

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 6, 1908.

VAE VICTIS.

All who love liberty and their country view with alarm the prospect of the continuance of the republican party in power. Under the administration of President Roosevelt more has been done in depriving the states of the union of their constitutional rights and sovereign powers than was accomplished by the civil war.

output heretofore was in 1855, when 2,024 vessels, of 583,450 tons, were built. This year steel vessels numbered 142, of 417,167 gross tons, compared with 360,665 tons last year.

VICE PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS, speaking at Anderson, Ind., on the Fourth, made a plea for a high moral code in politics.

DISPATCHES sent out from New York states that the Fourth of July celebration in that city was of the old time variety, the leading address being made by a descendant of George Washington.

From Washington.

Coincidental with the arrival of Senator Hemenway, of Indiana, in town today on his way to Hot Springs, Va., to confer with "Private Citizen" Taft, sprang up a boom for Hemenway for treasurer of the national committee.

At the postmaster general's office today it was denied that Mr. Meyer had suffered a critical illness from ptomaine poison and had been forced to cancel his Fourth of July engagements as guest of the Curtis Club, of Richmond.

Weather bulletins issued today state that there will be practically no relief from the present high temperature in the Atlantic States for at least two more days.

News of the Day.

Senator Crane has refused the chairmanship of the republican national committee, leaving a clear field for Hitchcock.

Receivers have been appointed in Trenton, N. J., for the United Box Board and Paper Company, a $50,000,000 concern.

President Roosevelt has given permission to fire a salute of guns at the Monument grounds in Washington in honor of the nominees at Denver.

Of the nine balloons which started from Chicago on Saturday night have landed safely, while the ninth, the Illinois, is supposed to be still in the air.

Announcement of the withdrawal of Senator Arise as a candidate for the presidency in Panama has cleared the political atmosphere and no trouble is now expected.

Judge Parker was among the arrivals in Denver, on Saturday. He has tuned down the resolutions of eulogy to Cleveland so that they will not give offense to the Bryan people.

Canada is making extensive preparations for the entertainment of the Prince of Wales and his suite during the six days of their visit, July 22-28, to attend the Quebec centenary celebration.

The revolutionists in Paraguay have overthrown the government, and several of the ministers of State have taken refuge in the Argentine legation. Some 500 persons were killed and wounded in the fighting at Asuncion.

Mr. James E. Hooper, of Baltimore, president of the William E. Hooper & Sons Company, manufacturers of cotton duck, and once president of the Mount Vernon-Woodberry Cotton Duck Corporation, died yesterday.

Frederick Gies was arrested in Philadelphia last night as a suspect in connection with the murder of Dr. William H. Wilson, who died on June 26, after drinking a bottle of poisoned ale, which had been sent to him from a local express office.

Over 400 buildings, including the court house, prison and the arsenal at Port-au-Prince, Haiti, were destroyed by fire yesterday evening. All of the prisoners, who included a number of women, were taken to other quarters before the building took fire.

Resident Admiral Thomas, who succeeded Admiral Evans as commander of the big battleship fleet from the Atlantic, departed dead in a hotel in Delmonte, Cal., Saturday night. Admiral Thomas, just retired, had been ill for some time. Apoplexy caused his death.

Commander Peary's steamship, the Roosevelt, built by the Peary Arctic Club, sails from New York today, after a stop the following day at Oyster Bay, where it is expected President Roosevelt will visit the ship, which will proceed to Sydney, where Peary, having gone by rail, will join her.

Candidates for president and vice-president of the United States were nominated and a platform was adopted by the national convention of the socialist labor party in New York yesterday.

The jury in the case of Lewis Wingate, charged with the murder of his 10-year-old son, Ray Wingate, which engaged a special term of the Circuit Court of Grayson county, last week, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree and fixed the punishment at 18 years in the penitentiary.

The testimony at the trial showed that when the boy's body was exhumed it was found to be covered with bruises from head to foot; that the stomach contained nothing but a small amount of bloody-looking water, and the intestines a bit of green matter that appeared to be digested grass.

More than 100,000 tons of cement, rock and limestone were loosened by a tremendous blast set off Friday evening in the quarry of the Bath Portland Cement Company, at Bath, Pa. It was like an upheaval of nature, the shock being felt in Allentown and the surrounding territory. It was the heaviest land blast ever set off in America.

The Republic Iron and Steel Company, which until June 30 had been operating its plants with union workmen, proposes to employ none but non-union men hereafter for the purpose of saving $500,000 a year, which the officers allege that dealing with the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel, Sheet and Tin Workers costs them.

Lieutenant Berry, of the New York police, arrived at New Orleans yesterday from Puerto Cortz, a Spanish Honduras, with his prisoner, Albert W. Bailey, Charles H. Myers, and O. P. Albert. Bailey, Francis G. Bailey, brother of Albert Berry, escaped from the steamer before she sailed. The Baileys are charged with conspiracy to use the United States mails to defraud.

Herman Ridder, of New York, called on Mr. Bryan at Lincoln, Neb., on Friday, and asked him to withdraw from the presidential race. In reply Mr. Bryan said: "Mr. Ridder, I will be elected. Mr. Ridder, I will be elected without New York State. I'd just as leave be elected with New York State, but after everything possible has been done to make the situation democratically harmonious, if New York State does not want me, that doesn't say the country doesn't."

Virginia News.

Justice Crutchfield, Richmond's famous "Justice John," celebrated the twentieth year of his administration on the Police Court bench on Friday last.

Rev. George H. Wiley, superintendent of the Ex-Prisoners' Aid Society of Virginia, has resigned to devote his entire time to evangelistic work.

Jacob V. Grinstead, member of the Lexington bar, former grand master of the Grand Lodge of Old Fellows of Virginia, died Friday.

Mr. Martha Randolph Moore, daughter of the late Capt. Alexander Howland, of Prince William county, celebrated her ninety-third birthday Saturday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Craig, at West Arlington, near Baltimore.

The engineers for the proposed electric railway from Great Falls through Loudoun to the Valley, reached Middleburg some days ago and stated that they were much pleased with the route. They are of the opinion that the road can be constructed at a less cost than at first estimated.

VIRGINIANS IN LONDON.

Virginia people in London are having a delightful time. Rev. Robert A. Gibson, D. D., bishop of Virginia, and the Misses Gibson are guests of the bishop of London at Fulham Palace. Archdeacon Neve of Virginia, who is in attendance upon the pan-Anglican congress, is visiting relatives in the county of Kent during a part of his time.

WINGATE GETS 18 YEARS. The jury in the case of Lewis Wingate, charged with the murder of his 10-year-old son, Ray Wingate, which engaged a special term of the Circuit Court of Grayson county, last week, returned a verdict of murder in the second degree and fixed the punishment at 18 years in the penitentiary.

The testimony at the trial showed that when the boy's body was exhumed it was found to be covered with bruises from head to foot; that the stomach contained nothing but a small amount of bloody-looking water, and the intestines a bit of green matter that appeared to be digested grass.

Women witnesses testified that they had seen the lad chained to a staircase in the Wingate home, and also chained in a stall in the barn. It was testified that the boy's mother was afraid to remove him from the stall in the stable to the house to give him food, which he begged for, because she was afraid of the father. Wingate is a man of considerable means.

Alienists examined Wingate to determine the state of his mind and pronounced him sane. It was thought the plea would be insanity, but the report of the doctors exploded this.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION Delegates to the democratic national convention which meets tomorrow are pouring into Denver from all directions, railroad facilities being inadequate to bring them promptly to the city.

Out of the confusion caused by conflicting vice presidential candidates and groundless reports two facts stand out. First—The fact that nothing will be in the platform objectionable to William J. Bryan has been assured by agreement on a programme which provides for the draft of that document by a subcommittee of 17 representing the strongest Bryan States.

Second—Mr. Bryan has tentatively agreed to a modification of the anti-injunction plank, by which the declaration in favor of trial by jury for violations of injunctions committed outside the presence of the court shall be erased.

The Pennsylvania delegates on their way to Denver stopped at Lincoln, Neb., on Saturday and were addressed by Mr. Bryan.

In the course of his address Mr. Bryan said he had notified Col. J. M. Guffy that "in my opinion your re-election would be unfortunate and your presence on the national committee embarrassing to me and my friends."

Over Thirty-five Years. In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use.

Three Drown. Medford, Mass., July 6.—Disregarding the cries for aid of his wife and child, John J. Burns saved his mother and a little girl when their canoe upset in Mystic river here. Mrs. Burns, the younger, and her baby boy will be buried today and the father is heartbroken. Burns, his mother, wife and child and two little girls, Reta Cooper and Sadie Bowen, were paddling to a picnic when a vessel's hawser upset the canoe.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Denver Convention. Denver, July 6.—The center of activity of the democratic party is the Brown Palace Hotel. On the eve of the assembling of the convention the national committee is at work making up the temporary roll of delegates, while bands are playing outside and the delegates are cheering each other as they march about the streets.

Some of the contests are being hard fought and for the first time since the preliminary work was begun there are evidences of a bitter feeling that may yet crop out on the floor of the convention.

The grounds of contest range from "irregularity" to allegations of fraud. The chief interest is in the Idaho and the New York contests. In the former case United States Senator Dubois was waging the hardest battle of his political career. The real issue is Mormonism.

The New York contest presented the plain problem of one boss trying to get rid of another boss. Patrick H. McCarran fought hard, but he indicated that he had little hope of winning out. He recited the story of the primaries and stated that he and his followers had prevailed over Bird S. Cole and the latter's men by a vote of fifty six to one.

Denver, July 6.—Gov. Johnson's boom for the presidency has collapsed. It was admitted today in his own camp that there is no hope of his nomination and that his supporters disguise the fact, as a matter of principle. Formal assurances that Johnson would be the nominee are still being issued from his headquarters, but this is for a purpose. The Johnson folks are laying plans for 1912.

Denver, July 6.—Tammany will formally announce its surrender to Bryan this afternoon when at the State caucus a resolution will be adopted committing the State delegation, which is controlled by leader C. F. Murphy, to vote for the Nebraska on the first ballot.

The state was completed at a conference of the leaders this morning. It is as follows: National Committeeman—Norman E. Mack. Member committee on resolutions—Alton B. Parker. Member of committee on credentials—Daniel F. Cohalen.

Denver, July 6.—A specially called meeting of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor took place today at the Denver labor headquarters. The meeting was called by President Samuel Gompers. The meeting was to consider what kind of a plank should be presented to the resolutions committee of the democratic national convention.

Gompers says the overtures made at Chicago, and which were not regarded there, will be repeated at Denver. Denver, July 6.—The subcommittee in the New York contest decided in favor of erasing the Murphy delegates without going into the merits of the case. The Pennsylvania delegation today after a bolt by the Kerr contestants, elected Colonel James M. Guffey as chairman of the delegation and member of the national committee. Former Congressman Ker himself led the bolters. As they walked out they were greeted with hisses and jeers by the Guffeites.

One of the latter denounced them as cowards and a Kerr man retorted, "Come down into the alley and see whether we are." It is reported today that Bryan has modified his original draft on the anti-injunction plank and that, in its present form, it proposes that no injunction shall be issued in labor disputes without five days notice except in cases where life and property are endangered. The Gompers' proposition requires the five days notice and hearing in all cases without exception.

Closing in on Rebels. Mexico City, Mexico, July 6.—A force of 2,000 rurales and federal troops is closing in on a band of insurgents reported to number nearly 1,000 well armed, entrenched in the fastnesses of the Santa Rosa mountains, according to last advices received here. It is expected that before night a decisive battle will be fought which will probably settle all talk of a Mexican uprising.

Alarming reports as the renewed activity of Yaqui and Lays Indians due, it is believed, to the agitation of insurgent reached here today. The revolutionary leaders issued a proclamation promising to restore their extensive lands to the Indians. This promise seems to have stirred the savages. Additional troops are being dispatched to keep the Indians under control.

Baby Kidnapped. New York, July 6.—Her baby sister kidnapped, she says, by a strange man and woman, Annie Foster, aged ten, of Newark, and Rosie Reynolds, same age, also of Newark, were found today by the police at Coney Island and are being held by them while a hunt for the kidnapers is on. "We were out walking with baby on Market street in Newark," said the Foster child, "when a man and woman asked us if we wanted to go to Coney Island. We said 'yes,' and the woman took the baby in her arms and went on the boat. When we got to Coney Island the woman took the baby and said she was going for a walk. The man stayed with us a little while, but neither came back. We waited and waited and then we went to sleep on the sand."

Killed in a Duel. St. Petersburg, July 6.—As a result of the duel by which Count Samarlouff, son of Prince Yousouff, who was shot and killed by Count Mantouff, prominent Russians, are today demanding a change in the duelling code to permit satisfaction without an agonist. The duel resulted from Samarlouff's attentions to Countess Mantouff, the beautiful daughter of Count Haysin, the czar's naval aide. Mantouff fled with these scandals were first published. Six weeks ago he fought a duel with Samarlouff, in which he was severely wounded. When he recovered he again demanded satisfaction and yesterday's tragic encounter was the result.

The Market. Georgetown, D. C., July 6.—Wheat 75-85.

A Terrible Shock. Stamford, Conn., July 6.—His skin and clothes burned by eleven thousand volts of electricity, James Hayes, 23 years old, is alive here after having endured a shock thrice the strength of that used in the death chair at Sing Sing. Hayes climbed to the top of an electric locomotive in the New Haven yards and grasped the live wire. His nails were peeled off and holes burned in his back. He was delirious for some time after the shock, but at the hospital physicians say he probably will recover.

Fire in Port au Prince. Port au Prince, July 6.—Scorching parties today began going through the disastrous fire which wiped a large part of Port au Prince from the map Sunday afternoon in the hope of finding the bodies of a number of persons who are reported missing. Many of those who were made homeless by the flames are now camped outside the city. They are in destitute circumstances and the city will have to make provision for them for the present.

Mae C. Wood Arraigned. New York, July 6.—Mae C. Wood was arraigned today before Justice Foster in the court of general sessions on charges of forgery and perjury, grown out of her recent suit against Senator Platt. Charles L. Hubbell appeared for Miss Wood. He entered a plea of "not guilty" to the perjury charge and a demurrer to that of forgery. Next Wednesday was set as the day for argument on the demurrer and $5,000 bail was continued.

Bishop Potter Improving. Cooperstown, N. Y., July 6.—Bishop Potter passed a comfortable night and improvement continues and his recovery is hoped for.

New York Stock Market. New York, July 6.—In the first hour prices in nearly everything traded in made gains to some extent. Increased strength and activity developed as the forenoon progressed and at midday prices of many stocks showed gains of about two points over Friday's closing.

Convict Candidate. New York, July 6.—Martin R. Preston, of Nevada, convicted murderer, who is serving a 22-year term, is the presidential nominee for whom today the socialist labor party is being urged to vote. Preston was nominated at the national convention of the party here yesterday after a speech of laudation by Daniel DeLeon and the delegates cheered for him heartily. Preston killed a restaurant man in a labor dispute. Donald Munro, of Newport News, Va., was nominated for the vice presidency.
