PRICE 2 CENTS.

VOLUME CXL--NO 130.

$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription nor Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "booze."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates an invigorating stomach, liver and bowels, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood and tones up the system generally.

"Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, ex-hausting drains, painful periods and kindred ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means selfishness on the part of the doctor who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and we were advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. C. Fox, of 57 E. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then she advised us to get the Golden Medical Discovery" also. She took four bottles of the "Prescription" and three of the "Golden Medical Discovery," and you never saw such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every one. I advise parents who have young daughters who suffer from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY. In copies of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $50,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall carry away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once become infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand -- swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and my stomach very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured. MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me. D. KAUBLE, Nevada, O.

THE RECENT BATTLE.

Further authentic details of the naval battle in the Strait of Korea and Japan show that torpedo boats wrought the greatest destruction among the Russian ships. When the flag of action was hoisted on the Japanese flagship the signal read:

"The destiny of our empire depends upon this action. You are all expected to do your utmost."

The Japanese fleet gradually inclosed the Russian on all sides and the torpedo boats sunk one ship after another. The Russians were unable to repel the attack at night.

While the Japanese suffered a loss of less than 800 men in killed and wounded, it is estimated that the Russian losses were from 7,000 to 9,000, not including nearly 4,000 taken prisoners.

The first shell that struck the conning tower of Admiral Voelkersham's flagship, the battleship Osabaya, killed the Admiral. The ship was sunk.

Nearly 3,800 Russian prisoners have landed at Nagasaki.

An officer of the Borodino, who is at Sasebo, in describing his experiences in the recent naval conflict says:

"I was in the forward barbettes in charge of one of the 12-inch guns when the signal to begin firing was given. The ship nearest to us was the Shikisima, whose projectiles began to reach us a few moments after the light began. I fired the first gun at 1:30 and was overjoyed to see that it reached its mark, for the Japanese vessel was struck in her upper works and did not return the fire for at least ten minutes. At this early stage of the battle Admiral Rojestvensky came aboard the Borodino and directed the fighting from the bridge.

"Immediately afterward a projectile struck my barrette and rendered every one inside insensible. The barrette was filled with smoke. I groped my way out. The decks were raining with projectiles. Dozens of men were lying dead or wounded at every turn. When the barrette was clear I re-entered with the crew, but only had time to fire two more rounds when two projectiles struck simultaneously and disabled both 12-inch guns, wrecking the barbettes and killing eighteen officers and men."

"I crawled on deck to one of the 6-inch guns, which was surrounded with dead and wounded. Here I remained for an hour, during which time the Borodino became a shambles. The wardroom and staterooms were crowded with wounded. Nearly every ammunition hoist had been wrecked and shells had to be passed by hand. A shell struck the port screw and another disabled the steering gear. The signal mast was carried away.

"Presently, when everything seemed worse than confusion, a quartermaster told me that the admiral was wounded and was being taken to another ship in a destroyer. I saw the destroyer leave amid a hail of small arm ammunition, but fortunately none struck her.

"At 4 o'clock the Borodino was down by the head. She had been hit several times. There was no hope of saving her. The Japanese ships, having succeeded in breaking out battle formation, came closer and brought every available gun to bear. Our fighting tops were particular targets. Not one of the men stationed there was apparently alive. I volunteered to go up with a few men, and the sight there even in the midst of the desperate battle was so terrible that it has haunted me.

"I me and robbed me of sleep ever since. The men in the tops had been hacked to pieces by the fire of the Japanese. The machine guns were hopelessly ruined.

"Fire broke out in several places, and this added to the horrors of our already sorely tried vessel. The fire call sounded, but so many were dead or wounded and the falling projectiles made it so difficult to operate that there was no chance to subdue the flames. It was therefore resolved to withdraw from the line of fighting.

"Our steering apparatus had been repaired, but eight Japanese ships closed round us and bombarded us from every side. Our forward guns were useless, but we did good work with the after 12-inch guns and those 6-inch guns which were not out of action, though they were worked with only half their complement of men. The Borodino sank lower and lower and was a fine target for the overwhelming superiority of the enemy, but we fought on desperately although hopelessly.

"Toward evening, after a long afternoon of terrible exhaustion, during which there was neither time to eat nor drink, and after we had lost fully 400 killed or wounded, we noticed two Japanese destroyers bearing down. One of them we sunk with a shell from a 6-inch gun, but the other came safely and launched a torpedo and swept past our bow unharmed. The torpedo missed us. The chief engineer now came to inform us that the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to keep the men below. A moment later the engine room crew were driven out by the flames.

"We expected every moment to be blown up and were preparing for the inevitable when a whole flotilla of torpedo boats came down on us. In five minutes the end had come. An explosion caused the ship to turn turtle. I was drawn down deep and was struck by a piece of wreckage, but a boat from a destroyer

OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It

When a physician tells a woman suffering with ovarian or womb trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for ovarian or womb operations.

Miss Margaret Merkley

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of ovarian and womb trouble cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margaret Merkley of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-- "Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had ovarian trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Ovarian and womb troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive--if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing down pains, leucorrhoea, don't neglect yourself; try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

I picked me up and forty others from the Borodino and took us to the Kasuga, from which we were transferred to the shore."

Short Sermons For No Hats.

Unique agreement between Rev. J. O. Thomas, pastor of Laurel Street Methodist Church, Richmond, and the ladies of his congregation. Mr. Thomas made the statement at the end of a sermon last Sunday that he would be obliged to them if they would leave their hats at home. "You will be so much more comfortable," said the pastor, "and if you will do my sermon will be short during the hot weather." The ladies received his request with enthusiasm and agreed to it without a dissenting voice.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Gen. W. Hoffmann, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unobtainable relief I thank you for your kind and helpful letters. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.
