PRESENTATION OF LOVING CUP

Confederate Veterans' Hall was densely packed last night by members of R. E. Lee Camp, Sons of Veterans, the ladies of the various Confederate societies, members of the Richmond Howitzers and others, and it was generally agreed that it is occasion was one of the most interesting and pleasant that has been experienced since the building has been occupied by the present owners.

The company had gathered to witness the proceedings incident to the presentation by a deputation from the Richmond Howitzers of a loving cup to Lee Camp, the Sons of Veterans and the Women's Auxiliary Society.

The assemblage was to have been called to order at 8 o'clock, but it was late when Commander W. A. Smoot performed that service.

The delegation was met at the Union Depot by a committee and escorted to the hall. There was a large attendance on the part of the Alexandria organizations and twenty members of the Richmond Howitzers were present, all of whom were in uniform.

After the assemblage had been called to order Captain Myers, of the Howitzers, made a brief but interesting speech, in which he recounted the experience of the command in Alexandria last June, especially referring to the hospitality extended by the Confederates and auxiliary organizations on that occasion.

The captain subsequently introduced Mr. Cox, a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, who was one of the guests last June. He gave an interesting talk which was greatly enjoyed.

Rev. James Power Smith, formerly chaplain for Stonewall Jackson, and who was with that hero when his eyes closed in death, was the next speaker. He was listened to with close attention.

Hon. John Lamb followed Rev. Mr. Smith. His remarks were chiefly in reference to the ladies. As has been the case whenever Mr. Lamb has spoken in Alexandria, his remarks were justly appreciated.

Captain Myers made the presentation speech in a manner which brought forth considerable applause.

The response accepting the cup on behalf of Lee Camp was made by Mr. John M. Johnson in a fervid and interesting manner.

Mr. E. C. Graham, past commander of Lee Camp, responded on behalf of the Women's Auxiliary Society, and Dr. E. A. Grimes on behalf of the Sons of Veterans. Both these gentlemen performed their respective parts well.

A buffet collation, prepared by the Women's Auxiliary Society, was subsequently served. Everything had been prepared in a dainty and tasteful manner, and the viands were greatly enjoyed.

Later Capt. Myers recited amusing anecdotes and members of the company engaged in singing war songs.

The hour was late when the company adjourned.

Capt. Myers, two lieutenants and the seventeen men composing the delegation from the Howitzers left for Richmond at an early hour this morning greatly pleased with last night's experience.

The cup presented by the Howitzers is now on exhibition in the window of the drug store of Mr. Edgar W. Field, jr., northwest corner of King and Pitt streets.

MASONIC FAIR.

To perpetuate the connection of George Washington with Masonry and to commemorate his relations with Alexandria-Washington Lodge an organized effort is being made to collect funds for the erection of a memorial, fire proof building in which shall be kept many valuable relics of the first master of this lodge, who was, as well, the first president of this great country. Among the articles associated with George Washington (and which belong to and are in the possession of this lodge) are: The chair occupied by Washington when he was master; His portrait painted by William, of Philadelphia, in 1794, expressly executed for the lodge and the only portrait for which Washington sat while he was president of the United States; the towel used in laying the corner stone of the Capitol of the United States; His bed chamber clock, wedding gloves, farm spurs, field compasses, and many other valuable relics once the property of or directly connected with the Washington family, all of which are at this time on public exhibition in the lodge room.

It is believed that the hearts of true Americans and worthy Masons will be stirred by a patriotic impulse to participate in raising this Masonic Memorial in the place where Washington presided over the meetings of the brethren of the mystic tie. Such an edifice will be a common meeting ground for all who are drawn together as Masons, not only those who live near his home at Mount Vernon, but for strangers who, from far parts of the country, come to visit the spot where rest his remains.

For the purpose of raising money to accomplish the above named object, it is proposed, as a beginning, to hold a fair under the auspices of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, in this city beginning February 1 and continuing till the 12th. The success of this effort will depend upon the liberal response of a generous public. Contributions for the fair, in either merchandise or money, will be gratefully received. A roll will be made of the names of all who aid in this fair, or in the general enterprise, and will be preserved among the records and archives of the lodge. All contributions will be promptly acknowledged by properly constituted authority.

The fair will be held in Armory Hall which is now being fitted for the occasion, and many of the ladies of this city are lending their aid in its behalf. Numbers of very handsome contributions are being received daily and the outlook is for a most successful and enjoyable entertainment.

The Red Cross Shoes for under feet. The ladies who wear the Red Cross Shoes always wear a smile. Sold only by J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King Street.

A HANDSOME PRIZE.

There are men who love fast horses, there are those who love automobiles and there are still a "few" who love the boat. When the sun shines on both sides of the street and all nature is chanting its lay indicative of the summer season you will find that two-thirds of the sport loving people of the city will hie themselves to the Potomac and in a craft of one kind or another float majestically up or down. The trip may be in quest of fish or fowl, but it is generally to get a bird or get rid of a "Byrd" law. The handsome launch "George Washington," to be given away at the Masonic memorial fair is a thing of beauty and will be a credit to the fleet possessed by the sports who spend their time on the river in the "good old summer time." You can look at it as it stands on its pedestal and see in it many troubles "waters" which can only be stilled by the oil of human generosity which will be characteristic of those who tend the Masonic midwinter memorial fair to be given February 1. When the committee, a generous set of good fellows, awards this handsome boat to the lucky one, they can do so with a consciousness of duty well performed and when "George Washington" makes its bow to the majestic Potomac "Maryland, My Maryland" will pay due homage to the good cause displayed by the special feature committee in its selection.

BRAKEMAN KILLED.

Silas B. Grove, a freight brakeman, was instantly killed about 9 o'clock last night by being caught under a car of lumber that had been overturned in the Potomac Railroad yards. Grove was walking along the track when engine No. 472, drawing a heavy freight train, crashed into a string of freight cars which were being shifted. Three of the cars were overturned, one of which crushed Grove before he had a chance to get out of the way. His body was horribly mangled, and it was a half hour before it was taken to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment. Grove was a resident of this city and is survived by a wife and several children. He was fifty-eight years old.

DR. ASHTON, THE CORNER OF ALEXANDRIA COUNTY HELD AN INQUEST TODAY.

The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts, and reported that they were unable to ascertain which train had the right of way at the time of the accident, and that consequently the jury was unable to fix the responsibility or blame.

STATION BILL PASSED.

The House yesterday passed the bill introduced by Mr. Carlin providing for a substitution at Seventh and O streets southwest, by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The bill provides that the work be begun on the station within thirty days after the final passage of the act, and that it shall be completed within four months. In discussing the bill, Mr. Carlin said that the commissioners had first agreed on a site at Fourteenth street, but later agreed they were wrong and were now in favor of the Seventh street location. It is provided in the bill that the plans shall be approved by the commissioners and that they supervise the work. It is also provided that the railroad company maintain adequate ticket and baggage facilities at the station.

FOR EPISCOPAL SEMINARY.

For the education of young men for the ministry of the Episcopal Church $10,000 is bequeathed to the Episcopal Theological Seminary and High School, Fairfax county, Virginia, by the will of Miss Louisa O. E. Taylor, admitted to probate in the Orphan's Court, of Baltimore, yesterday. The legacy is the principal of a fund left in trust for Miss Taylor by her father, the late Robert A. Taylor. The money is left to Rt. Rev. Alfred M. Randolph, bishop of Southern Virginia, to be turned over to the trustees of the institution. It is to be invested and the income used.

RIVER VIEW SOLD.

The River View excursion resort, on the Potomac, in Maryland, near Fort Washington, was sold at public auction yesterday in front of the courthouse at Upper Marlboro, Md., and was purchased by W. B. Emmert, of Bristol, Va., who bid $23,500. Mr. Emmert represents the interests that about five weeks ago purchased the property of the Washington and Potomac Steamboat Company and of the late Capt. E. S. Randall at Colonial Beach, and which are preparing to operate the resort next summer.

FREIGHT SERVICE.

On February 1, the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company will inaugurate a new freight service between Philadelphia, Alexandria, and Washington, in connection with the Clyde Steamship Company. This departure will open up a new avenue for the prompt handling of all freight destined to any of these points, and will unquestionably prove of much value to the business men of Alexandria and vicinity.

THE POTOMAC RISING.

A dispatch from Hagerstown, Md., says the water in the Potomac river is rising rapidly, and there are fears of a freeze, resulting from melting snow in the mountains and rains Sunday. The river there last night was ten feet above normal. The Potomac at Alexandria has not been affected by the recent rains and melting of snow.

MR. DEMPSEY'S LECTURE.

There was a large assemblage in the Second Presbyterian Church last night to listen to Mr. P. J. Dempsey's recent observations at Panama. The lecture was illustrated by many stereoscopic views of the canal zone. The description given by the speaker together with the pictures was instructive, and all present enjoyed the lecture.

DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT.

The Fanchon Pleasure Club will give a soiree at McBarney's Hall tomorrow night. It promises to be one of the most pleasant affairs of the season, and a large attendance is expected. This will be their last dance for two weeks, or during the time the Masonic fair is in progress. Dancing will start promptly at 8:45 o'clock.

Several candidates were initiated at the regular meeting last night of Alexandria Lodge of Elks. Business of importance to the organization was also transacted.

Keep your feet dry. Try a pair of the celebrated "Walk Over" Shoes. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King Street.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE

A Sunday School Institute is being held at Christ Church today and is being well attended. The program as published yesterday is being carried out, and the addresses and debates are interesting and instructive. The services were commenced at 10 o'clock this morning with the holy communion by Rev. W. J. Morton and there was an hour's intermission for lunch. The last meeting will be held in the church at 8 o'clock tonight when a large attendance is expected. The speakers today were Messrs. John Ridout, K. J. Hammond, R. E. Anderson and Mrs. Edna Phelps Hastings.

The first subject discussed this morning was the work in the advanced classes and post-confirmation instruction and it was opened by the Rev. John Ridout, of St. Andrew's Church, Richmond.

The address was followed by a question box and general discussion. Mr. Robert E. Anderson, of All Souls' Church, Richmond, spoke on Sunday school management and this, too, was followed by the question box and general discussion. After luncheon, work on the main school was resumed by the Rev. Kenney J. Hammond, of Wilmington, Del., and work in the primary department by Miss Edna Phelps Hastings, of Washington, both of these subjects being followed by general discussion and the question box.

The morning and afternoon sessions were primarily for the benefit of the officers and teachers in the Sunday school, but the evening session, which will be held in Christ Church at eight o'clock, will be of interest to church people in general and all those interested in the training and instruction of the young.

The addresses will be by Rev. John Ridout, of Richmond, who has charge of the institutional work in connection with St. Andrew's, which is one of the leading churches in this work in the diocese, and Rev. Kenney J. Hammond, of Wilmington, Del., one of the leaders of this work in the church. These gentlemen will speak on the importance of the Sunday school work and the Sunday school as the educational department of the church. A most cordial invitation is extended by the institute to all the ministers, Sunday school officers and teachers, without regard to denomination to be present at this service, also all parents and others interested in the training of the boys and girls committed to their care, and it is hoped that the results of these meetings will be as great in proportion as that of the conference being held at the same time in the national capital.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jane Elizabeth Ross, who died in Washington several days ago, took place yesterday afternoon from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment.

A nephew of Milton Mallott who died at the Alexandria Hospital last Thursday night, came to this city yesterday and made arrangements for the funeral of the deceased, which took place from Demaine & Son's undertaking parlors this afternoon. Rev. G. I. Humphreys conducted the services.

The remains of Alma A., the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powell, who died in Richmond early yesterday morning, reached this city yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Morton will conduct the services.

F. L. Slaymaker, captain & co. vs. P. J. Murphy et al., a suit involving the ownership of the personal property in Armory Hall. The plaintiffs are represented by Messrs. Norton & Bore and the defendants by Mr. S. G. Brent. Court directed the complainant to turn over to the defendants certain personal property now in the Armory building.

K. E. Cobb vs. Chas. King & Son Co.; motion for judgment for repairs to a time clock; judgment for defendant.

PLEASURE GALORE.

An immense audience welcomed the new vaudeville and motion picture show at the Opera House last night. As it has been the custom of this house to cater to the best people and furnish the best show, just as it is with the management. The vaudeville acts are not compatible with their interests, but they replace said loss with new and up to date features. Joe Biener and Ritter Carl are indeed stars as black feist singing and dancing comedians and kept the audience in a roar all the time. Tonight in addition to a splendid set of pictures there will be entire new vaudeville and other items of interest.

ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENT CO.

Nothing could possibly be better than the entertainment furnished the people by the Alexandria Amusement Company last night. No better pictures could possibly be shown than those thrown on the canvas nightly by the management at this house. Tonight there will be an exceptional programme of motion pictures which will do your heart good. See advertisement.

MR. COUNTRYMAN.

Mr. Carl Countryman delighted the audience which greeted him at the Young People's Building last night. His testimonials led the people to expect an artist and he fully measured up to their expectations. By way of introduction he gave some of his experiences as a "walker." Mr. Countryman expects to tramp through the continent of Europe next summer.

HOW IS YOUR WATCH Running? Is it always fast or slow? Never quite on time. Perhaps the watch is capable of very accurate running but it is not in perfect order.
