"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures and purifies the blood, thereby curing pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood-cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the name being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

SUPREME COURT AND LABOR.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, before the House committee on the judiciary yesterday asserted that labor organizations are not going to be "driven out of existence," notwithstanding adverse decisions by the courts. He expressed confidence that the President of the United States sincerely sympathized "with all our people," and added:

"I have reasons to believe that the President is not thoroughly informed as to the real remedy for the cause of complicity."

These statements were made in an argument on the Pearre bill to regulate the issuance of restraining orders and injunctions and to limit the meaning of "conspiracy" in certain cases.

Over the signature of Samuel Gompers an editorial in the American Federationist for this month attacked the recent decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Loewe & Company, popularly known as the "Hat case," which is declared to be "the most drastic and far-reaching decision which it has ever handed down," and as affecting directly all labor, and hence the whole people. The editor begins with the statement that "labor organizations must not be outlawed," and then proceeds at great length to review the court's decision point by point with a view to showing that the court erred.

It is denied that there was any restraint of trade on the part of the United Hatters, because their action in preventing the sale of Loewe hats "did not result in lower hats being purchased by the community." Moreover, it is asserted positively that in one important point the court was in error, for "the American Federation of Labor never endorsed or declared a boycott against the Loewe Company."

Says Mr. Gompers: "We trust it will not be considered less majestic if we say that in our opinion the Supreme Court, in this and other recent decisions affecting labor, tends to revert to the medieval procedure rather than to make the application of legal principles to the present industrial situation." The language of the hatters' decision makes it clear that the Supreme Court has not informed itself on modern economics. In its opinion the rights of hats seem to be greater than the rights of men.

In fact, this decision goes to an unheard-of length in punishing the workers for the exercise of their rights.

It is denied that a labor union is a "trust," for "there cannot be a trust in something which is not yet produced." The editorial, continuing, declares that while the conscience of a large majority of employers will not permit them to take advantage of this decision, "there is always the selfish, avaricious, conscienceless type of employer," which might inflict great hardship under the protection of such a decree.

It is noticeable that the current issue of the Federationist omits the usual "We Don't Patronize List," but instead a paragraph at the end of the editorial declares: "It should be borne in mind that there is no law, ay, not even a court decision, compelling union men or their friends of labor to buy," naming the particular articles which form the basis of the Supreme Court's decision.
