

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 3, 1908.

temperature is indicated during the next 36 hours in the middle Eastern and Southeastern states, with frost in the Middle Atlantic States tonight. The winds along the Middle Atlantic coast will be light and variable.

Nicholas Longworth's nomination of his father-in-law, Theodore Roosevelt, for president in 1916, in a speech at Rock Island, Ill., yesterday created a smile among the executive offices today where it is claimed it was regarded more as a friendly expression of a relative than as an accurate forecast of what may happen eight years from now.

THE observation, times change and people change with them, is especially applicable to prevailing conditions. The present presidential campaign is probably one of the most important in the history of the country, a fact which seems to excite but little interest in the younger generation, or those about to cast their first vote.

THE PRESIDENT has received complaints from Kansas that colored people traveling from Kansas to Oklahoma, Texas and other southern states are made the victims of embarrassing circumstances, being arrested by state officers, who claim that they have no right to chair cars in the states above named, and who arrest, eject and otherwise interfere with colored persons who are interested passengers.

Virginia News.

John L. Trevy, aged forty-seven years, a traveling salesman, died yesterday at his home at Lynchburg, the result of an operation performed three weeks ago.

A. W. Newman, president of the Rockingham National Bank, of Harrisonburg, died suddenly yesterday of paralysis, in the sixty-eighth year of his age.

James O. Lee, of Stafford county, chairman of the board of supervisors, while on a ladder examining some hay in his barn, fell ten feet yesterday and was severely hurt.

William Mayo Atkinson, one of the oldest and most venerable citizens of Staunton, died Thursday night of old age. He was eighty years old and was born in Lunenburg county.

Mr. Wm. T. Jones has left at the office of the Gordonsville Gazette a stack of prolific corn with twelve ears on it. He thinks the acre of land on which it was grown will make him $75.

Fire destroyed the residence Thursday on the property known as "Way-side," one mile west of Fredericksburg, belonging to Captain M. B. Rowe, of Fredericksburg, and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole.

W. H. Morris, a yard conductor of the Chesapeake and Ohio, at Lynchburg, was struck in the face with a rock while at work Thursday night in the yards. He was knocked unconscious, but, on reviving, managed to make his way home. His wound is serious.

High winds and heavy seas prevailed yesterday of the Virginia, Carolina, and Maryland coasts, with hurricane warning signals still flying. The wind reached a maximum velocity at the Virginia capes of 38 miles an hour, from the north. Practically all shipping is remaining in port.

One negro was instantly killed and three were injured, one of whom may die, late yesterday afternoon by an unexpected cave-in of an excavation for the Pettyjohn office building, which is under construction in Lynchburg. The men were at work under the bank when it gave way without warning.

The resignation of Col. Thomas J. Nottingham, commanding the Fourth Virginia Regiment, has been accepted by Governor Swanson. It is understood, however, that the real reason for the resignation is difference between the colonel and those above him in the rank, which differences have existed for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Shumate, of Leesburg, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Sara Chadwell Shumate, to Arthur Bean Richards, of the Loudoun National Bank, of Leesburg. The wedding will take place on Wednesday, October 14, at 10:30 o'clock, in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

News of the Day.

Mr. Kern, in a speech at Birmingham, Ala., yesterday, denounced the use of the so-called Cleveland letter indorsing Taft as a vile stigma.

Daniel S. Emery, a millionaire shipowner, died suddenly at his home, in Newton, Mass., yesterday, aged 75. He was a native of Sullivan, Me., and had been identified with Atlantic coast shipping interests for the past 59 years.

Mr. William B. Bayard, accompanied by his father, Senator Faidor Bayard, arrived in Baltimore yesterday from Norfolk, and later in the day young Bayard was taken to the Sheppard-Enoch Pratt Hospital, where he was entered as a patient.

Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York, who was on Thursday elected Episcopal Coadjutor Bishop of Maryland, said yesterday he would announce his decision next week, but a close friend said there is not one chance in a thousand that he will accept.

Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, in an interview yesterday said he would prefer an American for a son-in-law to a member of the Italian royal family. He also denies a Paris report that the marriages would take place about December 10.

Charged with having fourteen husbands, admittedly the wife of five men, one of whom is declared to have died under suspicious circumstances, Mrs. Marie Billeau, arrested after a fight between two of her husbands, was held to the grand jury in bonds of $2,000 at the Harrison street Police Court, Chicago, yesterday.

Wild with rage, Mayor Biele, of Chicago, Ill., early yesterday morning pulled his revolver and fired at a University of Illinois student, with whom the mayor had been having a hand-to-hand combat. The executive's aim was poor, and the student, who was one of a large party engaged in having refreshments, escaped unscathed.

Charles Hommelbocker, foreman of the Baltimore Bargain House sawmill, fell against a buzzsaw yesterday and received a painful cut across the abdomen. When he fell he seized the woodwork of the machine and held himself off, otherwise he would have been drawn in and killed. Other employees, seeing the predicament, pulled him away.

G. D. Thomas, receiver for the estate of John Alexander Dowie, founder of the religious community at Zion City, Ill., yesterday filed a report in the Federal Court showing the assets of the estate to be $1,709,647. Against this are secured claims of $326,327 and unsecured claims including a number still in dispute, of $1,903,725.

A requisition for additional hose to be used in pumping out the cruiser Yankee, ashore on the Spindle, off Hen and Chickens shoals, received last night, leads to the belief that the cruiser has fared badly in the hard blow of yesterday. Mariners who have visited the scene of the Yankee's mishap are skeptical of her chances. They believe that the Yankee is total loss.

In the recent sham battle at Bozards bay the submarine torpedo boat Octopus was sent down to a depth of 107 feet, where she remained for some time. This is a record dive for submarines having a crew on board and undertaking maneuvers, and was a perfect success. The small submarines, the Outfit, Pioneer, Viper and Tarantula were operated at a depth of 50 feet in the same maneuvers.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Rioting Renewed. Chicago, Oct. 3.—Rioting between the members of the two rival teamsters' unions, which caused the serious shooting of one man and injury to a score of others, was renewed today and the services of a large detail of police were required to restore order.

Turkey and Bulgaria. Vienna, Oct. 3.—Despite attempts to minimize the seriousness of the breach between Bulgaria and Turkey, the foreign office today is convinced that Bulgaria is not bluffing and that she will back up her threatened declaration of independence with an army of surprising strength.

Automobile Race. New York, Oct. 3.—With the Simplex and Renault cars parring a race that is almost without parallel in the 24 hours' contest at Brighton Beach track today are spinning about the oval with all records broken. Twelve cars are in the race.

Roosevelt for President in 1916. Chicago, Oct. 3.—Republican and democratic leaders here are worked up today over a speech by Congressman Nicholas Longworth at Sterling, Ill., yesterday during which the president's son-in-law started a bomb for Roosevelt for president in 1916. The republicans declare Longworth's statement was merely the result of his enthusiasm over the president's work, while the democrats profess to see a far sighted plan already on foot to put the president back into the White House after he has rested for eight years.

Preparing for Demonstration. Chicago, Oct. 3.—Preparations for the greatest demonstration of Catholics of the United States since the pious council of Baltimore over two decades ago are under way here. The event will be the Catholic Missionary Congress of the United States and Canada which will begin here November 15 and end November 18. Nearly sixty archbishops and bishops of the United States, Canada and Mexico have promised to attend. At a meeting today presided over by Archbishop Quigley, chairman of the board of governors of the Catholic church extension society and Archbishop of Chicago, plans for the meeting were discussed.

DR. KOCH'S THEORY. Dr. Robert Koch's theory that the human family cannot become infected with the bacilli of bovine tuberculosis probably will no longer be accepted by the majority of the medical and scientific men who are combating the most deadly enemy of mankind.

John M. De Lashmott, son of the late Judge Elias Land and Eliza De Lashmott, died at his home near Mount Airy, Md., of heart disease, in the seventy-third year of his age. In early manhood Mr. De Lashmott left his home in Frederick, Md., and located in the south. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted with the Sixth Texas Cavalry, and saw active service throughout the conflict. He was engaged in all hard-fought battles in which the southwestern army participated and was twice wounded.

Despite the self-sacrifice of his daughter Miss Mary Garrison, who despatched her own reputation on the witness stand and defied the court by tearing up an incriminating letter offered as evidence in an effort to save her father, J. Henry Garrison, has been convicted at Laurens, S. C., of manslaughter for killing J. Lewis Williamson his daughter's fiance. The defense based upon "unwritten law" was that Williamson had been shot by Garrison while acting in an improper manner towards the girl in the prior at her home. Miss Garrison supported the story in her testimony.

About a year ago Mrs. D. M. Lee, of Stafford county, wife of Capt. Dan M. Lee, lost or had stolen from her a very handsome diamond ring valued at $250. A colored girl in her employ was suspected of the theft and was arrested, but acquitted. Last Tuesday, Missie Brown a colored girl, had a diamond ring cut off one of her fingers at Middleton's jewelry store in Fredericksburg. An officer was notified, who held the ring, which was afterward identified by Miss Edna Lee, Mrs. Lee's daughter as her mother's property. The colored girl claims the ring was given her by another negro girl, whose name she says she does not know.

Attacked by Moros. Manila, Oct. 5.—Fifty Moros attacked the scout outpost at Camp Mompang at an early hour this morning, and in the ensuing fight one of the Filipino scouts was killed and two wounded, while nine Moros were slain and several wounded. Two scout rifles and three belts of ammunition were captured. The stock was not wholly unexpected, as the Moros in this locality have been threatening trouble for some time.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 3.—The stock market opened buoyant and in the first few minutes advanced in a large number of issues were made ranging from fractions to more than one point over yesterday's figures. All through the first hour stocks were taken at most steadily advancing prices, and at the end of the period of over 2 points were made in a number of leading issues.

CARLIN SPEAKS IN WASHINGTON.

Congressman C. O. Carlin made an address at the Riggs House in Washington last night to one of the largest crowds ever assembled in that building. During the course of his speech he appealed to the voter to examine into the record of the two great parties and decide for himself. He said the time had come when the voter should have an opinion of his own and not be subservient to anyone.

TROUBLE IN ARRONIA. Twenty-eight men answered the call of Edmund F. Hubard, commonwealth's attorney of Buckingham county, for volunteers to go into the outlaw country and search for Arthur and Benjamin Zimmerman and Charles and William Thomas, the four men believed to be directly responsible for the conditions prevailing there.

THE people of Arronia are greatly distressed that such a great sensation should have developed there. Arronia is a thoroughly civilized place, with cultured and intelligent people.
