Excursion on the Jamestown.

Sixteen hundred residents of Alexandria and Washington were the guests Saturday afternoon of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, when the initial trip of the company's new steamer Jamestown was taken down the river as far as Aquia creek and back. The trip was made under the personal supervision of President Woodbury and General Passenger Agent Callahan, accompanied by a staff of officials, who looked after the comfort of the visitors. The main deck of the Jamestown was decorated with palms and ferns, while a large orchestra entertained the passengers throughout the trip. In the dining-room an elaborate luncheon was served on the way down the river. There was dancing during the evening, and all the excursionists experienced a delightful time. The Jamestown is longer than the Norfolk and Washington, and being without the state-rooms essential to a night boat, is much more roomy. Her speed is about 18 knots an hour. During the remainder of the present summer the Jamestown will be used for river and bay excursions, both by day and by night. She will carry 3,000 people. She is beautifully fitted out, the saloon being furnished with innumerable easy rockers and lounging chairs, while for the decks there is a sufficiency of comfortable deck chairs and camp stools. All who made the trip Saturday are profuse in the praises of the new boat.

Baseball.

The game of baseball Saturday afternoon at the old fair grounds between the Fort Myer club and the team representing the Alexandria Athletic Association, ended in the fifth inning. The Fort Myer team declined to continue playing owing to a decision by the umpire, who called an Alexandria player safe at first base when, it is claimed, he was out. The batter bunted and the Fort Myer pitcher got the ball and threw it to first base. When the umpire called the runner safe the pitcher left the field and was followed by the remainder of the visiting team.

The Churches.

Two of the ministers recently ordained at the Episcopal Theological Seminary officiated yesterday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Rev. J. M. B. Gill, in the morning, and Rev. R. W. Trapnell at night. At Christ Church Rev. E. P. Danbridge, who was also ordained last week, preached in the morning. At the Second Presbyterian Church, which is at present without a regular pastor, Rev. D. H. Scanlon, preached morning and evening. Rev. J. W. Gray, of Baltimore, preached for Rev. J. H. S. Ewell at the Methodist Protestant Church. The pulpits of the other churches were occupied by the resident clergymen.

Fight on a Train.

About one o'clock this morning a fight took place between some white and colored men on an electric train bound for this city, during which Harry Massey, it is alleged, struck a colored man named Richard Boyd with a whiskey bottle. Officers Beach and Garvey subsequently arrested Massey. He was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning when the evidence showed the fight took place a short distance this side of Four-mile run. Massey was held for the action of the Alexandria city authorities. A citizen who witnessed the row says Massey struck Boyd with his fist and that another man threw the bottle. Warrants were issued for the arrest of four other men charged with being participants in the fight.

Features of Luna Park.

The entire amusement-seeking population for miles around Washington are greatly indebted to the management of Washington Luna Park for the opening of this immense pleasure resort on the banks of the Potomac river. Notwithstanding the fact that there are no less than six large amusement enterprises in and about Washington, it remained for the Luna Park people to furnish the exact quality and quantity of entertainment that had so long been desired and needed. Since the opening of the season on the evening of May 28th it has been estimated that no less than 700,000 people have passed through the park gates. An interesting fact in this connection is that most of these have been women and children. Next week Revella's Concert Band of sixty pieces will entertain park patrons with the latest classical and popular selections from the gigantic "musical shell," which has been such a favorite lingering place for all lovers of hand music. The popular ragtime concert will be offered as usual during the engagement. During the present season special excursions are being arranged with all railroads entering Alexandria, so that every possible convenience will be established to pleasure-seekers who are desirous of seeking this magnificent resort. For all lovers of clean, wholesome, refreshing amusement, without intoxicating liquors, Washington Luna Park fills the bill.

Consecration of a Chapel.

Christ Episcopal Chapel at Groveton, Fairfax county, about three miles south of this city, was consecrated by Bishop Gibson yesterday morning. The clergy present beside the Bishop were Rev. E. W. Trapnell and Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, the latter of whom preached the sermon. After the consecration of the chapel, setting it apart from all worldly and unallowed uses, Bishop Gibson confirmed two persons, and administered the holy communion. The service was very impressive and was attended by a large congregation. Christ Chapel is one of the Seminary missions and is served by students under the superintendence of Rev. Dr. Wallis. The present edifice was built about two years ago chiefly through the untiring efforts of Rev. Luther S. Morton, then a student at the Seminary, upon land given by Mr. Reed of "City View." The people of the neighborhood contributed generously to the building, and the chapel, which was completely paid for before consecration, is one of the most attractive places of worship in the county.

ROSENFELD'S. Making It Easy and Safe. This is the easiest store in Alexandria to get money back from in case you want it. In some Washington stores, as you doubtless know, the policy is to discourage exchanges and refunds. They all advertise money back if you want it, but you have to want it pretty badly to get it; badly enough to go through a great deal of red tape and bother. Not here. We pride ourselves on making it easy for you. We ask no questions, make no comments. It is done as a matter of your right, not as a favor.
