DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The democratic meeting at the Opera House last night, under the auspices of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club, was largely attended.

On the stage were Messrs. John A. Marshall, R. S. Barrett, S. L. Moore, J. M. Hill, J. Fred Birrell, D. R. Stansbury, R. L. Moore and others.

Mr. S. G. Brent, president of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club, presided, and in his usual graceful manner introduced the speakers.

Mr. James R. Oston was the first speaker of the evening, and said the democratic party today was working as a unit for the election of their candidate as president.

Mr. Brent then introduced Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville.

After prolonged applause Judge Duke stated that he had just come from the Valley of Virginia where he had been called upon to give a lecture.

Mr. W. C. Van Mair, lessee of the Alexandria Opera House, wishes to announce that F. M. Bradley, formerly manager, is no longer connected with that house.
