

THE LOSS OF MILK through improper feed is enormous. You will be surprised how much more milk your cows will give if you will furnish them a ration especially prepared for milk production.

BADGER DAIRY FEED

the molasses feed that is surprising even the old-time dairy feeders, and try it on one of your cows. This feed will build up a cow's physical powers, furnish her lactating organs with milk making nutrition to such a degree that her flow will increase 20 per cent.

In Forbidden Places.

A very large mastiff at one end of a leash and a very small girl at the other end formed a combination which attracted the attention of a casual pedestrian in a quiet side street.

The little girl doubtless thought that she was taking the dog out for an airing, but the big animal himself appeared to have the impression that he was the leader of the expedition, and, beyond question on his side. He dragged the girl along despite her scolding and expostulations at a pace which kept her breathless.

Suddenly, either from a whim of his own or because somebody had been in the habit of taking him there, he darted through the swinging doors of a corner saloon. The girl looked horrified; but, clinging determinedly to her end of the leash, she followed her charge, and as the doors swung shut behind her the casual pedestrian heard this exasperated remonstrance: "Oh, darned old dog! Don't you know ladies don't go there? It's only a place for men!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Quaker Feeding.

"Come and watch me feed my starfish."

The curator of the aquarium led the reporter to a tank where a half dozen starfish tripped over the sandy bottom on slim brown fingers.

"Grub time, boys," he said, and he dropped into the tank six mussels.

The fish ran to the mussels. Each applied his stomach to the hinge at the back of the shell. Silence and immobility ensued.

"The gastric juice of the starfish," said the curator, "is now melting the hinges of flesh that hold the mussel shells together. Ah, look, there it's melted now. There's another. It's the most powerful gastric juice in the world."

One by one, their hinges destroyed, the mussel shells opened, and into the openings the starfish thrust their stomachs. More silence, more immobility.

Then, a little plumper at the heart, the starfish went tripping daintily off, but the mussel shells lay open and empty on the sand.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Old Time Drunkenness.

In reviewing "The Early Married Life of Maria Josepha, Lady Stanley," the London Spectator comments on the light in which drunkenness was regarded at the beginning of the nineteenth century. There was a christening of twins and rejoicing among the neighbors, tenants and laborers. "All the guests," says Maria, "were as drunk as I ever had the pleasure of seeing any one." Among the laborers, however, "that extent of intoxication was not reached which causes men to be swine."

Lady Sheffield, who received this account of the festivities, replies: "I would have given a great deal to be present. There is nothing I love so much as such sort of festivities, where one has the satisfaction of knowing that one makes one's friends happy as well as drunk." In London, she declares, "when you give a ball you affront many people, please a few, make many drunk and yourself miserable."

Clay and the Salary Grab.

"Quinn," said an old member one day, "I heard you worrying about the mileage. Did you ever hear the story of Clay and the salary grab?" "No," I replied.

"When Clay was speaker," he continued, "along about 1816, the crowd raised their salaries to $15,000 a year. There was a great howl all over the country, and when Clay reached home in Kentucky he found old one armed John Pope, a Federalist, out after his scalp to beat the band and all the Clay adherents ominously silent. Worried and anxious, Clay sought out his old barber, who had always been enthusiastic in his advocacy and who happened to be an Irishman. 'I trust I may count on your hearty support, as usual?' Clay asked. 'Faith, Mr. Clay,' said the Irish barber, 'I think I shall vote at this time for the man who can get but one hand into the treasury.'"

Needed a Big Dose.

The president of the Waters' club of New York in a recent argument on tipping said to his opponent sharply: "Your reply is altogether beside the point and irrelevant. It reminds me of a woman's reply in a German court. This woman was accused of poisoning her husband. The prosecuting attorney said to her: 'You have heard the evidence. The body contained enough arsenic to kill ten persons. What have you to say?' 'My husband,' the woman answered, 'was a big eater.'"

By R. F. Knox, Auctioneer. COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

Pursuant to a decree of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, in the chancery suit of Duff G. Lewis vs. James Breen et alis, therein pending, the undersigned commissioners of said court will at 12 o'clock noon on SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1908, offer for sale at public auction in front of the new house, Royal street entrance, the TWO STORY BRICK HOUSE No. 1005 Gibbon street and THREE LOTS upon Patrick street in the City of Alexandria, and more fully described as follows:

All that lot of ground with the buildings and improvements thereon beginning on the north side of Gibbon street 20 feet 6 inches, and extending north 2 feet 6 inches wide and extending north 51 feet; thence west along Gibbon street 15 feet, or more or less, to the line of the house owned by James B. Libby and conveyed to him by deed recorded in liber 40, folio 19, of the land records of the city of Alexandria, State of Virginia; and thence north parallel with Gibbon street 10 feet 6 inches to the line of the house owned by James B. Libby and conveyed to him by deed recorded in liber 40, folio 19, of the land records of the city of Alexandria, State of Virginia; and thence south parallel with Gibbon street 10 feet 6 inches to the line of the house owned by James B. Libby and conveyed to him by deed recorded in liber 40, folio 19, of the land records of the city of Alexandria, State of Virginia.

Also the property beginning at a point on the west side of Patrick street 110 feet north of Gibbon street and at the north line of an alley 10 feet wide and running west with said alley 113 feet 5 inches to an alley 15 feet wide, thence north with the last mentioned alley parallel with Patrick street 66 feet 7 inches, or more or less, to the line of Leonard and Thomas Cook; thence east with this line and parallel with Gibbon street 10 feet 6 inches to the line of the house owned by James B. Libby and conveyed to him by deed recorded in liber 40, folio 19, of the land records of the city of Alexandria, State of Virginia; and thence south parallel with Patrick street to the beginning, with the right of way over both of said alleys, being part of a larger tract of ground conveyed by the said James B. Libby to the said Leonard and Thomas Cook, by deed mentioned before.

Also that lot beginning on the west side of Patrick street 81 feet 7 inches north of Gibbon street and running north with said street 15 feet 5 inches; thence west on said alley 20 feet 3 inches; thence south 18 feet 3 inches and thence east in a direct line 20 feet 3 inches to the beginning.

This property will be sold as a whole or in three parcels, as purchasers may desire. Private bids may be made before the time set for public sale.

Terms of sale: Deposit of $50 at the time of sale one-third of the purchase money cash and the residue in two equal payments of three and six months from date of sale, with interest at six per cent, evidenced by notes and secured by deed of trust on the property to be sold; in case of default of purchaser, conveyancing at cost of purchaser.
