MR. BRYAN IN NEW YORK

After a strenuous day of speaking in cities and towns around New York, William J. Bryan was principal speaker at a monster rally given by Tammany Hall, in Madison Square Garden, last night.

The day was an exhausting one for Mr. Bryan, for he rained most of the day, and he was compelled to eat his dinner in his wet clothing in 15 minutes, instead of participating in the banquet at the democratic club in Fifth avenue.

Yesterday morning at a reception of the woman's democratic club at the Waldorf Astoria, Mr. Bryan made a speech referring to the fact of women taking such an active interest in politics. He did not wait for the lunch the women had supplied, but was hurried away to Westchester county in an automobile, to speak there.

Mr. Bryan returned to New York in the evening, arriving at the Democratic Club at Fifth avenue and Fifty-sixth street, at 8 o'clock last night, two hours behind schedule and in clothes very wet from the rain in Westchester. The dinner had gone on without the guest of honor, and Mr. Bryan, Gov. J. Miller, Mr. Mack and the others of Mr. Bryan's party ate their dinner in fifteen minutes, while the parade was being organized outside.

Before the parade started Mr. Bryan was prevailed upon by his managers to give up taking part in the parade, and instead to go direct to the Hoffman House and change his wet clothes for dry. The parade, therefore, with its 50 automobiles, started without him. Red fires were burning up and down Fifth avenue from the clubhouse.

Hamilton Fish Park was a solid block of people, chiefly from the tenements in the immediate neighborhood. Mr. Bryan was there when the parade arrived and already was speaking. The police estimated that there were 25,000 people in the park. Mr. Bryan in his speech eulogized the Jewish race, and told what it had done and what it yet could do for the betterment of the country.

But, it was in the Madison Square Garden meeting that the chief interest lay.

The immense auditorium was quickly filled, and when 8 o'clock, the hour of the opening of the meeting, came, every seat was taken and the aisle ways became choked with hundreds of enthusiastic persons. It was Tammany's welcome to the presidential candidate, and from out the purlieus of the city came thousands eager to aid in the greeting.

In his speech Mr. Bryan said: "I am glad to begin the closing week of this campaign in this great commercial city. I am glad to be encouraged by the reports that come from your city and state. I rejoice in the evidences of a victory so large that the east and west, north and south will claim a part in that victory. I desire to present a few thoughts appropriate to the closing week of the campaign, but I speak of issues and I beg the privilege of saying a word about candidates. I want to urge your support for the candidates for Congress that are here represented tonight. I expect to be in Washington after the 4th day of March (prolonged cheer), and I want to find there a democratic Congress. The president can act as an executive in an executive capacity without the aid of Congress, but he cannot participate in legislation except as he co-operates with Congress. I aspire to the presidency. It is not because I shall find great pleasure in distributing patronage. There is one thing that makes that office attractive to me, and that is that the president participates in legislation, and I believe that legislation—remedial legislation—is needed. I believe the country is ripe for that legislation, and that if we have there a democratic Congress and a democratic president, and that both Congress and the president being pledged to the Denver platform, it will be possible to send to the senate measure after measure carrying out the reforms outlined in that platform, and that with a majority of the American people behind us we can demand that the senate submit to the will of the people."

Why

Is it that there is an occasional howl about the poor quality of goods sold by firms? The reason is that such business houses have no future and want to "get their" no matter what the purchasers receive.

Our Motto

Is to recommend to you something we can guarantee and sell to you, whether you live in the city or country, exactly what we SHOW YOU.

Some One

Has said that we were not particular about the trade of Alexandria city, and we want the people here to know that such statement is absolutely false.

A Business Man

Would be an idiot to come to a city, invest money in heavy expenses, including taxes and other things, and then even intimate such a statement as this.

We Desire Your Trade

In Liquors and to that end we intend to publish every week our line of goods and invite you to call and look them over.
