Clerical Given Another Year. In the French Chamber of Deputies yesterday during the discussion of the interpellations on the law providing for the separation of church and State Minister of Public Worship Briand made an interesting statement, defining the intentions of the government to apply the law in its entirety and in the spirit in which it was passed. He said the State was not irreligious, but, on the contrary, it recognized the freedom of the church to do what it pleased in its religious domain.
