Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to trust upon such knowledge. So he publishes broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies the fact. This he feels he can afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weakness, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming. This rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and curative nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is intended to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet, extracts from the leading authorities to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

WORK OF TRAIN ROBBERS.

A dispatch from Spokane, Wash., says following the hold-up of a Great Northern passenger train by six bandits, between Colbert and Mead, Saturday night, 12 persons on the train were injured.

The robbers had detached the engine and mail car and taken them down the track a considerable distance, where they looted the registered mail. Then, reversing the engine, they sent it and the mail car crashing back into the passenger coaches in which a number of passengers were sleeping. The conductor saw the wild cars backing down the track at 25 miles an hour and he and another trainman put a tie on the track, but the cars, though partly stopped by this means, plunged into the coaches. Passengers were thrown from their seats and cut by the glass from broken windows. A trainman sprang aboard the locomotive as the collision occurred and shut off the steam, which stopped the havoc.

When the train reached Colbert late Saturday night there was some switching to be done. While the engine crew was at this work two men sprang into the car, thrust a revolver against the bodies of Engineer Miller and Fireman Hall and ordered them to do as commanded. The engineer and fireman complied and the mail car was cut off by four other robbers. The locomotive and car then ran up the track a few miles. The engineer and fireman were forced to leave the car and two of the robbers went to the door of the mail car and ordered it opened. Their command was obeyed by Benjamin F. Stumpf, mail clerk, who was driven away from the cars with the engine by a dozen revolver shots. Manning the locomotive themselves the outlaws took the mail car down the track and looted the registered mail. Then they started the locomotive back and escaped.

A COLOSSAL FUNERAL.

Every American, especially every American of the gentler sex, who has visited Paris knows the great Magasin du Louvre, the big department between the Palais Royal and the Tuilleries. Its founder, H. A. Chauchard, now at the point of death, is preparing to give Paris a new surprise. He is a bachelor, many times a millionaire, and lives in a princely residence. He has often astonished the world by the fabulous prices he has paid for art treasures. He bought Millet's "Angelus" for $200,000, and paid vast sums for other pictures, notably Meissonier's "1815."

In his declining years the old gentleman has become rather eccentric, and his chief occupation has been to arrange the details of his funeral, which he has planned upon a royal scale. He has already had a magnificent sarcophagus costing $15,000 built in the Pere-Lachaise Cemetery, and selected a coffin, costing $4,000, made of amaranth wood, with chased bronze ornaments. For his funeral he has set aside the sum of $40,000.

The body is to lie in state at his residence for two days, the services will be held with much pomp at the famous Church of La Madeleine. There is to be music from opera choruses and several speeches will be made. The procession to the cemetery, through the grand boulevards is to be a splendid Louis XV. cortege, preceded by grooms and lacies, 200 messenger boys from the store in livery and the entire 4,000 employees. Following the horse his friends will ride in old time state mourning carriages, with coachmen in cocarde and silver galons. Mr. Chauchard intends to bequeath his art treasures to his business associates for exhibition in the gallery to be built adjoining the store for the benefit of his customers.

A ROYALIST GATHERING.

The three days' fete in honor of the beatification of Joan of Arc ended in Paris yesterday with impressive services at Notre Dame, at which Mgr. Amette, archbishop of Paris, presided. The Catholic societies for some days previous to the celebration sent out requests that the people decorate, and the response was general.

The royalist committee of Paris seized the occasion to give a dinner of 800 covers in honor of the Duke of Orleans, which was attended by many prominent royalists.

The company sang royalist songs and violent speeches were made against the republic. Senator Le Breton denounced the idea that Joan of Arc, if alive today, would be anything but a royalist Catholic.

"What Frenchman," he exclaimed, "regardless of politics, was unmoved the other day, when the Pope, incarnating the greatest moral authority of the universe, proclaimed the Maid of Orleans a blessed?"

Senator Le Breton concluded by saying that the beatification of Joan of Arc should unite all in common action. When he proposed a toast to the Duke of Orleans those present shouted "Long live the king; down with the republic!"

At the conclusion of the banquet a number of the younger section attempted to form a parade, despite the objections of the police, who finally broke up the procession and tore down the banners. Fifteen arrests were made.
