WEDDING AT ACCOTINK.

Miss Mattie R. Troth's marriage to Mr. George C. Gillingham took place at eight o'clock, Wednesday evening, February 12th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Troth, at Accotink. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Connell, former pastor of Woodlawn Baptist Church, in which the bride was an efficient worker and Sunday school teacher. The bride, a tall and stylish girl, was becomingly attired in a gown of sheer mull and lace, and carried a large bouquet of white roses from the conservatory of Mount Vernon. She was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Troth, who wore a gown of perian mull and white tulle ribbons. Mr. Scott Gillingham, brother of the groom, was best man, and both wore the conventional black evening suits, and white vests. The musical features were furnished by Miss Ella Gillingham, and to the strains of Mendelssohn's ever beautiful wedding march, the bride and groom entered the tastefully decorated parlor, and took their places. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive, and was witnessed only by a few close friends of the happy pair. Delicious refreshments, followed by coffee, were served directly after the ceremony. At nine o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham left for Alexandria, taking the midnight train there for an extended tour in the west. The bride's traveling gown was of blue broadcloth, with hat to match. The presents were numerous, useful, and beautiful, consisting of such silver and china. A plentiful shower of rice rained upon the bride and groom as they left the home. Immediately upon the return of Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham, they will assume the duties of housekeeping, their future home being in the vicinity of Mount Vernon, and near to Mr. Gillingham's former home.

MR. TOWNE'S LECTURE.

The lecture last night of Hon. Charles A. Towne on "A Hop, Step and Jump Through the Orient" in the Young People's Building of the M. E. Church South was well-attended. Mr. Towne came here from Washington on the palace car "Mount Vernon" and at the close of the lecture returned on that car accompanied by a committee of citizens. The lecture was interesting and instructive, and Mr. Towne's description of the orientals and their customs was highly enjoyed by his attentive audience. He concluded with a criticism of the United States for the manner in which the Philippines were taken possession of, and urged that in good time they should be restored to their proper owners—the Filipinos.

DEATH OF MRS. FULLER.

Caroline Orion Fuller, widow of Col. Irving W. Fuller, died a few days ago in New York. She was born in Birmingham, in 1845, the daughter of Dr. Jason R. Orion, and in 1850 went to Brooklyn. She later became a member of Plymouth Church. At the suggestion of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Gen. O. O. Howard she came to Alexandria, where she conducted a freedmen's school which was supported by members of Beecher's congregation and friends. She afterward married Col. Irving W. Fuller, of the First Missouri Cavalry, in Washington, and returned to Brooklyn to live. Col. Fuller, who died in 1892, fought in the Confederate army, and was widely known as the father of street railway advertising.

VALENTINE NIGHT.

Notwithstanding the fog and mist of last night many boys and girls were engaged in placing valentines under doors in all parts of the city. Most of the missives were caricatures, and those sending them were animated by a spirit of piousness. In some cases, however, those receiving the comic pictures did not view the juvenile pranks in good part.

Remedy for Cough.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently but promptly on the bowels. It stops the cough by soothing the throat and lung irritation. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Some broken tires in Hess shoes $5 and $6 grades, $2.50 get them, if you are quick. Marshall, 422 King street.

HANDSOME DONATIONS.

Among the many handsome and costly donations received by the Elks' Carnival Committee two deserving mention are on exhibition in the window of L. Shuman & Son's store on King street. One is a beautiful set consisting of a pitcher and six stems adorned by the emblem of the order—the head of the animal from which the order derives its name and the dial of a clock on which the hand points to eleven. This novel and elaborate set was received through Mrs. Lorenzo Wolford and will be placed at the disposal of the Elks' booth, presided over by Mrs. Jacob Brill, Mrs. Samuel Bendheim, Mrs. Lorenzo Wolford and Mrs. M. R. O'Sullivan. The other is a 20-pound pyramid cake in which has been placed a beautiful gold ring donated to the Martha Washington Candy Booth, presided over by Mrs. Charles B. Marshall, Mrs. James W. Bales, Mrs. George H. Schwarzsman and Mrs. J. Edward Shinn. The cake will be sold in slices and the one buying the lucky slice will be rewarded with the ring.

Animals in the ring supreme at the armory and in addition to the mechanics employed in placing the booths in position the members have entered heartily on the task of beautifying the building. The taste displayed in the decorations can be better appreciated by a peep in the hall. If appearances are not deceiving this carnival will eclipse any similar event ever held in this city.

THE WEATHER.

A heavy fog and disagreeable misty rain settled over this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon and last night the atmosphere was almost impenetrable. The weather was rainy and warm throughout the night, the mercury early this morning standing at 55°.

After having been obscured for almost a week, the skies cleared about 11 o'clock this morning and the sun came out to the joy of everybody. The clearing conditions followed a strong southwestern wind and by noon the mercury had risen to 68°. Later the skies became overcast again.

The steamer Washington, Captain Phillips, from Norfolk, arrived at this port this morning two hours and a half later on account of fog which extended over the bay and higher part of the river last night. A great southerly wind set in after the steamer reached the Potomac.

The ice in the river in front of this city has virtually disappeared. The Weather Bureau last night issued the following bulletin: "Southwest storm warning from Jacksonville, Fla., to New York; severe storm central over Ohio valley moving rapidly southeast. High southwest winds Saturday, shifting to northwest winds Saturday night."

MR. SNYDER'S CONDITION.

The condition of Mr. T. J. Snyder, who was shot on Shooter's Hill road last Tuesday night and who has since been at the Alexandria Hospital, has slightly improved. The ball which passed into his lung has not been located, and the physicians attending the wounded man have determined to remove him to Washington in order to use the X-rays on him. Drown, Hicks and Cook, the young men arrested on suspicion of holding up and shooting Mr. Snyder, are still being held awaiting the result of his injury. Mr. S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, had a talk with Drown, Hicks and Cook this morning. They still maintained their innocence of the crime.

GRAND CONCERT.

The Musurgia Glee Club of Washington, consisting of 30 voices, will give a concert for the benefit of Grace Church improvement fund, on Thursday evening, February 27th, in the Young Men's Lyceum on Duke street. The oratorio of "The Desert" will be rendered in the first part; and solo work, consisting of old songs and several humorous readings by Mr. Edwin Oallow, who comes well recommended from New York and elsewhere, will make the programme of the second part of the entertainment.

WANT TOWN INCORPORATED.

A meeting of the Citizens' Improvement Association of Jefferson District, Alexandria county, was held last night at the Del Ray schoolhouse. Mr. Walter U. Varney was designated as a committee to go to Richmond, to appear before the Senate committee on cities, towns and corporations, and urge the passage of a bill having for its object the incorporation of Del Ray and St. Elmo under the name of "Potomac." A committee has already appeared before the same committee in the house of delegates.

DAMAGING TREES.

The trees in front of some residences on south Fairfax street have recently been mutilated by hatchets in the hands of mischievous boys or men. In some cases the damage is of such a nature that the trees are liable to die. Hatchets or tomahawks, it seems, are to play a part in the parade on the 22d instant and some youngsters have already armed themselves with these weapons. Defective property will call for a fine of five dollars should any one be arrested for cutting trees.

MEETING TONIGHT.

The George Washington Birthday Association will meet tonight with reports from the several committee's having in charge the celebration next Saturday will be received and further arrangements made for the parade. The members of the press committee will have their headquarters in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

R., held their monthly meeting yesterday evening at the residence of Mrs. George Chiles, on Cameron street, at which arrangements were made for holding the patriotic and religious services at Christ Church on Saturday morning next, Washington's birthday. As heretofore stated Bishop Randolph will deliver an address on that occasion. After the business of the chapter had been concluded the ladies were charmingly entertained by their hostess, Mrs. Uher. Mrs. J. E. Mushbach, of Red Lodge, Mont., is visiting her mother, Mrs. William Gibson, on Duke street. Mr. Wayne F. LOCAL BREVITIES. At a regular meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder last night the annual inspection was held. A number of persons will be baptized in the Baptist Church tomorrow night after the service. George Washington, colored, a well-known whitewasher, died this morning at his home on north Washington street. James Snyder, colored, was fined $2.50 this morning for assaulting Annie Snyder. This was the only case on the docket. There was a small supply of country produce in market this morning, and prices have undergone no material change. Six Washingtonians were arrested this evening for disorderly conduct and insulting ladies on King street. Each left $5 collateral. Henry Williams, colored, was arrested today by Officer Roberts for contempt of court for failing to appear as a witness sometime since.
