Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing, cordial and restorative tonic. As a soothing and strengthening nerve Favorite Prescription is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newell's Hairdressing. It is absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs, it allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the least quick.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 2 cents. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Revolution Imminent?

France at the present moment is said to be facing the gravest peril that can menace a democracy or any form of government. The law has bowed before the mob in more than one disturbed district, with the inevitable result. Rebellion has begun, and anarchy threatens to swiftly follow, not only at the scenes of the prevailing riots, but in Paris itself. The attention of the world cannot fail to concentrate on the tremendous object lesson in modern statecraft which France will be compelled to furnish in the next few days.

Since the retirement of Prime Minister Waldeck-Rousseau the country has not had a strong government in its internal administration. Weakness first manifested itself in tolerance of verbal defiance of the law. Even President Loubet on one occasion permitted a red flag to pass him in procession without protest. Virtual treason has been talked openly in certain quarters for months past.

There will be attempts made to connect the present labor insurrection with the agitation against the religious separation law. The only connection is the effect of a bad example. It was in dealing with the rioters who opposed the authorities taking inventories of church property that the government first openly condoned violent defiance of the law. Citizens who flagrantly assaulted public officers and soldiers who refused to obey orders were allowed to get scot-free. Attempts to enforce the law in districts where it was especially unpopular were finally abandoned entirely under the plea of inexpediency.

During the recent disorders incident to the strike the troops were instructed to show themselves for moral effect, but on no account to use their arms, even in self-defense. The rioters speedily took advantage of this licensed lawlessness. They destroyed everything they could lay their hands on, including the railway and telegraph lines, looted shops and burned houses. The mob attacked the troops in the streets, pelting them with a murderous fusillade of bricks, stones, and other missiles. One or two were killed and many wounded. The men composing the military force in the district are from a distant part of France. They have no sympathy with the strikers, and there is not the smallest doubt that they would gladly obey orders to suppress the rebellion. Their courage under the most trying circumstances is in strong contrast to the pusillanimity of their civil superiors who deprived them of the right to defend the law.

The minister of the interior went to the disturbed districts. He told the leaders of the strike that they really must not act in this violent way. At the close of his visit there was an amazing scene. M. Clemenceau walked in a friendly way down the street with a large company of revolutionists. There was a red flag in the group, and some sang the seditions song "Internationale." They met a column of cavalry, and M. Clemenceau's companions joined in loud hisses and jeers, and the minister of the interior listened in silence. He made no attempt to identify himself with the insult to authority.

It is not to be wondered at that the movement is spreading like wildfire among all the malecontents in the country. Great strikes are now in progress at Brest, Toulon, and most of the seaports, and every preparation has been made in Paris for a general outbreak on May day or earlier.

The Paris Temps says: "The insurrection gains in violence, in extent and in perfection also. Each day records a new victory for the revolutionary strategists. On Friday morning at Haveluy they routed two squadrons, seriously wounding a captain and several troopers. At nightfall they seized the village of Lievin, occupied the railway, tore up the gas lamps and telegraph posts and planted the red flag on the ruins of a burned house. Thus the revolutionary standard flew from victory to victory, one day throwing its protective color over a minister's head and the next day demonstrating the powerlessness of the same minister to combat against it."

M. Clemenceau apparently fears to restore order because, his enemies say, he is afraid of the use of bullets and bayonets would cause him to lose in the elections of May 6. This might be the consequence, for organized labor would resent the shooting of mobs of strikers, even if they assumed the character of revolutionists. His hesitation to uphold the law at any cost, however, now promises to result in a bloody chapter of French history. The government itself is most concerned about Paris. They fear not only demonstrations by a mob, but anarchistic outrages. There will be thousands of troops in or near Paris by the end of the week, and there is no reason to believe they are disloyal.

A Young Mother of 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. Greatest restorative medicine on the globe. Sets Stomach, Liver and Kidneys right, purifies the blood and cures Malaria, Biliousness and Weakness. ## Summer Schools.

It was officially announced Saturday by Superintendent of Public Instruction Eggleston that it has been decided to hold the summer institutes at Norfolk, Farmville, Martinsville, Fredericksburg, Winchester, Covington, Big Stone Gap and Emory and Henry College. It has not been decided whether an institute will be held at Radford. The usual school of methods will be held at Charlottesville, to be conducted by Mr. Edward C. Glass, of Lynchburg. These institutes will begin about June 28th and will last for one month, affording the teachers an opportunity to take the examinations to be held July 30, 31 and August 1. These examinations are for such teachers as do not take the examinations May 3, 4 and 5, which have been arranged in some sections.

Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, allow complexion, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton and Company.
