

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 13, 1907.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:11 a. m. and sets at 4:47 p. m. High water at 2:41 a. m. and 3:31 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight, temperature slightly below freezing. Thursday fair; light to fresh west to northwest winds.

MIDGETS TO HANG.

The case of George Midgets, colored, vs. the Commonwealth of Virginia, which for some months has been pending in the Court of Appeals on a writ of error and supersedeas to the Corporation Court of this city, rendered at the March term, 1907, was called in the appellate court in Richmond yesterday. The Commonwealth, through Attorney General Anderson, moved to dismiss the case upon the ground that the same had been unopposedly awarded. The Court of Appeals took the papers and briefs and announced that that tribunal would pass upon the case this morning.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES.

The many friends of Rev. H. J. Cutler, who has been at St. Agnes, Md., for some time past, will be glad to learn that he has fully recovered his health and has resumed his duties as pastor of St. Mary's Church. He has just returned from Richmond where he attended a synod of the diocese yesterday.

CONCERT.

As recently announced, the choir of St. Paul's Church will give a concert in the Parish Hall next Tuesday evening, November 19th. They will be assisted by George G. Daland, organist and choirmaster of St. John's Church, Georgetown. Mr. Daland is one of the directors of the Washington Choral Society and will conduct the concert given by that organization next February.

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASSES.

Members of the young men's Bible classes of the M. E. Church South, and other young men of the church, were entertained last night at the residence of Mr. W. S. Nicklin, 319 south Pitt street. Considerable business in connection with the fall and winter work of the young men was transacted. Mr. H. K. Field and Misses Anna and Margaret Vierkner rendered a delightful musical programme, and refreshments were served during the evening.

NEW PIER.

The work of constructing the new pier at Fort Hunt, on the Virginia side of the river, six miles below this city, is progressing rapidly and it is stated that the work will be completed and the wharf ready to turn over to the army authorities within the next three weeks. The new pier will not be as long as the old one, which was built about ten years ago, and which is one of the longest piers on the river. Instead of bringing the new structure out to the channel bank, a dredging machine was employed to cut away the Potomac flats at that point, and bring deep water from the channel to the pier. The new pier is located almost directly across the river from the Fort Washington pier.

THE MERRY COBBLER.

The Merry Cobbler was presented at the Opera House to a full and enthusiastic house last night by the Elks' Dramatic Club. It was conceded by all present to be a very creditable performance. All played their parts in a manner very pleasing to the audience. Especially was this the case with the children whose acting and singing was very good. Too much credit cannot be given Miss Inez D. Monitor under whose direction these children were trained. Tickets to the parquet and gallery will be sold tonight at the box office.

RIVER NOTES.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber to Smoot & Co., and H. K. Field & Co., arrived yesterday and sailed today. The barge J. T. Donahue arrived at the shipyard today from Norfolk where it will be loaded with railroad ties for New York.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Allan L. Beavers and Zephania Lewis, of Loudoun county, and to Earl B. Jenkins, of Springfield, and Florence D. Taylor, of Langley.

PERSONAL.

Quite a pleasant surprise party was given Mr. George West, of Dal Ray, on Thursday last, the occasion being his birthday. His niece and nephews from Washington and his sister from Alexandria were among the guests. A most delightful evening was spent by all present. Mr. West was the recipient of many pretty and useful presents. Mrs. Walter Scott Passmore, who was called here on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. W. H. McCuen, left for her home in Avondale, Ala., yesterday morning. Mrs. Passmore made her stay while here with her sister, Mrs. Wm. A. Moore, on King street. Mrs. C. A. Woolfolk is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Uhler. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. French and Miss Georgie French have returned from a short visit to the Jamestown Exposition. Misses Jones and Anderson will serve tea at the Golf Club House tomorrow evening from 3 to 5 o'clock. Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Miss Fannie W. Johnson, of Blackstone, Va., to Mr. Bernard B. Cline, of this city. The marriage ceremony will take place Wednesday evening, November 20, at half past five o'clock in the Cranshaw Methodist Episcopal Church, Blackstone. The engagement is announced of Miss Anna Lee Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burton, of this city, to Mr. Samuel A. Sizer, of Jacksonville, Fla., formerly of King William county. The marriage of Miss Alice Regina Esau, daughter of the late L. Freeman Esau, to Mr. J. S. Barbour Dingerfield will take place on Saturday next at Baltimore, the bride's home. Mr. Harry Hantzman, now of Charlottesville, who has been quite sick at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. R. Pickin, in this city, is rapidly improving and expects soon to be out again. At a meeting of the executive committee of the Mount Vernon Avenue Association today Mr. Raleigh T. Greene, of Calpeper, was named as attorney for the association in place of Mr. O. C. Curlin, resigned.

THE SILK MILL.

The silk mill of the Bliss Silk Throwing Company, corner Pitt and Wilkes streets, has been in operation about six weeks and is progressing nicely. There are about thirty girls and boys employed in the mill now and they are ready to take on about thirty more as they expect another car-load of machinery in the immediate future, and desire to teach the force so they will be trained by the time the new machinery is installed. The work is light and clean and girls and boys from fourteen years of age up are the easiest taught. This industry fills a long felt want in our city and every citizen feels an interest in making this new industry a success.

SAILORS BROKE LAMP.

Officer Ferguson has investigated the breaking of the electric light at Fayette alley and the Strand last Sunday night. It was at first supposed that the lamp was broken by thieves who intended breaking into Mr. J. Chilly's store, but the officer learned that the lamp was demolished about 6 o'clock Sunday evening by some sailors who were waiting for a boat to take them to a vessel lying in the river at the time. The miscreants threw bricks at the lamp.

ABSURD RUMOR.

A report was in circulation in West End today to the effect that body-snatchers or night doctors had invaded that suburb last night. It is said that a wagon in which several strangers were seated made mysterious movements during the night. The report created some excitement among some people, although the majority laughed at the rumor. The effects of the predicted cold wave have not been in evidence today. The weather has been fair and mild.

A Criminal Attack.

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It is generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. See at all drug stores.

SUICIDE IN WASHINGTON.

The Washington police have been unable to establish a motive for the suicide yesterday of George W. Ewell, of Deer Lodge, Morgan county, Tenn., who, as stated in the Gazette of that day, shot himself through the head while riding in a cab near Tenth street and Pennsylvania avenue northwest. Letters found in his possession indicate that he had suffered a protracted illness. Several attempts were made last night to get into communication with the man's wife. A registered letter has been sent to Mrs. Ewell, at Deer Lodge, and it is expected that a reply will be received soon.

After viewing the remains, Deputy Coroner Gitz-brook issued a certificate of death by suicide. The body is in the morgue. Ewell left a communication saying he wished to be buried in Washington. The body will be held at the morgue until advices are received from his relatives.
