VOLUME CIVIL--NO. 290.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 3, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is in the blood, not in the stomach, that the trouble lies, and it is in the blood that the cure must be made. With poor stomach work, the blood is not properly purified, and the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption, which attack the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

Little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and money, rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific composition and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full and complete information of its character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class by itself, being the only medicine in every bottle wrapper that bears the name of its discoverer, in the full list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowels and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts of organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pills are the original, little, round pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate, stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equaled. Sugar-coated and easy to take as candy. One to three a dose.

A Positive CURE

Ely's Cream Balm is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane. It cures Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of the Throat and Cures Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, etc. Full size 50 cents, by mail. Ely Brothers, 65 West Broadway, New York.

HAIR RESTORER

New York Daily Tribune.

If you want a publication that serves up so much good and so many thrills in every issue and does not care whether you read it or not, if it is money thrown away by the Tribune. If, however, you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully collated and sifted, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. The Daily Tribune contains special articles on nearly every subject which interests intelligent and clear minded people, to say nothing of the instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music, art and the drama. Invest $1 and get the Daily and Sunday Tribune by mail for a month. With the Sun and Tribune goes a handsome Illustrated Supplement and a Magazine equal to anything sold for ten cents.

N. Y. Tribune Farmer.

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere in this world as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. The Tribune Farmer keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvements in text and pictures. Besides this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New York Tribune, New York.

N. Y. Tri-Weekly Tribune

The Tri-Weekly Tribune is issued on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week, and contains the essence of the Daily Tribune for the whole week. The Tri-Weekly Tribune gives much prominence to special articles, written by experts, on subjects of interest to dwellers outside the big city. Price, $1.50 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New York Tribune, New York.

Unwritten Law Her Reliance.

The question, "Will the 'unwritten law' save pretty Louise Hobson from prison bars?" is being asked all over central New York. The handsome trained nurse of Utica who took the law into her own hands a week ago and fired four bullets, each of them death-dealing, had they carried to the mark, at a man who had wooed and won her, although he already had a wife, will rely upon the "unwritten law" to free her from the charge of attempted murder that hangs over her.

Miss Hobson is 22. She was educated at a Utica hospital and employed in homes of wealth and culture. She had never been in love until she got a note from Frank E. Ngle last spring, and love letters passed between them. It was to have been a fall wedding, a trip to Buffalo, a visit to the home of a clergyman and a honeymoon upon the waters of the Great Lakes. Ngle borrowed money from her, it is alleged. Later the young woman learned he had a wife and was living with her.

Miss Hobson, at first stunned, did not yield to hasty passion. Opening a little Bible she had brought from her Canadian home, she read its pages, and from them she learned what she interpreted as a duty to her sex. "The sooner such girls as I will be safe to live within it," she declared. Then came the scene in the bank building, when the girl, standing in the doorway of her true lover's office, fired four bullets aimed at his heart.

To the jury she would boldly say "Yes," when asked if she shot to kill, and then she will add, "What would you have done?"

People of wealth and fashion in those homes she has endeavored herself to by following her profession have taken up her case.

The Castellanos.

Count Boni de Castellane drove in a motor car Saturday to the marble palace where dwells the American woman who divorced him. Alighting, the count gave his card to the concierge, saying:

"Send that to Mme. Gould."

"Mme has given orders that you must never enter here, sir," answered the concierge, coldly polite.

Livid with rage, the count raised his cane and dealt the man a heavy blow on the head. As the concierge reeled, the blood spurring from his scalp, Count Boni sprang into the auto and whizzed away. It was necessary to call a surgeon to attend the concierge.

The Paris Figaro says:

"Mme. Gould and Count Boni de Castellane both will marry again in short order. She is engaged to an American millionaire. She will pass several months of each year in her palace, which is the most beautiful home in France. Nothing will be changed in the sumptuous current of her life, save that her dinner plates and carriage pillows will not flaunt a count's coronet.

"His, too, will be a brilliant marriage. Boni de Castellane hopes to revive the ancient glories, to entertain kings again. His future wife is a widow, a millionaire, who owns a chateau in the provinces, a splendid hotel in Paris, a yacht, race horses, and has great influence with the newspapers."

Everybody knows that the "millionaire widow" of whom gossips hint is Mme. Menier, divorced wife of the chocolate manufacturer.

Mrs. Astor.

Mrs. Astor, greatest and last of the supreme leaders of New York society, will never again sit upon her throne. In a peaceful, pathetic twilight, like the passing of a soft gray day in the autumn, she reigns now only in a court thronged with wraith courtiers, the images of lovely women and gallant men—some of whom are quick, but more dead—by whom in fancy she sees herself surrounded.

There will be no Astor ball this season. Society significantly and regretfully remarked her absence at the opening night of the opera at the Metropolitan. In her place sat a vice regent, her daughter, Mrs. Orme Wilson.

Mrs. Astor is the daughter of Abraham Sche, merchant, a wealthy merchant of the old city. She was never a beauty, but no woman who rose to her eminence in society was ever so generally and devotedly loved and respected. It is tradition that she was never heard to utter an unkind word to any one, and scandal would neither listen to nor repeat.

Washington Cathedral.

G. F. Bodley, of London, and Henry Vaughn, of Boston, architects, have arrived in Washington at the invitation of Bishop Satterlee to arrange the plans for the new cathedral which is to be erected in that city. Mr. Bodley says that the old English Gothic design will be adopted, and that the cathedral will be one of the finest in the world. It will cost more than $1,000,000.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Grayville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. I was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold Cure and Throat and Lung Healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 310 and 312 Trial bottles free.

President to See Western Belles.

President Roosevelt will be visited early in the spring by 33 of the handsomest women in the State of Oregon. This beauty show from the far West will be gathered from the 33 counties of Oregon, an hour having been chosen from each county. The members of this perambulating beauty show will visit the Jamestown Exposition, where they will boom the products of their State. On their way to Virginia they will stop at Washington and call on the President. Senator Fulbright Friday introduced Philip S. Bates, of Portland, Ore., to President Roosevelt, who was told of the plan to bring these beautiful women to the White House. The President said that nothing would give him more pleasure than to meet them. "The Oregon apples are the finest and largest in the world," said Senator Fulbright, "but the peaches we grow out there are just the sweetest to be found anywhere."

Kennedy's Laxative, (containing) Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains no opiates. Conforms to Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Cocaine which dulls the nerves never yet cured Nasal Catarrh. The heavy feeling in the forehead, the stuffed up sensation and the watery discharge from eyes and nose, along with all the other miseries attending the disease, are put to rest by Fly's Cream Balm. Smell, taste and hearing are restored, breathing is normal. If you try this remedy, you can form no idea of the good it will do you. It is applied directly to the front of the nose. All druggists, 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 West Street, New York.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, relieves pain, cures the wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
