Committee on arrangements—Mrs. M. G. Powell and Mrs. Geo. Uhler.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN. The electric train due in this city at 11.30 o'clock this morning collided with a wagon belonging to the Adams Express Company, in charge of Mr. Robert Bender, at the intersection of Duke and Royal streets, overturning the vehicle and causing the horses to start to run away.

The shock of the collision precipitated Mr. Bender into the street and the wagon was thrown on its side on him, and he was pulled several yards before he became clear of the vehicle.

Two young men, William Kettland and Charles Davis, who were close by stopped the horses and picked Mr. Bender up. Later he was conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital where he was attended by Drs. Smith and Dokany. His back is injured, as is also his left knee, his head cut and he is suffering from painful bruises. Mr. Bender may also have sustained internal injuries.

The train was in charge of Conductor Davis and Motorman Sator. The glass in the cab of the motor car was broken by the accident, and the upper portion of the wagon was considerably damaged.

The alarm of fire early last night was caused by the burning of an ash barrel in the alley on the east side of Pitt street, between Prince and Duke.

The only store where Regal shoes can be had outside of their agency, John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

CRISIS OF DISTRESS.

Night before last after the Norfolk steamer had cast off its lines and was on its way down the Potomac, the helpers had departed from the wharf, and owing to cool conditions of the weather the usual loiters were conspicuous for their absence, a cry rang out in the stillness of the darkness: "Help poor John," "Save poor John." A few people robed to the place from which the startling cry came and saw in the river holding with a death-like grasp the screw of a launch lying in front of the J. F. Burroughs, Son & Co's feed mill.

A well known captain who had often before piloted many people safely to different ports, but who was as helpless as an infant at this time. Ropes were thrown him, but he refused to let go his grip. He was finally rescued in an exhausted condition and restored to his family. Being a well known river man and thoroughly acquainted with conditions around the wharf it is a little peculiar how he happened to be overboard, especially at this particular place.

EASTER.

Tomorrow will be Easter, the most joyful day in the church calendar, commemorating the resurrection of the crucified Saviour, and will be appropriately observed in the Catholic, Episcopal, Lutheran and some of the other churches. The elaborate musical programmes as published in the Gazette will be rendered. Several of the Sunday schools will hold their Easter celebrations, and confirmation services will be held in St. Paul's and Christ churches.

The day for years past has been the occasion for the display of spring gowns, hats and bonnets by the ladies and of spring suits for the men, and tomorrow will, in all probability, be no exception to the rule.

CHESAPEAKE PRESBYTERY.

The Chesapeake Presbytery, composed of the ministers and one elder from the Southern Presbyterian churches in Alexandria, Washington, and the counties of Fairfax, Loudoun, Culpeper, Fauquier, Prince William, and Stafford, will meet in the Second Presbyterian Church in this city next Tuesday, 8 p. m.

All the sessions of Presbytery are public. The services will be as follows: Tuesday, 8 p. m. sermon, by Rev. J. H. Taylor, for the retiring moderator; Wednesday, 11 a. m. sermon, by Rev. T. H. Hooper, Wednesday, 8 p. m. sermon, by Rev. H. W. Pratt; Thursday, 11 a. m. sermon, by Rev. James P. Smith; Thursday, 8 p. m. foreign mission service, address by Rev. H. M. Moffitt.

AMUSEMENTS. The closing night of the week finds the amusement houses with an excellent programme of pictures and vaudeville, and the masses feeling highly elated over a successful week.

Tonight there will be a change of pictures and vaudeville at each house and an hour or two can be spent to pleasure at little expense. You will make no mistake in visiting either amusement house tonight.

At the Opera House one of the most stirring pictures ever exhibited will be seen, that is Pathe's masterpiece "The Return of Ulysses." This is a great production. As you can see by a glance at the advertisements the other houses have great shows. Don't fail to see the pictures.

RETURN OF CHIEF GOODS. Chief of Police Goods, who went to Richmond a few days ago to ascertain if the State would pay for an analysis of what are supposed to be blood spots on clothing belonging to Eugene Dorsey and Calvin Johnson, both colored, suspected of being parties to the murder of Walter F. Shultz, has returned. Owing to the absence of Governor Swanson from Richmond, the chief was unable to see him in reference to the appropriation. Chief Goods will probably make another visit to Richmond after the governor shall have returned.

BRASS TABLET. A brass tablet given by the King's Daughters of the church will be unveiled in Grace Church tomorrow morning at the 11 o'clock service, to the memory of Rev. Dr. Sprigg, the organist and first rector of the church. Dr. Sprigg's daughter, Mrs. Fannie Sprigg Perry, and four grandchildren will be present, and a grandson will unveil the tablet. The service in the evening will be at 7.45 p. m.

PICTURE TEMPERANCE MEETING. As has been announced a picture temperance meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock at the Free Methodist Church, on south Lee street. Rev. John Cavanaugh, pastor of the church, says this will prove to be one of the most interesting temperance meetings ever held in this city, and he extends a cordial invitation to the public.

Rheumatism. More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp weather or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. Price, 25 cents; large size, 50 cents. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Attempts to Poison Half Brother. "If his lips are not sealed tonight, a felon's death awaits me." Such were the words, when Pedro Mendez, a criminal of the blackest hue was in the act of placing poison in the medicine of his half brother, General Lester. The general lying on his couch detected him, and calls his family when what transpires will be seen in "A Debt of Honor," at the Opera House, April 16.

The first showing of Regal Shoes in the city, John A. Marshall & Bro. 422 King street.

PERSONAL.

Rev. and Mrs. Paza Kennedy, of Seminary Hill, are visiting the former's mother and sisters at Charlestown, W. Va.

Mr. Joseph L. Orupper has gone to Lynchburg to attend a meeting of the state republican committee. He is of the opinion that Mr. G. Hiespie will be nominated for governor.

Judge O. E. Nicol, A. B. Nicol, John M. Johnson, of Alexandria, and John S. Barbour, of Fairfax, were in attendance upon the term of the Circuit Court here this week.—(Manassas Journal).

Miss M. r. Dinwiddie left Friday to visit friends in Alexandria.—(Charlottesville Progress).

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Rogers, of 120 south Lee street, are entertaining today the graduating class of the high school at Greenwald, New York, who are on an excursion to Washington, accompanied by one of the assistant principals of the school, Miss Neva E. Suits, as chaperon.

Among the boys mentioned in the honor list of the V. P. L. at Blackburg for the second term, are O. L. Watkins, E. R. Hodgson and W. G. Harris, of Alexandria.

Bishop Gibson will preach and confirm at St. Paul's Church at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning and at Christ Church at 8 o'clock at night.

Mrs. J. E. Alexander has gone to Kentucky to visit her daughter who is quite ill.

Mrs. Lawrence Davis, of Charlotte Hall, St. Mary's county, Md., is visiting Mrs. W. A. Harding at her residence, corner Queen and St. Asaph streets.

Miss Nettie Harding was delightfully entertained on the sixteenth anniversary of her birthday at a party given at her residence, corner of Queen and St. Asaph streets, Saturday, April 3rd. Among her invited guests were friends from Washington, Charlotte Hall, St. Mary's county, Md., and from the Episcopal High School.

Mr. J. Sid. Douglas will visit relatives in Louisiana for the next two months.

Keep your feet dry. "Try a pair of the celebrated" Walk Over Shoes. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES. Mrs. Wilkes, colored, died at her home, 613 south Alfred street, yesterday. The last course of stone is being laid on the first National Bank building on King street.

The schooner Lida Veno, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Wicomico.

The Arrl term of the Corporation Court will begin on Monday. No order has yet been issued for a grand jury, but one may be drawn after court meets.

The first degree was conferred upon two candidates at the meeting last night of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows. Two applications for membership were also received.

Owing to the numerous complaints made about children loitering around the moving picture buildings and impeding people for entrance money, the mayor has directed Chief Goods to have all such children arrested.

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. Two colored men had been arrested for drunken and disorderly conduct. One forfeited his collateral by failing to appear, and the other was fined $5.

There was virtually nothing new to note in market this morning. The supply of country produce showed no increase over that of last Saturday and prices had undergone no material changes. Eggs had advanced to 22 cents a dozen.

Dan Roy, colored, discovered a thief in the yard of his residence on Cameron street, between Fayette and Payne, on Thursday night. Roy discharged two pistol shots at the intruder, and blew a police whistle, but the would-be thief escaped. It is supposed that he was after chickens.

The weather was cold again last night, and the northwest wind which set in Wednesday diminished but little ice formed in exposed places. The mercury at an early hour this morning was down to 34°. About nine o'clock there were snow flurries. Two years ago yesterday two inches of snow fell, and blizzard weather prevailed.

There has been little or no egg picking this season, but probably on Monday some of the younger generation may engage in this game. On this day should the weather be fair many of the children will have their Easter picnics and egg rollings on the hills in or near this city.

Mrs. Olivia L. Smith, of Washington, aged 85 years, died this morning at the Alexandria Hospital, where she had been a patient for over a year past. Mrs. Smith was the widow of James V. Smith, and the mother of Mr. J. Edgar Smith, of the Interstate Commission. Her remains will be taken to Washington for interment on Monday in Congressional cemetery.

Attention is called to the coffee and butter advertisement of the popular firm of Edward Quinn & Sons on this page.
