King George are dissatisfied with the inadequate steamboat service on the Potomac. There is only one boat plying between Washington and lower Westmoreland and the schedule is such that the people of this county must do their shipping and traveling to Alexandria and Washington on Sundays or in the night. The only day-time service is a boat down the river on Saturdays and up on Sundays."

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, elected the following officers yesterday afternoon: President, Miss Loula Smit; first vice president, Mrs. George L. Simpson; second vice president, Mrs. W. N. Harris; recording secretary, Mrs. George Warfield; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John M. Johnson; treasurer, Miss Dolly Peyton; register, Mrs. Blanche Berkley; historian, Mrs. William Wood.

Preparing for Improvements.

The Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company is preparing for certain contemplated improvements to their works in this city. The acid plant is to be materially enlarged, and the plans for the construction of the bridge across Union street and a wharf on the Strand have been completed. Work on both will be commenced in a short time. The old brick building adjoining the Globe Mills on the north is to be remodeled and utilized by the company.

Royal Arcanum.

The Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum met in Richmond today. Messrs. R. W. Arnold, H. K. Field, D. H. Apple and J. E. Shinn, of Alexandria Council, left last night. The two first-named are ex-officio members of the Grand Council. The others are the regularly-elected representatives. Messrs. G. H. Schwab and J. F. Petty are representatives of George Mason Council.

The Washington conference of the M. E. Church, colored, adjourned in Winchester yesterday. Among those appointed were D. W. Hays, presiding elder of this district, and J. W. Colbert, clerk.

Two Men Shot.

About one o'clock this afternoon Fishtown was convulsed by a difficulty which occurred between some negroes engaged in cutting fish. It seems that William McKee, who had been drinking, became involved in an altercation with Bud Washington, and the cause of the latter having been espoused by John Toliver, McKee drew a pistol and fired four shots at him, none of which took effect. The culprits dropped their knives, and the attention of nearly everybody on the wharf was called to the act. Toliver ran aboard a vessel and McKee started to leave the wharf. He was followed by a number of persons, white and colored, and the fugitive started toward a northwestern part of the city, brandishing his pistol and ordering the crowd to keep away. When he reached the intersection of Pendleton and Wythe streets McKee discharged his pistol into the crowd and the ball struck George Griffin, white, in the leg, and he fell. McKee also fired at R. Bert Harris, colored, and the ball also lodged in one of his legs. The negro ran and the remainder of the crowd followed him. McKee kept on until he reached the extreme western portion of the city. The crowd of pursuers had by this time considerably increased, and every now and then McKee turned and threatened to shoot his pursuers. None seemed to have the temerity to draw close to him until he had reached the new railway embankment near the Mispot road, when it was suggested that McKee's pistol was empty. The crowd then closed in on the fugitive, disarmed and assaulted him. Officer Young was one of the pursuers, and he rescued McKee from the crowd and took him in charge. McKee acted as a maniac on the way to the station house and attracted a large number of people. The officer was assisted by a young man named Griffin. Lieutenant Smith met Mr. Young as he drew near the station house and assisted in placing McKee in a cell.

River Notes.

The United States lighthouse tender Maple is now engaged in replacing the buoys from Riverside up toward Alexandria. She has completed the work of rebuoysing the river in this vicinity.

Mr. William C. Wattle, agent of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company in this city, has been placed in charge of the ferry wharf property here, recently purchased by the new corporation. It is understood that Mr. J. B. Padgett is no longer connected with the company or its successor.

The schooner Sidonia Curley, from the Rappahannock river with lumber to H. K. Field & Co., has arrived. A handsome New York yacht is lying at Mr. J. W. Hammond's wharf. Two or three times a year the yacht visits this port for the purpose of filling its tanks with Mico water.

The granite building stone to be used in the construction of the new union railroad depot adjoining Alexandria is being landed at Mr. Hammond's wharf.

Confederate Veterans' Building.

When the property No. 806 Prince street was purchased, by R. E. Lee Camp, No. 2, C. V., a committee of ladies was appointed to solicit contributions for payment of same. Money was collected from various sources and our people will be glad to know more than one-half has been paid. A system of annual subscriptions has been established, many friends and well wishers pledging themselves to a stated amount for a term of years. Many of these subscribers, realizing the great effort these ladies are making to secure enough money during the coming month to make another payment, have expressed a desire to pay up their subscription in full. The committee will wait on the citizens generally in a short while with the sincere hope that many may be added to the subscription list. Persons desiring to aid in this memorial to the Confederate Veterans are requested to communicate with the committee.

Death of Mrs. Simpson.

Mrs. Sarah F. Simpson, wife of Mr. Henry Simpson, died at her home, 309 south Washington street, yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 69 years old and was a consistent christian, a loving mother and a faithful friend. She combined in her personality many lovable traits of character. She is survived by her husband, 9 children and 22 grandchildren. Her children are W. H. Simpson, of Richmond; E. K. and J. F. Simpson, of Manchester; Mrs. T. J. Davis, Mrs. J. F. and Mrs. H. C. Myers, Lillie, Clarence and George Simpson, of this city.

The Easter German.

The committee having in charge the Easter german of the Alexandria German Club have decided to make the dance to be given at McBurney's Hall on Friday, April 28, a favor one, and will distribute during the evening to those dancing upwards of 1,000 favors, many of which will be both beautiful and novel. A collation will be served during the evening.

Buildings in West End.

Messrs. Clinton and Frank Ballenger are having erected in West End four attractive eight-room brick dwellings. The construction is in accord with modern plans and each building will be equipped with sanitary plumbing arrangements and fitted with gas fixtures, anticipating that in the near future gas or electric lighting will be introduced into that neighborhood.

The Cold Wave.

The cold weather which set in Saturday night held its own yesterday and throughout last night, and this morning the mercury in the thermometer stood at 42°. The heavens were overcast and conditions threatening. The temperature was raw and cold and fires were much enjoyed. The frost is believed to have caused serious damage to the fruit hereabouts.

The Fishery.

There has been a falling off in the receipts of herring during the past few days, and prices have advanced. They were selling at from $3.50 to $4 per thousand from the boats this morning, but packers were receiving from $5 to $5.50. Shad were quoted at from $25 to $50 per hundred. Pan fish are scarce and high.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] City Bank and Trust Company of Alabama vs. Mt. Vernon Insurance Company, a suit for non-payment of loss on a policy; case continued till July term.

A Silver Tea.

Books, books, books—and books! And smeltling else beside— For poets tell, and we all know, That man cannot abide— Where there're no books— So we'll serve cake, and candy, too, Some chocolate and tea for you— Then—buy more books! There is nothing like the dogma to create the dream; there is nothing like the dream to engender the future; Utopia today—flesh and bones tomorrow. Those inspiring words of the great immortal—Victor Hugo—define, exactly, the raison d'etre of the Alexandria Library, which owes its inception to the opinion of one woman in our midst that a collection of books for general circulation amongst "bookishly inclined" Alexandrians was an imperative necessity. Her actuating resolution inspired other women to dream her dream, which came true in the establishment of the Alexandria Library, now a substantial institution, with many books upon its shelves and in circulation, but with room for ever so many more. Dolcissimo niente summer days will soon be here, when the mind, taking holiday, will find leisure to desire to meander, with enjoyment, through the happy world of books, in search of the newest and best in current literature. In preparation for just such leisured minds the Board of Management of the Alexandria Library, on Thursday afternoon, April twenty-seventh, at their rooms on Prince street, will hold a silver tea for the benefit of the library, and a portion of the silver offering will be used for the immediate purchase of some new and high-priced books. The board promises its guests a good time, with—"A feast of reason" on the shelves. Sweet draughts from friendship's bowl— Which, joined to brimming cups of tea, Shall start a flow of soul. There friend may meet with dearest friend, and make this Silver Tea The season's greetings to new books— A book-souled rhapsody! The Board of Management takes pleasure in inviting to the tea all subscribers, as well as all book-lovers, and any others interested in the library cause. The tea will be served from 4 to 6 p. m.

Easter Music.

The music to be rendered next Sunday, Easter, by the different church choirs promises to surpass all former efforts. Several of the choirs have been augmented by some well known singers and the programmes to be sung have been well selected. The following is some of the music to be rendered: Christ Church—Hymn, "Processional, No. 121," "Christ Our Passover," "Buck," "Gloria Patria," "Bella," "Te Deum," "Alzamor," "Jubilata," in A flat, Hymn; "Offertory," "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Wilson; Hymns appropriate to the day. St. Ann's—"Soprano, Miss M. R. Greenwell; contralto, Miss Emma Houchens; tenor, Mr. Kenneth Ogden; basso, Mr. Charles W. Moore; organist, Mrs. Charles G. Lennon. St. Mary's—"Soprano, Miss Annie Gorman; contralto, Miss Agnes Del, from La Hache. Choir: Sopranos, Miss Jacob Brill, Mrs. Peter Lawrence, Miss Annie Stoutenburg, Miss M. Cregan and Miss M. Nugent; alto, Mrs. Mamie Bowring; Miss Annie Gorman and Miss Marie Brooks; tenors, Messrs. P. F. Downey, T. A. Stoutenburg and I. P. Harlow; bass, Mr. Robert Wenzel; organist, Mr. Joseph M. Monroe.

The Recent Lorton Tragedy.

Commonwealth's Attorney Ford, of Fairfax county, at the request of the Governor, today went to Lorton and investigated the recent killing of the Italian, who had previously shot and killed George Malcolm at that place. After examining many witnesses of the affair Mr. Ford said that the man who attempted to arrest the Italian was a legally organized posse and that the killing of the Italian, if he was killed by a shot from the posse, was fully justifiable. This he will report to the governor, who will report to the State Department, which in turn will report to the Italian Minister. Mr. Ford said that the man who attempted to arrest the Italian showed marked bravery in the affair.

Alarm of Fire.

The alarm of fire shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon was caused by the discovery of a slight fire in a building on the east side of Fairfax street, between Cameron and Queen. A brisk northwest wind was blowing at the time and there was some apprehension as to what would be the result of the fire, but the department, which was soon on hand, quickly extinguished it. The building was formerly known as St. Mary's Academy. The damage was slight. While the above fire was in progress the roof of a house on Queen street caught fire from flying sparks. This was extinguished before any serious damage resulted.

Mr. W. P. Taylor this morning opened his drug store, No. 616 King street. The store has been renovated and improved and handsomely refitted and is now one of the most attractive drug stores in the city. During the day a large number of Mr. Taylor's friends called to wish him every success.
